Writing and Authority in Early China Mark Edward Lewis,1999-03-18 This book traces the evolving uses of writing to command assent and obedience in early China an evolution that culminated in the establishment of a textual canon as the foundation of imperial authority Its central theme is the emergence of this body of writings as the textual double of the state and of the text based sage as the double of the ruler The book examines the full range of writings employed in early China such as divinatory records written communications with ancestors government documents the collective writings of philosophical and textual traditions speeches attributed to historical figures chronicles verse anthologies commentaries and encyclopedic compendia Lewis shows how these writings served to administer populations control officials form new social groups invent new models of authority and create an artificial language whose mastery generated power and whose graphs became potent objects Writing and Authority in Early China traces the enterprise of creating a parallel reality within texts that depicted the entire world These texts provided models for the invention of a world empire and one version ultimately became the first state canon of imperial China This canon served to perpetuate the dream and the reality of the imperial system across the centuries The Analects of Dasan, Volume IV

Hongkyung Kim,2021-01-19 For its extensive research and novel interpretations Dasan's Noneo gogeu-ju Old and New Commentaries of the Analects is considered in Korean Studies a crystallization of Dasan's study of the Confucian classics Dasan Jeong Yak-yong 1762-1836 attempted to synthesize and supersede the lengthy scholarly tradition of the classical studies of the Analects leading to work that not only proved to be one of the greatest achievements of Korean Confucianism but also definitively demonstrated innovative prospects for the study of Confucian philosophy It is one of the most groundbreaking works among all Confucian legacies in East Asia Originally consisting of forty volumes in traditional bookbinding Noneo gogeu-ju contains one hundred and seventy-five new interpretations on the Analects hundreds of arguments about the neo-Confucian commentaries on the Analects hundreds of references to scholarly works on the Analects thousands of supporting quotations from various East Asian classics for the author's arguments and hundreds of philological discussions This book is the fourth volume of an English translation of Noneo gogeu-ju and includes the translator's comments on the innovative ideas and interpretations of Dasan's commentaries The Analects of Dasan Yag-yong Chŏng,2021 The Analects of Dasan A Korean Synthetic Reading is an English translation of Noneo gogeu-ju which includes the translator's commentary on Dasan's creative ideas and interpretations of the Analects It not only represents one of the greatest achievements of Korean Confucianism but also demonstrates innovative prospects for the study of Confucian philosophy Huang Di Nei Jing Su Wen Paul U. Y. Shaw,2017-02-22 Carl Schmitt and Leo Strauss in the Chinese Speaking World Reorienting the Political examines the reception of Carl Schmitt and Leo Strauss in China and Taiwan The legacies of both Schmitt the German legal theorist and thinker who joined the Nazi party and Strauss the German Jewish classicist and political philosopher who became famous after his emigration to the United States are highly controversial Since the 1990s however these thinkers have had a powerful resonance for Chinese scholars Today when Chinese intellectuals debate the Chinese state the future role of China in the world the liberal international order and even the meaning of Confucian civilization they often employ Schmittian and Straussian concepts like the political friend-enemy state of exception liberal education and natural right The very possibility of a genuine Chinese political theory is often thought to be tied to the legacy of these two thinkers This volume explores this complex phenomenon with a cross-cultural and interdisciplinary approach The twelve essays in this volume are written from a range of perspectives by philosophers political theorists historians and legal scholars from China Germany Taiwan and the United States Dong Zhongshu, a 'Confucian' Heritage and the Chunqiu fanlu Michael Loewe,2011-04-11

Intellectual developments of the Western Han dynasty 202 BCE 9 CE have been studied hitherto on the assumptions that a system described as Confucianism acquired paramount importance and that Dong Zhongshu ca 198 to ca 107 BCE had been responsible for formulating its principles In challenging these assumptions this book examines Dong career and reputation and his supposed authorship of the Chunqiu fanlu for long subject to question It is concluded that while some parts of that text may well represent the teachings that Dong Zhongshu promoted some may perhaps date from as late as 79 CE still others bear an affinity to writings which banned as being suspect or potentially subversive survive in no more than fragmentary form Ben Cao Gang Mu, Volume I, Part A Shizhen Li, 2024-01-09 Volume I is divided into two parts Part A of volume 1 in the Ben cao gang mu series offers a translation of chapters 1 and 2 and portions of chapter 3 Chapters 1 and 2 are devoted to introducing the history of materia medica Chapter 3 is devoted to pharmaceutical drugs for diseases Chapter 3 is continued along with chapter 4 in part B of volume I The Ben cao gang mu is a sixteenth century Chinese encyclopedia of medical matter and natural history by Li Shizhen 1518 1593 The culmination of a sixteen hundred year history of Chinese medical and pharmaceutical literature it is considered the most important and comprehensive book ever written in the history of Chinese medicine and remains an invaluable resource for researchers and practitioners This nine volume series reveals an almost two millennia long panorama of wide ranging observations and sophisticated interpretations ingenious manipulations and practical applications of natural substances for the benefit of human health Paul U Unschuld s annotated translation of the Ben cao gang mu presented here with the original Chinese text opens a rare window into viewing the people and culture of China s past Ancient and Early Medieval Chinese Literature \(vol. 2\) ,2013-10-10 At last here is the long awaited first Western language reference guide focusing exclusively on Chinese literature from ca 700 B C E to the early seventh century C E Alphabetically organized it contains no less than 1095 entries on major and minor writers literary forms and schools and important Chinese literary terms In addition to providing authoritative information about each subject the compilers have taken meticulous care to include detailed up to date bibliographies and source information The reader will find it a treasure trove of historical accounts especially when browsing through the biographies of authors Indispensable for scholars and students of pre modern Chinese literature history and thought Part Two contains S to Xi Productive Engagement in Later Life Nancy Morrow-Howell, Ada Mui, 2014-06-11 Productive Ageing is the involvement of older adults in society through employment volunteering caregiving education and skill building In 2020 there will be 248 million people in China aged 60 and over At the same time the birth rate continues to drop and family structures are being transformed In the face of such pressing demographic challenges the productive engagement of older adults is a clear cut strategy to strengthen families and communities while simultaneously promoting the health of older adults From a human capital perspective an ageing population represents resources to address societal needs and the active engagement of older adults can enhance and maintain the physical mental and cognitive health of the older adults The challenge is to develop policies
