Grainger,2017-12-12 First Love Devotions is written from the authors rich experience of over fifty years as a pastor and teacher One of the dangers a pastor faces is becoming mechanical and professional and losing the first love that motivated him to devote his life as a servant of God The best safeguard against that is maintaining a loving intimate daily fellowship with Jesus as you seek his guidance in understanding the scripture If you find your love for Jesus waning do a thorough job of repentance as you renew and cultivate this relationship Each first love devotion treats a passage of scripture and gives insight based on prayerful reflection as it relates to personal experience In addition to personal spiritual benefits the Christian worker will find a wealth of topics sermon prompts and illustrative materials that may be shared with others

Character as Moral Fiction Mark Alfano, 2013-02-14 Everyone wants to be virtuous but recent psychological investigations suggest that this may not be possible Mark Alfano challenges this theory and asks not whether character is empirically adequate but what characters human beings could have and develop Although psychology suggests that most people do not have robust character traits such as courage honesty and open mindedness Alfano argues that we have reason to attribute these virtues to people because such attributions function as self fulfilling prophecies children become more studious if they are told that they are hard working and adults become more generous if they are told that they are generous He argues that we should think of virtue and character as social constructs there is no such thing as virtue without social reinforcement His original and provocative book will interest a wide range of readers in contemporary ethics epistemology moral psychology and empirically informed philosophy
