not only psychoanalysis but all disciplines concerned with issues of textual oral or visual interpretation      Secrets in Psychotherapy Kathryn Zerbe, 2025-04-01 This book brings together contemporary perspectives from psychodynamic treatment advances in cognitive science medicine and neuroscience in a user friendly format guiding practitioners from beginner to more advanced practitioner in working with secrets that emerge during psychotherapy Despite their ubiquity in life and in clinical practice secrets and secret keeping receive limited attention in the training and skill set required for mental health clinicians Drawing on personal experience and clinical expertise as well as film memoir and literature Dr Kathryn Zerbe shares how secrets come to light in both life and treatment demonstrating the powerful hold that secrets can have on our lives This book offers a fresh take on how we view our secrets and how we can use them as a tool to sustain our most intimate and valued connections over the course of a lifetime Using cutting edge research as well as honed clinical expertise the author suggests how one might go about managing the secrets of everyday living that we must keep as well as how we can identify which we can let go Particular attention is paid to the mind body relationship and somatic countertransference reactions Each chapter suggests guidelines to promote wellness and resilience in the secret keeper whether that be the psychotherapist or their patient Written with compassion and in a user friendly style Secrets in Psychotherapy will benefit anyone who is navigating the thorny terrain of keeping a secret for themselves or someone they know It is an essential read for psychotherapists psychoanalysts and practicing mental health professionals of all disciplines

Matrixial Subjectivity, Aesthetics, Ethics, Volume 1, 1990-2000 Bracha L. Ettinger, 2020-11-17 This book is the first of two volumes that together present for the first time a comprehensive collection of three decades of the theoretical writings of artist and theorist Bracha L Ettinger Edited and introduced by Griselda Pollock they provide a systematic anthology of Ettinger's path breaking and influential concept of Matrixial subjectivity as encounter and jointness in difference and chart her radical intervention in aesthetics ethics and theories of subjectivity far beyond classical feminist and current gender queer theory This first volume includes the writings in which Ettinger elaborates her original concepts of Matrixial space time and metamorphosis fascination with nesting resonance transcriptum compassion self fragilization and resistance co emergence and copoiesis transform theories of the subject Eros alliance and love sexual difference alterity relationality trauma and violence Her critical dialogue with theorists including Levinas Lacan Lyotard and Deleuze Guattari Butler Cavarero and Irigaray is evident here A leading authority on Matrixial theory Griselda Pollock provides explanatory prefaces to each chapter and a lengthy introduction that situates Ettinger's work in relation to socio psychoanalytical theory and practice and current social and philosophical debates Ettinger's interlacing of psychoanalysis ethics and aesthetics can be seen here to address some of the deepest challenges of our social cultural and political existence today      The African American Theatrical Body Soyica Diggs Colbert, 2011-10-06 Presenting an innovative approach to performance studies and literary history Soyica Colbert argues for the centrality of black performance traditions to African American literature including preaching dancing blues and gospel and theatre itself showing how these performance traditions create the performative ground of African American literary texts Across a century of literary production using the physical space of the theatre and the discursive space of the page W E B Du Bois Zora Neale Hurston James Baldwin August Wilson and others deploy performances to re situate black people in time and space The study examines African American plays past and present including A Raisin in the Sun Blues for Mister Charlie and Joe Turner's Come and Gone demonstrating how African American dramatists stage black performances in their plays as acts of recuperation and restoration creating sites that have the potential to repair the damage caused by slavery and its aftermath

Byron's Ghosts Gavin Hopps, 2013-10-11 The first book length examination of spectrality in Byron's work this critical collection questions the popular image of Byron as a sceptical or anti Romantic poet and in so doing reveals a great deal about his work

Sensual Reading Michael Syrotinski, Ian Maclachlan, 2001 Sensual Reading is a collection of essays that attempts to rearticulate the relationship between reading and the different senses as a way of moving beyond increasingly homogenized discourses of the body and the subject Contributions engage with the individual senses with the themes of sensory richness and sensory deprivation and with the notion of telesensuality

History, Trauma and Shame Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela, 2020-10-20 History Trauma and Shame provides an in depth examination of the sustained dialogue about the past between children of Holocaust survivors and descendants of families whose parents were either directly or indirectly involved in Nazi crimes Taking an autobiographical narrative perspective the chapters in the book explore the intersection of history trauma and shame and how change and transformation unfolds over time The analyses of the encounters described in the book provides a close examination of the process of dialogue among members of The Study Group on Intergenerational Consequences of the Holocaust PAKH exploring how Holocaust trauma lives in the everyday lives of descendants of survivors It goes to the heart of the issues at the forefront of contemporary transnational debates about building relationships of trust and reconciliation in societies with a history of genocide and mass political violence This book will be great interest for academics researchers and postgraduate students engaged in the study of social psychology Holocaust or genocide studies cultural studies reconciliation studies historical trauma and peacebuilding It will also appeal to clinical psychologists psychiatrists and psychoanalysts as well as upper level undergraduate students interested in the above areas

The Noah Myth in Twenty-first-century Cli-fi Novels Helen E. Mundler, 2022 Breaks new ground by both analyzing the literary qualities of four recent rewritings of the Noah myth and contextualizing their concern with climate change within the wider crises of the Anthropocene With the rise of concern about global warming in recent years climate change fiction or cli fi has become increasingly important both as a publishing phenomenon and as an area of academic study and research Flood narratives have become a subsection of cli fi in their own right This book proposes new readings of four recent rewritings of the Noah myth Odds Against Tomorrow by Nathaniel Rich Margaret Atwood's Maddaddam trilogy When the Floods Came by Clare Morrall and The Flood by Maggie

Gee Helen E Mundler's book takes into account the wealth of criticism that has appeared on these texts in recent years acknowledging important contributions from critics including Adam Trexler Adeline Johns Putra and Astrid Bracke However her book's strength is that it takes a new approach going beyond the topicality of the texts and treating them not just as ideological statements but giving them their due as literary artifacts While the importance of climate change is beyond debate this book takes a more balanced approach that places it within a wider context of the multiple crises of the Anthropocene y of the texts and treating them not just as ideological statements but giving them their due as literary artifacts While the importance of climate change is beyond debate this book takes a more balanced approach that places it within a wider context of the multiple crises of the Anthropocene y of the texts and treating them not just as ideological statements but giving them their due as literary artifacts While the importance of climate change is beyond debate this book takes a more balanced approach that places it within a wider context of the multiple crises of the Anthropocene y of the texts and treating them not just as ideological statements but giving them their due as literary artifacts While the importance of climate change is beyond debate this book takes a more balanced approach that places it within a wider context of the multiple crises of the Anthropocene

Neo-Victorian Literature and Culture Nadine Boehm-Schnitker, Susanne Gruss, 2014-06-05 This book provides a comprehensive reflection of the processes of canonization unpleasurable consumption and the emerging predominance of topics and theoretical concerns in neo Victorianism The repetitions and reiterations of the Victorian in contemporary culture document an unbroken fascination with the histories technologies and achievements as well as the injustices and atrocities of the nineteenth century They also reveal that in many ways contemporary identities are constructed through a Victorian mirror image fabricated by the desires imaginings and critical interests of the present Providing analyses of current negotiations of nineteenth century texts discourses and traumas this volume explores the contemporary commodification and nostalgic recreation of the past It brings together critical perspectives of experts in the fields of Victorian literature and culture contemporary literature and neo Victorianism with contributions by leading scholars in the field including Rosario Arias Cora Kaplan Elizabeth Ho Marie Luise Kohlke and Sally Shuttleworth Neo Victorian Literature and Culture interrogates current fashions in neo Victorianism and their ideological leanings the resurrection of cultural icons and the reasons behind our relationship with and immersion in Victorian culture      Passion in Theory Robin Ferrell,2006-08-21 Philosophy had either ignored or attacked psychoanalysis such responses are neither warranted nor helpful One hundred years after its inception isn't it time to find out what psychoanalysis has to offer us In Passion in Theory Robyn Ferrell does just that and returns with some surprising answers Concentrating on the work of Freud and Lacan Robyn Ferrell asks why their work had been so influential in European philosophy yet so marginal in the Anglo American circles Passion in Theory explores their conception of the relationship between mind and body and how it provides a key to many current philosophical questions Passion in Theory is designed for students and researchers in psychoanalysis traditional and continental philosophy

Haunting the Korean Diaspora Grace M. Cho,2008 Since the Korean War the forgotten war more than a million Korean women have acted as sex workers for U S servicemen More than 100 000 women married GIs and moved to the United States Through intellectual vigor and personal recollection Haunting the Korean Diaspora explores the repressed history of emotional and physical violence between the United States and Korea and the unexamined reverberations of sexual relationships between Korean women and American soldiers      Good Enough Endings ,      Mortal Subjects Christina Howells,2013-05-02 This wide ranging and challenging book explores the relationship between subjectivity and mortality as it is understood by a number of twentieth century French philosophers including Sartre Lacan Levinas and Derrida Making intricate and sometimes unexpected connections Christina Howells draws together the work of prominent thinkers from the fields of phenomenology and existentialism religious thought psychoanalysis and deconstruction focussing in particular on the relations between body and soul love and death desire and passion From Aristotle through to contemporary analytic philosophy and neuroscience the relationship between mind and body psyche and soma consciousness and brain has been persistently recalcitrant to analysis and emotion or passion is the locus where the explanatory gap is most keenly identified This problematic forms the broad backdrop to the work's primary focus on contemporary French philosophy and its attempts to understand the intimate relationship between subjectivity and mortality in the light not only of the death of the classical subject but also of the very real frailty of the subject as it lives on finite desiring embodied open to alterity and always incomplete Ultimately Howells identifies this vulnerability and finitude as the paradoxical strength of the mortal subject and as what permits its transcendence Subtle beautifully written and cogently argued this book will be invaluable for students and scholars interested in contemporary theories of subjectivity as well as for readers intrigued by the perennial connections between love and death      Trauma in Contemporary Literature Marita Nadal,Mónica Calvo,2014-03-26 Trauma in Contemporary Literature analyzes contemporary narrative texts in English in the light of trauma theory including essays by scholars of different countries who approach trauma from a variety of perspectives The book analyzes and applies the most relevant concepts and themes discussed in trauma theory such as the relationship between individual and collective trauma historical trauma absence vs loss the roles of perpetrator and victim dissociation nachtr glichkeit transgenerational trauma the process of acting out and working through introjection and incorporation mourning and melancholia the phantom and the crypt postmemory and multidirectional memory shame and the affects and the power of resilience to overcome trauma Significantly the essays not only focus on the phenomenon of trauma and its diverse manifestations but above all consider the elements that challenge the aporias of trauma the traps of stasis and repetition in order to reach beyond the confines of the traumatic condition and explore the possibilities of survival healing and recovery Post-Horror David Church, 2021-02-01 Horror's longstanding reputation as a popular but culturally denigrated genre has been challenged by a new wave of films mixing arthouse minimalism with established genre conventions Variouslly dubbed elevated horror and post horror films such as The Babadook It Follows The Witch It Comes at Night Get Out The Invitation Hereditary Midsommar A Ghost Story and mother represent an emerging nexus of taste politics and style that has often earned outsized acclaim from critics and populist rejection by wider audiences Post Horror is the first full length study of one of the most important and divisive movements in twenty first century horror cinema Haunting Legacies Gabriele Schwab, 2010 From mass murder to genocide slavery to colonial suppression acts of atrocity have lives that extend far beyond the horrific moment They engender trauma that echoes for generations in the experiences of those on both sides of the act Gabriele Schwab reads these legacies in a number of narratives primarily through the writing of postwar Germans and the descendents of Holocaust survivors She connects their work to earlier histories of slavery and colonialism and to more recent events such as South African Apartheid the practice of torture after 9 11 and the disappearances that occurred during South American dictatorships Schwab's texts include memoirs such as Ruth Kluger's Still Alive and Marguerite Duras's La Douleur second generation accounts by the children of Holocaust survivors such as Georges Perec's W Art Spiegelman's Maus and Philippe Grimbert's Secret and second generation recollections by Germans such as W G Sebald's Austerlitz Sabine Reichel's What Did You Do in the War Daddy and Ursula Duba's Tales from a Child of the Enemy She also incorporates her own reminiscences of growing up in postwar Germany mapping interlaced memories and histories as they interact in psychic life and cultural memory Schwab concludes with a bracing look at issues of responsibility reparation and forgiveness across the victim perpetrator divide

Night Vision Dominic Angeloch, 2025-04-10 All his life Wilfred Bion strove to find a narrative form for the traumatic experiences he went through as a tank commander in the First World War The body of his autobiographical and literary works documents his efforts to wrest a biography of his own from the most devastating processes of world history As a whole it is the result of a lifelong struggle to express something unspeakable to restore something destroyed What emerges is something like the prehistory of the psychical catastrophe from which Bion was unable to escape until his death As such however these autobiographical fragments also reflect the prehistory of the historical catastrophe under whose spell the world still stands today This book is the first comprehensive study of Bion's autobiographical and literary writings Drawing on the concepts of experience and thinking developed in his theoretical and clinical works with which they are genetically linked it discusses Bion's strategies of writing and cognition and for the first time systematically places a hitherto unexplored part of his work in the context of his entire oeuvre Following the chronological thread of his life from childhood in India through youth in England to his experience of the First World War in France and Belgium the book traces how Bion developed his unique method of writing Detailed narrative analyses reveal the painful work of coming to terms with the war experiences which had haunted him throughout his life a crippling trauma whose causes extended far beyond the individual and private The book thus provides deep insights into Bion's life his thinking and his writing and offers the reader a portrait of the primal catastrophe of the twentieth century and its devastating effects      Culture, Diaspora, and Modernity in Muslim Writing Rehana Ahmed, Peter Morey, Amina Yaqin, 2012-08-21 Fiction by writers of Muslim background forms one of the most diverse vibrant and high profile corpora of work being produced today from the trail blazing writing of Salman Rushdie and Hanif Kureishi which challenged political and racial orthodoxies in the 1980s to that of a new generation including Mohsin Hamid Nadeem Aslam and Kamila Shamsie This collection reflects the variety of those fictions Experts in English South Asian and postcolonial literatures address the nature of Muslim identity its response to political realignments since the 1980s its tensions between religious and secular models of citizenship and its manifestation of these tensions as conflict between generations In considering the perceptions of Muslims contributors also explore the roles of immigration class gender and national identity as well as the impact of 9 11 This volume includes essays on contemporary fiction by writers of Muslim origin and non Muslims writing about Muslims It aims to push beyond the habitual populist framing of Muslims as strangers or interlopers whose ways and beliefs are at odds with those of modernity exposing the hide bound conservative assumptions that underpin such perspectives While returning to themes that are of particular significance to diasporic Muslim cultures such as secularism modernity multiculturalism and citizenship the essays reveal that Muslim writing grapples with the same big questions as serve to exercise all writers and intellectuals at the present time How does one reconcile the impulses of the individual with the requirements of community How can one belong in the modern world What is the role of art in making sense of chaotic contemporary experience
