Paysinger, Steven Fenton, 2015-08-25 When Beverly Hills High School welcomed a skinny boy from the other side of the tracks no one knew just how life changing the decision would be not just for Carter Paysinger but for all of Beverly Hills Carter grew up hearing his parents say Don't just strive to be good Always strive to be great He dreamed of finding greatness in playing professional baseball or becoming a black Donald Trump but fate had different plans and ultimately he found his calling as a teacher and coach at the school that once embraced him becoming a rock for the innumerable kids who came seeking an ear to listen or a shoulder to cry on One such kid a scrappy Jewish boy from a prominent family would change the course of Carter's life His name was Steven Fenton Twenty years later as Beverly Hills High fell into disarray with principals hired and fired and families fleeing the school as well as his own life coming apart Carter ran into Steven Fenton again Together they found renewed passion and hope to fight for their school and test the limits of what community means But when Steven convinced Carter to throw his hat into the ring as principal the progressive Beverly Hills suddenly thought that its winningest and most beloved coach didn't fit the profile for the Beverly Hills image It was the beginning of a long road but Carter could hear his father saying Don't listen to those voices Do what you have to do Filled with hope triumph and the struggles that come to define us Where a Man Stands is a beautiful fish out of water story about the families formed in unlikely places and how in the end where you stand and with whom and for what matters as much as anything Sam Uses
