Love And Terror:

Love and Terror William Herrick, 1982-02 Now available as a New Directions paperback Love and Terror William Herrick's second novel with ND both reflects and anticipates today's headlines Terrorist kidnappings hijackings and dramatic rescues all form a part of the plot but Herrick's interest lies less in tension filled heroics than in the human cost of flawed idealism Through the notebook of the principal terrorist Viktor X the complex characters of Viktor and Gabriele for whom love and terrorism are intertwined and inseparable are revealed And in a series of interviews with a nameless reporter the lives of three disillusioned revolutionaries the old ones now hostages to a new brand of revolution gradually and movingly unfold In his earlier Shadows and Wolves New Directions 1980 Herrick showed us the possibility of human solutions that transcend politics In Love and Terror he shows us why any ideology inflexibly adhered to makes such solutions necessary

Love & Terror on the Howling Plains of Nowhere Poe Ballantine, 2013 With an introduction by Cheryl Strayed this memoir by Poe Ballantine is about his obsession with solving the mystery of his neighbor the math professor who disappears in Chadron NE and three months later is found burned to death and tied to a tree in the woods Fans of Truman Capote's In Cold Blood and John Berendt's Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil will embrace Poe Ballantine's Love and Terror on the Howling Plains of Nowhere Poe Ballantine's Free Rent at the Totalitarian Hotel included in Best American Essays 2013 and for well over twenty years Poe Ballantine traveled America taking odd jobs living in small rooms trying to make a living as a writer At age 46 he finally settled with his Mexican immigrant wife in Chadron Nebraska where they had a son who was red flagged as autistic Poe published four books about his experiences as a wanderer and his observations of America But one day in 2006 his neighbor Steven Haataja a math professor from the local state college disappeared Ninety five days later the professor was found bound to a tree burned to death in the hills behind the campus where he had taught No one law enforcement included understood the circumstances Poe had never contemplated writing mystery or true crime but since he knew all the players the suspects the sheriff the police involved he and his kindergarten son set out to find out what might have happened

Of Love and Terror Judith Kazantzis, 2002 Presents a drama about women as rivals lovers mothers and daughters set against an emotional and political background that interweaves the very different worlds of London Florida and Central America

Love and Terror Alan Jolis, 1998 With rich detail and humor a suspenseful historical romance involving Joseph Fouché a Robespierre's redoubtable police commissioner during the French Revolution Marie Antoinette and a girl aristocrat conveys the sweep of Parisian life at the time

Another Love Asma Abbas, 2018-10-15 In a time when our loves feel conscripted and exhausted by what we often do not remember desiring Another Love A Politics of the Unrequited explores the form method imperatives and inflections of love in the global post colony and offers a way to re apprehend and re inscribe love in an anticolonial materialist and nonfascist politics and aesthetics The figure of the unrequited is invoked as a symptom of a brutally loveless yet effusively sentimentalized era and also as an ineluctable yet very concrete political location in the face of both the intensifying external realities of war occupation apartheid austerity and terror as well as the increasingly normalized internalizations of ordinary imperialism nationalism neoliberalism fascism and colonialism all of which seem bent on extinguishing the possibility of relation itself The book asks that we look at practices of love and other material labors that yield and sustain these realities within complex lifeworlds indeed those which sustain entire systems of our subjection extraction and disposability such as colonialism capitalism liberalism and fascism as lifeworlds especially when given dominant forms of recognition affection embrace and belonging are unacceptable or even repulsive Distancing itself from shortcuts afforded by love's abstract forms deployed in ethical and moral discourses that at once elevate it yet wholly reduce it to a timeless apolitical essence Another Love sees love as a material and political relation to time and space signaling willed and unwilled shifts in historical reality in societies juggling various wars and annihilations It maintains that love is something in and with which we confess our complicities not only with but also against hegemonic notions of belonging devotion martyrdom hospitality publicity collectivity and solidarity nurtured and harvested under capital and colony The longing and the love missed by the pernicious and reactionary politics both of liberal democracy and the incidental fascisms that it claims to set out to fix can give us clues into past present and future moments of rebellion resistance rejection and redemption that are crucial to a liberatory anticolonial and antifascist politic and to rethinking attachment desire and relation itself

Quicklet on Erik Larson's In the Garden of Beasts: Love, Terror, and an American Family in Hitler's Berlin Arwen Lee Adams Bicknell, 2012-04-28

ABOUT THE BOOK Erik Larson paints a compelling picture of 1933 Berlin a time when Adolf Hitler was rising but did not yet hold absolute power and in fact few expected his government to survive Larson explores the rise of Nazism from the perspective of the newly arrived U S ambassador and his family William E Dodd a circumspect professor and unlikely candidate for America's first ambassador to Nazi Germany struggles with the protocol and conflicting demands of his heart his nation and his duty while his daughter Martha finds the social scene vibrant and thrilling In time they come to see the ugly truth about Hitler and his plans but even then their efforts to raise the alarm are largely discounted back home

MEET THE AUTHOR With degrees in journalism and history from the University of Southern California Arwen Bicknell has worked on newspaper copydesks across the country for more than 20 years In her free time she writes novels and tries to get them published You can read her blog at arwenbicknell.com

EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK Protocol and promiscuity These are the two angles from which Larson chooses to explore the power grabbing days of Adolph Hitler leading up to the Night of the Long Knives when Hitler purged his enemies and laid the last bit of groundwork to seize complete power in Germany Tired of being overworked at the University of Chicago and in search of a sinecure mild mannered professor William E Dodd historian Jeffersonian Democrat and would be author of the definitive work on the antebellum South instead lands in a job he is woefully ill equipped to perform Tapped to serve as the U S ambassador in Berlin he packs up his family and together they all make the journey into a foreign land and an even more

foreign culture that of the diplomatic and political elite Larson does a good job of balancing the diplomats headaches and blunders with the effusive enthusiasm of his socialite daughter who manages to land as lovers several of the leading U S and German luminaries from Carl Sandburg and Max Delbruck to Gestapo chief Rudolf Diels and Soviet spy Boris Winogradov While the characters naivete is believable that doesnt necessarily mean they are entirely likeable William Dodds assessment of the situation appears credible if sweetly foolish Martha Dodd on the other hand comes off as almost obstinately flighty and shallow and the fact that she turned her allegiances from Hitlers Nazis to Stalins Communists without appearing to have learned anything simply bolsters that impression CHAPTER OUTLINE Quicklet on Erik Larson s In the Garden of Beasts Love Terror and an American Family in Hitler s Berlin Erik Larson s In the Garden of Beasts Love Terror and an American Family in Hitler s Berlin About the Book About the Author An Overall Summary Commentary and Summary and much more Love & Light Clayton Tylor,2017-05-20 This book examines Swedenborg s spiritual experiences of Heaven and Hell from an esoteric perspective as a feeling the language of angels and spirits To perceive this spiritual feeling begins the regeneration process that develops an inner perception of celestial love as spiritual light When we can perceive love and light as a feeling as it expresses through our physical senses we can start to affect our own psycho spiritual development to evolve from a sensual to a spiritual feeling of conjugal love As we examine love and light as a spiritual feeling through heaven and hell we too begin to experience a deeper spiritual awareness which can initiate a personal communication with the Divine as a Conjugal Love experience With creative self expression as our goal we can take regeneration into our own hands to speed up our own evolution while we transmute the forces that block the spiritual feeling of the Brotherhood of Mankind and thereby together manifest the feeling of Heaven on Earth Love and Adventure William Stephens Hayward,1874 Proceedings of the Society for Psychical Research Society for Psychical Research (Great Britain),1897 List of members in v 1 19 21 24

Strauss and his students have long been accused of mendacity elitism and militarism but the Iraq War has prompted unprecedented levels of caustic and inaccurate denunciations Inappropriate criticisms have issued from artists Tim Robbins politicians Ron Paul journalists Joe Klein and even highly lauded scholars such as Arthur Schlesinger Jr Gordon Wood Douglas Massey Stephen Holmes Anne Norton Shadia Drury Sheldon Wolin John Pocock John Yolton Nicholas Xenos and Brian Leiter In Straussophobia Peter Minowitz provides a methodical and detailed critique of the major offenders especially of Drury who maintains that Strauss established a covert tyranny that would keep the Western world mired in perpetual war In replying to such charges_and to various authors who belittle Strauss s contributions as a scholar_Minowitz highlights the imaginative yet meticulous manner in which Strauss interpreted Thucydides Plato Xenophon Farabi Machiavelli Hobbes Locke and Carl Schmitt Straussophobia also provides both a comprehensive assessment of Strauss s 1933 letter that commended fascist authoritarian and imperial principles and a compelling account of Strauss s influence or lack of influence on neoconservative promoters of the Iraq War e g Paul Wolfowitz Richard Perle and Lewis Libby The book likewise breaks new ground in employing diversity discourse to explain and combat the bigotry and buffoonery that pervade attacks against Strauss and Straussians_and in drawing on Strauss to illuminate the distortions that mar some widely used arguments for affirmative action

Kyra's Fate Or, Love Knows No Bonds Charles Garvice,1902 Faith, Hope, Love, and Justice Anselm K. Min,2018-03-28 Faith hope and love traditionally called theological virtues are central to Christianity This book renews faith hope and love in the context of the many contemporary challenges in many unique ways It is an ecumenical collection of papers equally divided between Catholic and Protestant positions that seek to radically renew the classical doctrine of faith hope and love and argues for their essential connection to the praxis of justice It contains eight different approaches each represented by a distinguished theologian and addressing different aspects of the issues and followed by insightful and critical responses It does not merely seek to renew the theological virtues but to also reconstruct them in the demanding context of justice and the contemporary world nor is it simply a treatise on justice but a theoretical and practical reflection on justice as vital expressions of faith in God hope in God and love of God A non dogmatic and non ideological approach it accommodates both conservative and liberal positions and avoids the separation of the theological virtues from the demands of the contemporary world as well as the separation of justice talk from the theological context of faith hope and love It seeks above all to renew not merely repeat the classical doctrine of faith hope and love in the contemporary context of the urgency of justice and to do so ecumenically comprehensively and from a variety of perspectives and aspects mortality In other words is love an ethical ideal Also modernity understood as the age of mechanical reproduction has shaped not simply our cities but our very same way of feeling How has our conception of love changed if it has in the past two centuries This book is to address these questions It is not to trace the evolution of the idea of love in Western culture from Plato to the present day It aims to bring to the surface different shades of love lingering at the heart of Western culture to rehabilitate the myth of love to its original credibility Our confused civilization has split love into sensual and moral aspects but to be aware of it is perhaps to defeat a dilemma that seems so unnatural This book is about how we make sense of our lives through love and how nineteenth and twentieth century literature records it
