Shamu And His Friends:

Storybook Worlds Made Real Kathy Merlock Jackson, Mark I. West, 2022-04-22 Memorable children's narratives immerse readers in imaginary worlds that bring them into the story. Some of these places have been constructed in the real world like Pinocchio's Tuscany or Anne of Green Gables Prince Edward Island where visitors relive their favorite childhood tales. Theme parks like Walt Disney World and Harry Potter World use technology to engineer enchanting environments that reconnect visitors with beloved fictional settings and characters in new ways. This collection of new essays explores the imagined places we loved as kids with a focus on the meaning of setting and its power to shape the way we view the world.

Tales from Panchatantra Madhubun, The Panchatantra is an ancient Indian inter-related collection of animal fables. It is the oldest collection of Indian fables surviving. Both animals and humans are portrayed as the characters of the Panchatantra tales. These extraordinary tales are liked even loved by people of all age groups because of the fact that they serve as the best guide to instill moral values in children.

Zoo Culture Bob Mullan, Garry Marvin, 1999 Why do people go to zoos? Is the role of zoos to entertain or to educate? In this provocative book the authors demonstrate that zoos tell us as much about humans as they do about animals and suggest that while animals may not need zoos, urban societies seem to. A new introduction takes note of dramatic changes in the perceived role of zoos that have occurred since the book's original publication. Bob Mullan and Garry Marvin delve into the assumptions about animals that are embedded in our culture. A thought-provoking glimpse of our own ideas about the exotic, the foreign.

Snuffing Out the Moon Osama Siddique, 2018-07-13 2084 bce In the great city of Mohenjodaro along the banks of the Indus a young man named Prkaa becomes increasingly mistrustful of the growing authority of a cult of priests. 455 ce In the fabled university city of Takshasilla Buddhmitra a monk is distressed by how his colleagues seem to have lost sight of the essence of the Buddha's message of compassion. 1620 ce During the reign of the Mughal emperor Jahangir a pair of itinerant fortune seekers endeavour to swindle the patrician elite only to find themselves utterly disillusioned. 1857 ce Mir Sahib a wandering minstrel traverses the realms of human deception even as a rebellion against the British Raj is advancing across India. 2009 ce In contemporary Lahore the widow Rafiya Begum navigates legal complexities in order to secure her rights and fend off predatory charlatans. 2084 ce A scholar revisits the known history of the cataclysmic events that led to world domination by ruthless international water conglomerates. Across epochs and civilizations these are intensely personal journeys that investigate the legitimacy of religion and authority and chronicle the ascent of dissent. Snuffing Out the Moon is a dazzling debut novel that is at once a cry for freedom and a call for resistance.
