Costa

Sr.,2011-05-20 The Making of the Cape Verdean is a book written about Cape Verdeans who migrated from the Cape Verde Islands in the late 1800 s to the 1970 s to New Bedford Massachusetts The book is based on the historical facts about the Portuguese colonization of the Cape Verde islands and its people located off the West Coast of Africa The author provides the history of colonization under Portuguese rule of Salazar and how the Cape Verdean people survived famine imprisonment torture political unrest and the abandonment of the Portuguese government In addition the author gives you a voyeuristic view of what life was like growing up in the Cape Verdean community in New Bedford after they migrated to the United States This book is a powerful recap of of Cape Verdeans from this period and location There is no other documentation that captures the Cape Verdeans the way The Making of the Cape Verdean does in this book Summary of Harriet Lerner's The Dance of Connection Everest Media, 2022-04-30T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 The art of communication is a difficult one and we may do our best to speak but still feel unheard We may find that we cannot affect our husband or wife or partner that fights go nowhere and that conflict brings only pain rather than an opportunity for two people to learn more about each other 2 We can never guarantee that the other person will get our message or respond the way we want But we can learn to be heard and move relationships forward We can take a conversation to the next level when the initial foray doesn t bring the desired result 3 The challenge of finding an authentic voice within an intimate relationship is far larger than a word like communication can ever begin to describe Authenticity brings to mind such elusive qualities as being fully present centered and in touch with our best selves in our most important conversations 4 The challenge in conversation is not just to be ourselves but to choose the self we want to be We don't discover who we are by sitting alone on a mountaintop and meditating or by being introspective and going deeper
