Major Powers In Northeast Asia Seeking Peace And Security:

The Major Powers in Northeast Asia Tae-Hwan Kwak, Edward A. Olsen, 1996      The Major Powers of Northeast Asia Tae-Hwan Kwak, Edward A. Olsen, 1996 The remnants of Cold War politics stand in the way of Northeast Asia's adjustment to the post Cold War era This book examines the security policies of Japan China Russia the US and Australia in the Northeast Asia region with reference to attempts to reunify the two Koreas      The Major Powers in Northeast Asia Tae-Hwan Kwak, Edward A. Olsen, 1996      Russia as an Aspiring Great Power in East Asia P. Rangsimaporn, 2009-08-27 Rangsimaporn argues that Russia aspires to become a great power and tries to achieve this through utilizing its position as a Eurasian country with vast territories in East Asia its economic assets primarily arms and energy and careful management of its role in a multipolar East Asia with a complex balance of power      North Korea's Second Nuclear Crisis and Northeast Asian Security Tae-Hwan Kwak, 2016-05-23 North Korea's testing of a nuclear bomb sent out a shock wave throughout the world and totally changed the strategic equation in the Korean peninsula and Northeast Asia This testing has far reaching implications for Korean peace and unification Northeast Asian security and America's global war on terrorism This key volume provides an in depth analysis of the inter Korean and international dynamics of North Korea's nuclear crisis It offers new insights into the six party talks designed to resolve the crisis suggests creative formulas to resolve the ongoing crisis through peaceful diplomatic means and delves into the interests and policies of the major powers the US China Japan and Russia at the six party negotiating table The contributing authors are distinguished specialists and experts in the field and as such offer valuable expertise into the dynamics of this nuclear crisis for students and academics      Security, Arms Control and Defence Restructuring in East Asia Bjørn Møller, 2019-01-22 First published in 1998 this volume examines East Asia especially Northeast Asia which has been a region of considerable political security of importance for several key reasons It features several great and medium powers China Japan and Russia as well as North and South Korea Even though no arms race is yet discernible among these states with the partial exception of the two Koreas it is conceivable that one might commence If it did the level of militarization could become quite alarming if only because of the tremendous and rapidly growing economic potential of the regional states Even though relations among regional states except the two Koreas are currently peaceful the region features several unresolved issues e.g. concerning territory and a historical legacy of enmity between several states To prevent such conflicts of interest from erupting into armed conflict is of the utmost importance A stabilizing factor is that the military potentials in the region are still predominantly defensively oriented i.e. most states lack the requisite power projection or invasion capabilities to inflict serious harm on each other However this might change in the not so distant future Hence the importance of confidence building measures of an institutionalization of regional relations and of a strengthening of commitments to defensive military strategies and postures      Asia-Pacific Strategic Relations William T. Tow, 2001-12-10 This comprehensive 2002 book is an overview of security issues in the Asia Pacific It is also an argument for a strategy that promises to achieve greater regional stability. It argues that current approaches by policy makers increase the likelihood of conflict. Instead, it proposes that a strategy of convergent security be adopted to build a more enduring and peaceful regional security framework. A concise survey of key approaches to regional security politics, it presents a vast selection of empirical discussion, both historical and current. Assessing the outlook for the three powers most likely to vie for regional dominance—the United States, China, and Japan—the book also reviews the prospects for other secondary powers, including Korea and Taiwan, and analyses the role of Australia and the ASEAN nations of Southeast Asia. Unique, accessible, authoritative, and broad-ranging survey designed for a wide body of analysts and students of contemporary Asian politics and strategy.

Security Policy Dynamics Byung-ok Kil, 2017-10-05. This title was first published in 2001. Byung-ok Kil's thorough analysis deals with both the broad area of public policy and the specific topic of national security policy change in Korea. Using an historical comparative approach, he tests the relative importance of international and domestic developments as determinants of security policy change. Drawing extensively on carefully selected sources of quantitative and qualitative data, including original documents and interviews, this engaging text is of theoretical, methodological, and applied policy relevance to the academic community and of substantive interest to a broader audience of governmental officials in national security and related policy areas.

Charting a New Diplomatic Course Cecil V. Crabb, Jr., Leila S. Saredidine, Glenn J. Antizzo, 2001-08-01 America's victory in the Cold War is a milestone in the nation's diplomatic experience The disintegration of the Soviet Union and the defeat of communism have made containment policy the foundation of U S foreign relations for almost a half century obsolete and policymakers and political scientists alike struggle to decide what new strategy should guide the country's involvement on the international stage In this pathbreaking work Cecil V Crabb Jr Leila E Saredidine and Glenn J Antizzo identify and analyze six distinct approaches to America's diplomatic course after the Cold War addressing perhaps the most important question of our time what should U S foreign policy be in the twenty first century First the authors examine the familiar doctrine of American isolationism and consider an alternative approach conservative neo isolationism which encourages policymakers to use careful discrimination but decisive action in assuming commitments abroad Liberal neo isolationism a third possible course resists active interventionist strategies because of the dangers they pose to congressional power and America s democratic system At the opposite end of the spectrum are conservative interventionism the belief that America must maintain a strong military arsenal and engage in preventative diplomacy liberal interventionism the conviction that America has a responsibility to actively promote the cause of democracy and defend human rights beyond its own borders and pragmatic interventionism an approach taken by the Clinton Administration that relies on a cost benefit analysis of policy as problems arise Elegantly written and authoritatively researched Charting a New Diplomatic Course provides a much needed frame of reference for anyone interested in America s future in international affairs

Inauspicious Beginnings Université du Québec à Montréal. Centre d'études des politiques étrangères et de sécurité, Raoul-Dandurand Chair of Strategic and Diplomatic Studies, 2004 At the end of the Cold War many experts in the international community expected a new world order to emerge in which international security institutions Instead the emerging order was marked by the overwhelming power of the United States which under the Bush Sr and Clinton administrations did not see such a system as a necessity
