Martin Luther's Theology of Two Kingdoms in Buddhist and Christian Communities Pa Yaw, 2024-05-29 Socially engaged religion teaches that people of faith have a responsibility to address and reduce suffering in all its forms both physical and spiritual including suffering resulting from social injustice exploitation oppression false faith and so forth True religion engages with society to alleviate suffering and bring transformation In other words religious violence is an obscenity a deviation from the true character of religion Martin Luther's Theology of Two Kingdoms in Buddhist and Christian Communities examines the principle of separation between religion and politics in the context of both Buddhist and Christian communities In predominantly Buddhist contexts such as Myanmar where a reciprocal relationship between religion and politics is expected separation is not effective Attempts by Christians to separate religion and politics cause the church to run away from tyranny and follow the state with blind obedience Martin Luther's model of two distinct but interconnected systems for religion and politics creates space for each institution to give constructive advice and criticism to the other for the health of all human beings

Death until Resurrection Joseph Saligoe, 2020-03-11 What really happens to the soul when people die This groundbreaking book may appeal both to Luther experts and to those who know little about the Reformer It demonstrates that Luther constantly taught over the last twenty four years of his life that death is like an unconscious sleep It also shows why this matters today for Christians Death until Resurrection is a great first step in understanding God s plan for renewal of the creation that can alleviate our common fears about death Seeing what exactly the scriptural writers meant regarding death as interpreted by one of the most prominent church leaders ever also provides the benefit of helping us better understand core doctrines such as our resurrection the nature of hell and eternal life through salvation This book offers that which very few writers on Luther have done an explanation that can unravel his apparent contradictions and the Luther paradox on the nature of death and the soul using Luther s own words scattered throughout his voluminous writings Learn which group of widely acclaimed authors or experts on Luther was correct about what Luther believed about death Lohse and George or Althaus and Thiselton

Jumper, 2020-09-16 This collection of essays explores the legacy of the Reformation with regard to the person and work of the Holy Spirit Following the five hundredth anniversary of Luther s posting of his ninety five theses these essays consider this legacy with particular reference to the work of Martin Luther and John Calvin as well as broader Reformation themes as they are related to pneumatology and the life of the church today The contribution of this collection is to tease out and reflect on pneumatology historically but also to relate these findings to contemporary discussions especially among scholars of pentecostal and charismatic Christianity Together these essays invite readers to appreciate the contribution that the Protestant Reformation makes to life in the Holy Spirit today as well as offering critical and constructive reflection on this theme It is a timely and significant contribution to the discussions of the person and work of the Holy Spirit and the church The Spirit and the Lake of Fire Rustin Umstattd, 2017-06-28

The Holy Spirit and the Lake of Fire What does the Spirit have to do with God's final judgment The Holy Spirit and God's judgment upon sin are not two topics that are often connected but to understand the full work of the Spirit they need to be It is not enough to view judgment as the work of just the Father and the Son but in full Trinitarian fashion it must be understood as the work of all three persons of the Trinity In The Spirit and the Lake of Fire Rustin Umstattd establishes the Spirit's role in judgment by connecting several symbols that are used for both the Spirit and judgment such as fire God's breath and God's arm Furthermore by examining Augustine's position that the Spirit is the mutual love of the Father and the Son and Luther's position that God's wrath is the underside of his love Umstattd demonstrates how one comes to the conclusion that the Spirit is operative in God's judgment upon sin How Faith Works: Rescuing the Biblical Gospel from Contemporary Evangelicalism C. Matthew McMahon, 2008-08-14 What is the Biblical Gospel Are you content to call yourself an Evangelical Is the Evangelical Gospel the same Gospel of the Protestant Reformation Is an Evangelical today the same as an evangelical during the time of Luther Calvin or the Puritans If the magisterial Reformers suddenly walked into your church today would they be pleased with the Gospel that is being preached from its pulpit These questions are not insignificant It is of eternal importance to have a sound view of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the teachings of the Bible Today evangelicalism is equated with Arminianism or some type of watered down Arminianism But Arminianism is not the Gospel no matter what form it comes in So asking What does it mean to believe the Gospel is of grave importance How is a person saved by the work of Jesus Christ How does true Gospel Faith actually work Does it work at all Contemporary Christendom has been thrown into theological confusion in recent decades and there is a need to rescue the Biblical Gospel from the errors plaguing the church today This book exists to correct some of those views and explain the basics of true Reformed Theology It presents a high standard of believing what God truly says about salvation and explores how faith works in believing the Biblical Gospel contained in the pages of Scripture Oxford Readings in Philosophical Theology: Providence, scripture, and resurrection Michael C. Covenant Lord and Cultic Boundary Michael Beck, 2023-02-02 The Reformed Two Kingdom project has generated a great deal of literature However this literature is often characterized by inflamed rhetoric Further though it is standard fare to assume that Kline was the architect of the project in reality there has been very little scholarly examination of this point In response Kline's system is analyzed through the means of a dialectical discourse with three differing models within the Reformed tradition the Theonomist Perspectivalist and Dooyeweerdian schools Through this means the study keeps away from surface level polemics and instead directs readers to the critically important substructural level of current discussions While clarifying some of the key differences between Kline and his interlocutors often overlooked points of nuance are also highlighted These points are shown to be important in that they present the potential to lessen frustration and impasse in the ongoing dialogue
