Welborn,2023-12-28 A complete geographical and thematic overview of the village in an antiquity and its role in the rise of Christianity The volume begins with a state of question introduction by Thomas Robinson assessing the interrelation of the village and city with the rise of early Christianity Alan Cadwallader then articulates a methodology for future New Testament studies on this topic employing a series of case studies to illustrate the methodological issues raised From there contributors explore three areas of village life in different geographical areas by means of a series of studies written by experts in each discipline They discuss the ancient near east Egypt and Israel mainland and Isthmian Greece Asia Minor and the Italian Peninsula This geographic focus sheds light upon the villages associated with the biblical cities Israel Corinth Galatia Ephesus Philippi Thessalonica Rome including potential insights into the rural nature of the churches located there A final section of thematic studies explores central issues of local village life indigenous and imperial cults funerary culture and agricultural and economic life

Great Generals of the Ancient World Richard A. Gabriel,2017-01-30 The military expert and author of Philip II of Macedonia presents 9 profiles of exemplary leadership from the ancient world Of all the military commanders throughout history only a few are remembered as great leaders of men in battle Is there a combination of personal attributes and historical circumstances that produces great commanders Professor Richard A Gabriel analyses the biographies of ten great generals all of whom lived between 1481 BC and AD 632 in order to identify the characteristics of intellect psychology personality and experience that allowed them to tread the path to greatness Some of the names included in Gabriel s selection such as Moses and Muhammad will surprise many readers as will the historical figures Gabriel chooses to omit including Alexander the Great and Atilla the Hun But Gabriel is not merely interested in famous military exploits A retired soldier and professor at the Canadian Defence College he distils the timeless essence of military leadership through the examples of Julius Caesar Philip II of Macedonia Thutmose III of Egypt and others

Reading a Dynamic Canvas Cynthia S. Colburn,Maura K. Heyn,2021-02-03 Personal adornment as an extension of the body is a crucial component in social interaction The active process of adorning the body can shape embodied identities such as social status ethnicity gender and age As a result of its dynamic and performative nature the body can often convey meaning more powerfully and convincingly than verbal communication Yet adornment is not easily read and does not necessarily reflect actual lived experience Rather bodily adornment and the performances that accompany it can be manipulated to conceal or exaggerate reality thus speaking more to identity discourse The interpretation of such discourse must be grounded in an understanding of the context specific and negotiable nature of adornment The essays in this volume which are united by their focus on material and visual evidence cover a broad chronological and geographical span from the ancient Near East to Roman Britain and bring together innovative scholarly work on adornment by an international group of art historians and archaeologists This attention to the archaeological evidence makes the volume a valuable resource as those working with material or visual culture face unique methodological and theoretical challenges to the study of adornment Encyclopedia of Ancient Greece Nigel Wilson,2013-10-31 Examining every aspect of the culture from antiquity to the founding of Constantinople in the early Byzantine era this thoroughly cross referenced and fully indexed work is written by an international group of scholars This Encyclopedia is derived from the more broadly focused Encyclopedia of Greece and the Hellenic Tradition the highly praised two volume work Newly edited by Nigel Wilson this single volume reference provides a comprehensive and authoritative guide to the political cultural and social life of the people and to the places ideas periods and events that defined ancient Greece Ancient Economies of the Northern Aegean Zosia H. Archibald,2013-11 Using the most up to date methods and theories about ancient economies Archibald explores how the cultural and economic dynamics of the ancient kingdoms of Macedon and Thrace worked
