Offering a comprehensive analysis of this complex topic, chapters provide detailed insight into the current state of research in this area as well as expert guidelines aimed at resolving the controversies when parents agree or disagree over their children's living arrangements. Cutting edge topics explored include transnational shared parenting, alternative dispute resolution, breastfeeding parents, religious disputes between parents, and the psychological, social, and economic factors that affect shared parenting. The Routledge International Handbook of Shared Parenting and Best Interest of the Child will be essential reading for scholars and graduate students in law, psychology, sociology, and economics interested in shared parenting and family law.

Parenting Our Children U.S. Commission on Child and Family Welfare, 1996. A report to the President and Congress. Cover Family Mediation Howard H. Irving, Michael Benjamin, 1995-07-19. As divorce rates rise, family mediation represents an alternative way of making settlements without involving an already overburdened judicial system. This book presents a discussion of the current North American trends in the burgeoning field of family mediation by featuring both a review of the literature and a model for family mediation practice. The practice model presented here, Therapeutic Family Mediation, stresses an ecological perspective and considers the feminist critique of the mediation process. The authors also address mediation's role in the important issues of joint custody, ethnicity, and child protection. Future directions in family mediation are examined in the final part.
