Facing the Other Nigel Zimmermann,2015-07-24 What is the significance of the body What might phenomenology contribute to a theological account of the body And what is gained by prolonging the overlooked dialogue between St John Paul II and Emmanuel Levinas Nigel Zimmermann answers these questions through the agreements and the tensions between two of the most important thinkers of the twentieth century John Paul II the Polish pope philosopher and theologian and Emmanuel Levinas the French Jewish philosopher of Lithuanian heritage were provocative thinkers who courageously faced and challenged the assumptions of their age Both held the human person in high regard and did their thinking with constant reference to God and to theological language Zimmermann does not shirk from the challenges of each thinker and does not hide their differences However he shows how they bequeath a legacy regarding the body that we would overlook at significant ethical peril We are called Zimmermann argues to face the other In this moment God refuses a banal marginalization and our call to responsibility for the other person is issued in their disarming vulnerability In the body philosophy theology and ethics converge to call us to glory even in the paradox of lowly suffering

Christian Work ,1900 The Darker Side of Samuel, Saul and David G. D. Vreeland,2008-07 Now the sequel Here we watch David become king over Israel But the table is set for a rather unappetizing meal where brutality intrigue and questionable morality and ethics are served We see the turning point and the decline of David's power and possibly his virtue. Like so many in biblical narrative, he does not end well. Leaders take warning; integrity matters. How we respond to God's rules of engagement and how we treat others, especially the disenfranchised, will determine the difference between greatness and mediocrity and how our lives will be evaluated. As with the previous volume, this book can be utilized as a commentary and an aid to the student of Second Samuel or each section can be read and reflected upon in isolation. I will continue my efforts to be personable but professional, playful but pointed, impassioned at times but always thought provoking.

Dr. Vreeland received his Ph.D. from Trinity International University in Theological Studies Old Testament in 1994. He served for four academic years at the Nairobi International School of Theology. He then joined the faculty of Northwest Baptist Seminary, Tacoma, Washington, and has concluded eight years there (July 08) as Associate Professor of Semitic Languages and Biblical Literature. He teaches Hebrew, Aramaic, and English Bible and related topics. So far as the Church is concerned, his love is serious biblical study as related to integrity and leadership; hence this work on Second Samuel and its prequel on First Samuel. Dr. Vreeland has been married for 27 years to the love of his life, Donna, who is still the finest English Bible scholar on the planet and to whom this volume is gratefully dedicated. They have three grown children.
