Luther in English Michael S. Whiting, 2010-06-01 Recent studies have increasingly downplayed and in a few cases even wholly denied the influence of Martin Luther's theology of Law and Gospel on early English evangelicals such as William Tyndale The impact of a late medieval Augustinian renaissance Erasmian Humanism the Reformed tradition and Lollardy have all but eclipsed the more central role once attributed to Luther Whiting reexamines these claims with a thorough reevaluation of Luther's theology of Law and Gospel in its historical context spanning twenty five years something entirely lacking in all previous studies Based on extensive research in the primary sources with acute attention to the larger historical narrative and in dialogue with secondary scholarship Whiting argues that scholars have often oversimplified Luther's theology of Law and Gospel and have thus wrongly diminished his very significant even principal influence upon first generation evangelicals William Tyndale John Frith and Robert Barnes during the English Reformation of the 1520s and 30s

First Things, 2002-06 Two Reformers Caryn D. Riswold, 2007-07-15 By them we have been carried away out of our own land as into a Babylonian captivity and despoiled of all our precious possessions Martin Luther 1520 Their goal is our deracination which is detachment from one's background as from homeland customs traditions Thus women and other Elemental creatures on this planet are rendered homeless cut off from knowledge of our Race s customs and traditions Mary Daly 1984 What is this land this world of which these two theologians are speaking Why do the two statements above sound similar in the authors longing for a true home for our own land And who is this them who carries us away and cuts us off Could it be possible that Martin Luther and Mary Daly different in almost every way are saying something similar Why do these key figures in the Christian theological tradition who come from different times places and politics engage in such a parallel task How is this possible This book examines a series of surprising parallels between two key reforming figures in the Christian theological tradition and suggests that the two are in fact engaged in the same task political theology Applying a new label to familiar theologians enables readers to see both of them as well as their reformations in a new light The sixteenth century Reformation and second wave feminism are viewed through the pioneering work of Luther and Daly here to further establish the political content and consequence of these theologians The Reformation: Oxford Bibliographies Online Research Guide Oxford University Press,2010-06-01

Christ's Gift, Our Response Benjamin Durham, 2015-09-28 Sacramental theology has often been a challenging area of conversation between Catholics and Protestants In Christ's Gift Our Response Benjamin Durham envisions a collaborative way forward forging a conversation between two contemporary approaches to the connection between sacraments and ethics Drawing primarily from Louis Marie Chauvet and the Finnish school of Luther interpretation Durham constructs a mutually enriching theological dialogue Beyond comparison and contrast this is an attempt to draw these theologies together as sources for each other rather than as competitors
