The Gods' Machines Wun Chok Bong, 2008-05-27 Based on the author's decipherment of prehistoric carvings and the application of mathematical measurements The Gods Machines shows how unknown phenomena from Angkor Wat to Stonehenge to crop circles are actually powerhouses built by an advanced extraterrestrial civilization for tapping electromagnetic energy The book traces the development of that civilization on Earth over 5 000 years revealing how all these structures are aligned according to a universal formula an angle of 135 degrees at which Earth's energy has been tapped by the alien creators of these monuments These fascinating theories not only explain our distant past but also open the door to a future of power technology and space travel Megalithic sites such as Newgrange and Stonehenge are constructed with quartz and iron rich stones with electrical conduction properties minerals also found atop Aztec temple and inside crop circles These stones according to the author served as dry cell batteries when heated and stressed and supplied energy to the builders traveling vehicles Most interestingly the author has tested his theory on today's crop circles The Gods Machines is certain to stimulate debate among readers interested in alternative history ancient civilization and extraterrestrial intelligence

Better a Shrew than a Sheep Pamela Allen Brown, 2018-08-06 In a study that explodes the assumption that early modern comic culture was created by men for men Pamela Allen Brown shows that jest books, plays and ballads represented women as laugh getters and sought out the laughter of ordinary women Disputing the claim that non elite women had little access to popular culture because of their low literacy and social marginality Brown demonstrates that women often bested all comers in the arenas of jesting gaining a few heady moments of agency Juxtaposing the literature of jest against court records, sermons and conduct books Brown employs a witty entertaining style to propose that non elite women used jests to test the limits of their subjection She also shows how women's mocking laughter could function as a means of social control in closely watched neighborhoods While official culture beatified the sheep like wife and disciplined the scold jesting culture often applauded the satiric shrew whether her target was priest, cuckold or rapist Brown argues that listening for women's laughter can shed light on both the dramas of the street and those of the stage plays from The Massacre of the Innocents to The Merry Wives of Windsor to The Woman's Prize taught audiences the importance of gossips' alliances as protection against slanderers, lechers, tyrants and wife beaters Other jests, ballads, jigs and plays show women reveling in tales of female roguery or scoffing at the perverse patience of Griselda As Brown points out some women found Griselda types annoying and even foolish better be a shrew than a sheep Dictionary of Phrase and Fable Ebenezer Cobham Brewer, 1880
