Zoom In, Zoom Out Sandra Barriaes-Bouche, Marjorie Attignol Salvodon, 2009-03-26 In the context of the transformations that Europe is undergoing Zoom in Zoom out Crossing Borders in Contemporary European Cinema attempts to serve as a testimony to the multiple ways in which European filmmakers are questioning the many borders of the continent European films have become a vital cultural space where the relationship between borders and identity is being renegotiated The films discussed here self consciously address the question of European identity while overtly crossing geographic cultural linguistic and aesthetic borders While all the articles explore the crossing of borders in Contemporary European films the volume maintains diverse themes and perspectives as subtopics It includes articles not only about films that deal thematically with border crossings but also articles that examine movies that cross borders in genres and techniques The articles have different theoretical approaches Film theory Cultural Studies History Sociology Philosophy and Psychoanalysis and cover films from well known cinematic traditions French Spanish German and Italian as well as lesser known cinematic traditions Yugoslavian Greek and Irish As a whole the essays frame the self conscious gesture by European filmmakers to define European cinema as a work in progress or at the very least as a project that like Europe itself raises as many questions as it answers This volume is a welcome addition to the growing critical literature on the evolution of the conception and practice of national cinema in Europe over the last two decades Sandra Barriaes Bouche and Marjorie Attignol Salvodon have chosen a solid selection of representative case studies that reflects different critical approaches to the problem of maintaining local or national cinema production in Europe during a period of intense globalization Their insightful introduction formulates the theme of unsettled borders and renegotiated identities that will resonate in the nine essays that follow With a focus on the critical concept of these unsettled borders the various authors explore the ways that the traditional mark of national space has been transformed through political and economic realignments as well as new technologies and the emergence of a new generation of filmmakers for whom national cinema no longer means what it did even twenty years ago The volume provides a good balance of critical approaches that includes auteur studies descriptions of state policies and the particular practices of filmmakers and producers in different parts of the continent Spain Germany Ireland the Balkans and finally useful appendices that provide a close up view of the complex nature of international co productions Marvin D Lugo Professor of Spanish Clark University This is an interesting collection of essays that has been well conceived and organised The standard of writing is high and I recommend publication I particularly commend the conceptual framework underpinning the volume This marries a cultural studies approach which still dominates the study of film in Area Studies and language departments across Europe and the US where filmic texts are increasingly used as teaching tools with the more industry based focus one tends to find adopted by Media and Screen Studies departments Thus this collection will appeal to a wide range of students and academics The introduction sets out the volume s overarching framework cogently and clearly giving a nuanced exploration of the way that the notion of the border can be used as a dynamic prism to help define and explore the limits of our understanding of Europe European identity and European culture within which cinema has long played a key role The editors give a good account for example of the way film has been employed as a space to explore the possibilities of European integration by EU politicians as well as highlighting the flaws inherent within this project They do however perhaps suggest a certain Western European North American centric view in their suggestion that the cinema of Yugoslavia Greece or Ireland is somehow less well known than other national and transnational cinemas explored here Less well known to whom However from the broad range of cinemas explored in the rest of the volume clearly this is not the case Particular high points for me are the chapters on the work of Fatih Akin by Janis Little Solomon and John Davidson s discussion of Schulze gets the Blues as well as Olivier Asselin s fascinating account of Database Cinema This will be a good addition to scholarship on European film and I look forward to receiving my copy Professor Paul Cooke University of Leeds      European Visions Janelle Blankenship,Tobias Nagl,2015-07-15 This volume examines the challenges cinemas in small European countries have faced since 1989 It explores how notions of scale and small cinemas relate to questions of territory transnational media flows and globalization Employing a variety of approaches from industry analysis to Deleuze Guattari s concept of the minor contributions address the relationship of small cinemas to Hollywood the role of history and memory and the politics of place in post Socialist cinemas      Book Review Digest ,1981      Star Chaser Rocky Martucci,2009-11      Wes Craven John Kenneth Muir,1998-01-01 Filmmaker Wes Craven has consistently and imaginatively scared movie audiences since the early 1970s His films encompass a variety of styles elements and themes from the nihilistic existentialism of The Last House on the Left to the successful A Nightmare on Elm Street which sent horror in a bold new direction to the hallucinatory dreamscapes of The Serpent and the Rainbow And in the nineties Craven returned with the Scream films which were simultaneously funny clever and scary films that overturned the horror cliches of the eighties The present work provides a history of Craven s film career since 1972 examining all the themes and techniques the filmmaker explored For each film a synopsis cast and credits historical context and critical commentary are provided Also covered in detail are Craven s forays into television including movies such as Stranger in the House and work on such series as The New Twilight Zone      Blind Sight Meg Howrey,2012-09-04 Seventeen year old Luke Prescott has been brought up in a bohemian matriarchy surrounded by his divorced New Age mother his religious grandmother and two precocious half sisters He is writing his college applications when his father a famous television star invites him to Los Angeles for the summer Luke accepts and is plunged into a world of location shooting celebrity interviews glamorous parties and premieres But as he begins to know the difference between his father s public persona and his private one Luke finds himself questioning the new history he has created for himself

Transhuman Ben Bova,2014-04-15 Luke Abramson a brilliant cellular biologist who is battling lung cancer has one joy in life his ten year old granddaughter Angela When he learns that Angela has an inoperable brain tumor and is given less than six months to live Abramson wants to try a new enzyme Mortality Factor 4 MORF4 that he believes will kill Angela s tumor However the hospital bureaucracy won t let him do it because MORF4 has not yet been approved by the FDA Knowing that Angela will die before he can get approval of the treatment Abramson abducts Angela from the hospital with plans to take her to a private research laboratory in Oregon Luke realizes he s too old and decrepit to flee across the country with his sick granddaughter chased by the FBI So he injects himself with a genetic factor that will stimulate his body s production of telomerase an enzyme that has successfully reversed aging in animal tests As the chase weaves across the country from one research facility to another Luke begins to grow physically younger stronger He looks and feels the way he did thirty or forty years ago Yet his lung cancer is not abating if anything the tumors are growing faster And Angela is dying Heartbeat Tina Truelove,2023-10-30 Angela Jessica and Sarah are three young women who face three unplanned pregnancies Emily a student at Pleasant Grove University volunteers her time at the local pregnancy care center The circumstances surrounding each situation bring them all together for one purpose under Heaven saving lives one heartbeat at a time The Ranger: The Fight Back Begins Lee Smith,2014-01-13 Arlington a town in chaos the streets are overrun by the gangs and the schools are controlled by the thugs The law fails as the crime rate rockets and the drug abuse escalates In a town torn apart by gang wars where hope is just a word and danger is all around this story follows a troubled outcast a delinquent stubborn womanising teenager called Luke Sanders who vows to turn his life around and help his friends stand up against the ruthless bullies and thugs that unleash terror and prey on the weak and the vulnerable When Luke sees his friends suffer at the hands of the gangs he sets out to fight back not only as himself but as a vigilante known as the Ranger taking on the underworld that delve in drugs blackmail and murder As the battle ignites a mysterious crime lord emerges thrusting Luke and his friends into a world of anarchy Yet the town of Arlington finds that bit of hope in Luke Sanders the Ranger for the fight back against the armies of the night is set to begin Gospel Justice Bruce D. Strom,2013-05-15 Can a justice system that doesn t protect the poor be considered truly just We have all heard the phrase You have the right to an attorney But did you know this is only true for those being accused of a crime in our country not their victims Without a legal advocate innocent victims are left to fend for themselves The church is called to do justice and love mercy We are given the example of the Good Samaritan serving a victim in need no matter the stigmas attached But how are we to do this amidst the complexities of the current system Bruce Strom left a successful legal career to start Administer Justice a nonprofit organization providing free legal care to our most vulnerable neighbors Gospel Justice calls churches across the nation to transform lives by serving both the spiritual and legal needs of the poor through participation in the Gospel Justice Initiative It is not only a book for lawyers or pastors though Bruce Strom is calling each of us the whole body of Christ to join the cause of legal justice for the oppressed A Father's Love; Sacrifice and Service Jean DeFreese Moore,2022-07-20 Putting other people before themselves is a way of life for the Britt family But during a time of global war and disease the members of the family feel the strain especially hard Travis Britt served in a medical unit during the American Civil War Now Curt Clay Noah and James follow in their grandfather s footsteps and volunteer for service in a medical unit serving the allied forces during the war to end all wars Two more grandsons Drs William and Edison Stewart are stretched thin One doctor cares for injured troops returning from France while the other battles the deadly Spanish flu Both have their own personal struggles and their father old Dr Thomas Stewart must step forward to help during a time of crisis In the town of Harris gossip is a way of life and secrets bring out the worst in people Brothers Luke Cleve and Reid Britt face a conspiracy as they work to protect the innocent from greedy vengeful and manipulative neighbors But the allied nations also hold secrets When Cleve and William discover one that endangers the American people and those in Harris Cleve must convince William to keep quiet Travis now in his eighties follows his memories back to the mountains he loved in his youth only to discover a renewed passion for life and a fresh love for his children As they have always done the Britt family takes care of each other And they all wait to find out what sacrifices the family must now make
