Ma Rai Ee:

Ma-rai-ee Kee Onn Chin, 1954 Hidden Army Kee Onn Chin, 1952 Malaya under Japanese occupation is the scene of this remarkable novel. Its author was born and raised in that country as one of a large Chinese family. He eventually became a school teacher and a master of English. Mr. Chin Kee Onn's experiences and observations gave him both the knowledge and the determination to write about the period. The inclusion in his story of specific guerilla and allied operations entitles this book to the description of historical novel, a right that is enhanced by the care which the author has taken to provide authentic background and atmosphere. But it is in the characters drawn mainly from people that Chin Kee Onn knew personally or heard about from his friends that the reader will find personified the drama, the bitterness, the horror and the courage that coloured life so cruelly and brilliantly in occupied Malaya. This is an outstanding novel of great readability and is also something of a mirror to the real little known origins of the troubles faced by the British in Malaya today. Publisher's description p. 2 of dust jacket Calendar University of Calcutta, 1929 Includes Examination Papers The Calendar University of Calcutta, 1913 The A to Z of Malaysia Ooi Keat Gin, 2010-06-07 The A to Z of Malaysia encapsulates the development of Malaysia from prehistory to the early years of the 21st century. It covers not only Malaysia's history but also its politics, economy, multiethnic society, multiculturalism, scientific and technological developments and the state of its environment. A host of contemporary issues and challenges are featured, including ethnic polarization, economic equity and polygamy concepts like Ketuanan Melayu, Malay Dominance, Malaysian Malaysia, Malay and Islam, Hadhari, Civilizational Islam and terms like Ali Baba, business kiasu, bejalai and Twenty Points. Over 500 cross-referenced dictionary entries are contained in this reference, covering everything from ethno-historical entries to those on culinary favorites and personalities. A chronology, an introductory essay, appendixes and a bibliography complement the dictionary entries, enhancing the authoritative and up-to-date information provided. Marriage and Mutton Curry M. Shanmughalingam, A kimono-clad Tamil woman greets Japanese soldiers at the door while her Anglophile husband cowers in his Jaguar. Two sisters share a husband when one fails to produce a child for the longest time. An American diplomat's urgent inquiries about the Malaysian treasury's facilities are hilariously misunderstood. A daring civil servant proposes to a Ceylonese lady in his hometown mere minutes after meeting her, breaking a thousand years of marriage protocol. M. Shanmughalingam's debut collection paints with gentle wit and humour the concerns and intrigues of the Jaffna Tamil community in Malaya. At turns satirical, empathetic and insightful, these fifteen stories explore what happens when we hold on to and choose to leave behind our traditions and identities in a changing world. Historical and Statistical Information Respecting the History, Condition, and Prospects of the Indian Tribes of the United States Henry Rowe Schoolcraft, 1853 Most volumes divided into 18 sections: General history, Manners and customs, Antiquities, Geography of the Indian country, Tribal organization, history and government, Intellectual capacity and character, Topical history, Physical type of the Indian race, Language, State of Indian art, Present condition and
