Love Bones And Water:

Love, Bones and Water Adam Zameenzad, 1989 Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide The Water of Life Rita Knipe, 1989-08-01 Mythology flows like a subterranean stream throughout Hawai i Rita Knipe has selected a number of characteristic myths and mythological figures from the rich pantheon of Hawaiian deities As she retells their stories illustrated by Hawaii artist Dietrich Varez the transposition of such primal drama to the pages of this book becomes poetic theater The dramatic plots are myths and legends chosen from the oral traditions of unique island people but the underlying themes and symbols are archetypal and eternal Drawing parallels between Hawaiian mythology universal patterns and individual behavior the author illustrates certain basic Jungian concepts and explains how we express them in the drama of our own lives Love, Like Water Rowan Speedwell, 2013-07-10 Three years undercover with one of the worst gangs in the country left FBI agent Joshua Chastain shattered Battling nightmares and addiction he leaves the concrete jungle for New Mexico horse country hoping to start over on his uncle s ranch Foreman Eli Kelly spends his life rehabilitating abused animals and Joshua is just another lost soul But as Joshua slowly begins to put his life back together Eli realizes that Joshua is a lot more than his newest project Joshua s plan seems to work maybe a fresh start was just what he needed Then just when he has finally found a sense of peace crime and hatred nearly destroy all his hard work forcing him to reevaluate what he wants out his relationship with Eli and his own life Water Into Bones Erin K. Nourse, 2025 Water into Bones explores the spiritual importance of water in Madagascar Families in northern Madagascar conceptualize water as a spiritual realm where magical creatures and some ancestors live and believe that infants are born with a special connection to the spirit world that makes them still full of water mbola rano and lacking bones Over the course of their lives the water is transformed into bone and lives end as entombed bones which symbolize their legacy as ancestors and become objects of their descendants care and remembrance Author Erin Nourse examines the ways that Malagasy women in the northern port city of Di go Suarez actively enable their infants to acquire bones and establish belonging within their communities Navigating diverse social environments that enable them to draw from various religious ethnic and familial traditions to welcome babies into their families Malagasy mothers secure their children s status as distinctive individuals who are also firmly grounded in their ancestral legacies Water into Bones reveals the vast possibilities for creating community identity and sacred power through the personal experiences of northern Malagasy women during pregnancy childbirth and parenthood The Existence Theodore Ihejieta, 2018-12-21 The Existence By Theodore Ihejieta The Existence is a book of love and life that talks about the world as the existence of human beings and tells human beings to understand that the world is the love and the life It is a book of Planet Earth which the Planet Earth gave to the author because the author asked the Planet Earth for the book of the world The author is a human being who lost faith in God and called on Planet Earth to do work and save human beings from evil and death in the world This is a book of a human being who was challenged by evil and death in the world and the human being called on his existence for help and protection The author did not like to die in the world and told his existence that he did not want to die because the author believed that Planet Earth has the power to save human beings in the world The Existence is the faith the hope and the charity that God challenged human beings to find and tell the mountain of evil and death to move away from human beings
