Lost In The Fifties

Sir Henry Brett

Lost In The Fifties:

Lost in the Fifties, Wheeler Dixon examines the lost films and directors of the 1950s Contrasting traditional themes of love marriage and family the author's 1950s film world unveils once taboo issues and television shows such as Captain Midnight are juxtaposed with the cheerful world of I Love Lucy

The Lost Decade? The 1950s in European History, Politics, Society and Culture Heiko Feldner, Claire Gorrara, Kevin Passmore, 2010-10-12 This volume of essays explores the social political and cultural legacies of a decade which has until relatively recently received scant scholarly attention Sandwiched uncomfortably between the traumatic events of the Second World War and the dramatic changes of the 1960s the 1950s appeared as seemingly transitional years while they were in fact an astonishingly fecund period of reassessment and experimentation when traditional models were re-evaluated and new models were road tested to be either developed or rejected An important intervention in the dynamic scholarly re-examination of the 1950s this volume analyzes these years in relation to three broadly defined areas historiography politics and society and culture What emerges from all three parts of the volume is a vision of the 1950s as a decade which was to have a profound impact on post war European identities in two key respects as a time of accelerated European intellectual exchange and as a time of fertile receptivity to the new variously formulated and contested across and within national borders Written by experts in the field the contributions to this volume represent some of the most exciting work on the 1950s currently being undertaken in Europe and the US They combine high intellectual standards with accessibility and will appeal to academics students and the general reader alike

Lost Films of the Fifties Douglas Brode, 1988 How do you define forgotten A lost film to my mind is a movie that has yet to evolve as a cult film but which has the potential to One rule of thumb in compiling the hundred films I write about here and the selection process was a long painful one was that I would severely limit the number of films featuring big stars I put a high priority on emphasizing movies that ought to be anthologized but which probably never would unless I included them here from

Introduction

The Hours Have Lost Their Clock Grafton Tanner, 2021-10-12 The Hours Have Lost Their Clock charts the rise of nostalgia in an era knocked out of time In The Hours Have Lost Their Clock Grafton Tanner charts the rise of nostalgia in an era knocked out of time Nostalgia is the defining emotion of our age Political leaders promise a return to yesteryear Old movies are remade and cancelled series are rebooted Veterans reenact past wars while the displaced across the world long for home But who is behind this collective ache for a home in the past Do we need to eliminate nostalgia or just cultivate it better And what is at stake if we make the wrong choice Moving from the fight over Confederate monuments to the birth of homeland security to the mourning of species extinction Grafton Tanner traces nostalgia's ascent in the twenty first century revealing its power as both a consequence of our unstable time and a defense against it With little faith in a future of climate change and economic anxiety many have turned to nostalgia to weather the present while powerful elites exploit it for their own gain An exploration into the politics of loss and yearning The Hours Have Lost Their Clock is an urgent call to take nostalgia seriously The very future depends on it

The Lost Lectures of C. Vann Woodward

C. Vann Woodward, 2020-09-17 C Vann Woodward is one of the most significant historians of the post Reconstruction South Over his career of nearly seven decades he wrote nine books won the Bancroft and Pulitzer Prizes penned hundreds of book reviews opinion pieces and scholarly essays and gained national and international recognition as a public intellectual Even today historians must contend with Woodward s sweeping interpretations about southern history What is less known about Woodward is his scholarly interest in the history of white antebellum southern dissenters the immediate consequences of emancipation and the history of Reconstruction in the years prior to the Compromise of 1877 Woodward addressed these topics in three mid century lecture series that have never before been published The Lost Lectures of C Vann Woodward presents for the first time lectures that showcase his life long interest in exploring the contours and limits of nineteenth century liberalism during key moments of social upheaval in the South Historians Natalie J Ring and Sarah E Gardner analyze these works drawing on correspondence published and unpublished material and Woodward s personal notes They also chronicle his failed attempts to finish a much awaited comprehensive history of Reconstruction and reflect on the challenges of writing about the failures of post Civil War American society during the civil rights era dubbed the Second Reconstruction With an insightful foreword by eminent Southern historian Edward L Ayers The Lost Lectures of C Vann Woodward offers new perspectives on this towering authority on nineteenth and twentieth century southern history and his attempts to make sense of the past amidst the tumultuous times in which he lived From the fleet in the fifties, a history of the Crimean war. With which is incorporated letters written by S.K. Stothert Mrs. Tom Kelly, 1902 From the Fleet in the Fifties Mrs. Tom Kelly, 1902 Front Stoops in the Fifties Michael Olesker, 2021-04-27 This personal history of prominent Baltimoreans sheds light on the social transformations already taking place in the supposedly innocent 1950s Front Stoops in the Fifties recounts the stories of some of Baltimore s most famous personalities as they grew up during the decade of conformity just before they entered the turbulent 1960s Focusing on the period before JFK s assassination Olesker looks to individuals who would go on to influence the brewing cultural revolution Such familiar names as Jerry Leiber Nancy Pelosi Thurgood Marshall and Barry Levinson figure prominently in Michael Olesker s fascinating account which draws on personal interviews and journalistic research Olesker tells the story of Nancy D Alesandro Pelosi daughter of the mayor who grew up in a political home and eventually became the first woman Speaker of the House Thurgood Marshall schooled in a racially segregated classroom went on to argue Brown v Board of Education of Topeka before the U S Supreme Court and rewrite race relations law These and many other stories come to life in Front Stoops in the Fifties A fascinating read The shocking part is just how relevant these stories remain today Baltimore Post Examiner A crisp insightful dispatch from a skilled writer who knows his city and its history David Simon executive producer of HBO s The Wire What America Lost: Decades That Made a Difference Sallie Ferrell Bolich, 2009-08-04 As the fifties ended we were about to embark on a journey that would take our American society in a completely new direction By reviewing history we can identify how the tumultuous sixties chose our path while each decade beginning in 1950 and continuing through 2000 determined our course at that time On this journey many values and lifestyles experienced by the Baby Boomers were left behind not passed on to their children Gen X and Gen Y The resulting new outlook profoundly influenced attitudes held by these emerging generations The fascinating field of handwriting analysis serves as our GPS which enables us to identify these attitudes trace where we've been and understand where society is today Handwriting is an expression of self and attitudes resulting from personal experiences social interactions and events that made a significant impact Reliving the journey with insight is made possible by studying handwriting samples obtained from high school yearbooks covering those five decades Numerous historical and societal changes profoundly influenced attitudes of today These attitudes mirror our culture Handwriting analysis will not reveal precise societal changes however it will reveal how these changes impact attitudes Reminiscences of Fifty Years' Residence in Western Australia J. examines the rural southern world of the first half of this century its collapse and the resulting modernization of southern society The American South was the last region of the Western world to undergo this process and Rural Worlds Lost is the first book to so thoroughly assess the profound changes modernization has wrought Kirby painstakingly charts the structural changes in agriculture that have occurred in the South and the effects these changes have had on people both at work and in the community He is quick to note that there is not just one South but many emphasizing the South s diversity not only in terms of race but also in terms of crop type and topography and the resultant cultural differences of various areas of the region He also skillfully compares southern life and institutions with those in other parts of the country noting discrepancies and similarities Perhaps even more significant however is Kirby s focus on the lives and communities of ordinary people and how they have been transformed by the effects of modernization By using the oral histories collected by WPA interviewers Kirby shows firsthand how rural southerners lived in the 1930s and what forces shaped their views on life He assesses the impact of cash upon traditional rural economies the revolutionary effects of New Deal programs on the rich and poor and the forms and cultural results of migration Kirby also treats home life recording attitudes toward marriage and sex health maintenance and class relationships not to mention sports and leisure moonshining and the southerner s longstanding love hate relationship with the mule Rural Worlds Lost based on exceptionally extensive research in archives throughout the South and in federal agricultural censuses definitively charts the enormous changes that have taken place in the South in this century Writing about Kirby s previous book Media Made Dixie Time Magazine noted Kirby s scholarship of rare lucidity That same high level of scholarship as well as an undeniable affection for the region is abundantly evident in this new path breaking book

Futuristic Cars and Space Bicycles Jeremy Withers,2020 Examining representations of cars and bicycles in American science fiction from the late nineteenth century to the present day Futuristic Cars and Space Bicycles argues that science fiction by and large perceives the car as anything but a marvelous invention of modernity Rather the genre often scorns and ridicules the automobile and instead promotes more sustainable more benign more restrained technologies of movement such as the bicycle

The Long Gray Line Rick Atkinson,2010-04-01 The New York Times bestseller about West Point s Class of 1966 by Pulitzer Prize winning journalist and author Rick Atkinson A story of epic proportions and an awesome feat of biographical reconstruction The Boston Globe A classic of its kind The Long Gray Line is the twenty five year saga of the West Point class of 1966 With a novelist s eye for detail Rick Atkinson author of the Liberation Trilogy illuminates this powerful story through the lives of three classmates and the women they loved from the boisterous cadet years to the fires of Vietnam to the hard peace and internal struggles that followed the war The rich cast of characters also includes Douglas MacArthur William C Westmoreland and a score of other memorable figures The class of 1966 straddled a fault line in American history and Atkinson s masterly book speaks for a generation of American men and women about innocence patriotism and the price we pay for our dreams With Schwarzkopf Gus Lee,2015-10-13 With Schwarzkopf is Gus Lee s remembrance of his mentor and friend H Norman Schwarzkopf and his firsthand account of how Schwarzkopf shaped his life In 1966 Lee a junior year cadet at West Point was bright athletic and popular He was also on the verge of getting kicked out Nearing the bottom of his class due to his penchant for playing poker and reading recreationally instead of studying engineering he was assigned a new professor then Major Norman Schwarzkopf Schwarzkopf s deeply principled nature and fierce personality took hold of the wayward cadet and the two began meeting regularly and discussing what it meant to be a scholar a soldier and a man Lee s vibrant witty narrative brings his more than forty year relationship with Schwarzkopf to life Readers get an inside look at West Point culture they see Schwarzkopf s bristling anger with his rebellious pupil as well as his tenacity intellect and moments of surprising emotional warmth and they watch as Lee starts to absorb his teachings As he left West Point and took on more professional and personal roles Lee approached every crisis or difficult decision by channeling his mentor Over the years Schwarzkopf s instilled values wise counsel and warm conversations shaped Lee and brought the two together in an unlikely friendship In With Schwarzkopf Lee passes along the lessons he learned so future generations can hear Schwarzkopf s important teachings Lost Arcadia Walter A.
