International Handbook of Mathematical Learning Difficulties Annemarie Fritz,Vitor Geraldi Haase,Pekka Räsänen,2019-01-30 This comprehensive volume provides teachers researchers and education professionals with cutting edge knowledge developed in the last decades by the educational behavioural and neurosciences integrating cognitive developmental and socioeconomic approaches to deal with the problems children face in learning mathematics The neurocognitive mechanisms and the cognitive processes underlying acquisition of arithmetic abilities and their significance for education have been the subject of intense research in the last few decades but the most part of this research has been conducted in non applied settings and there s still a deep discrepancy between the level of scientific knowledge and its implementation into actual educational settings Now it s time to bring the results from the laboratory to the classroom Apart from bringing the theoretical discussions to educational settings the volume presents a wide range of methods for early detection of children with risks in mathematics learning and strategies to develop effective interventions based on innovative cognitive test instruments It also provides insights to translate research knowledge into public policies in order to address socioeconomic issues And it does so from an international perspective dedicating a whole section to the cultural diversity of mathematics learning difficulties in different parts of the world All of this makes the International Handbook of Mathematical Learning Difficulties an essential tool for those involved in the daily struggle to prepare the future generations to succeed in the global knowledge society

Educational Issues in the Learning Age Catherine Matheson,David Matheson,2000-09-01 Education and its context are both changing rapidly In a world characterized by postmodernism and globalization even the discourses that we use to discuss education are changing This raises fundamental questions concerning the relationship of education to culture identity society and power To understand education in the twenty first century we need a new map By considering issues both fundamental and tpoical from citizenship to lifelong learning from school effectiveness to learning outside the school this book provides a comprehensive multi disciplinary guide to education in the new era

Vocabulary Studies in First and Second Language Acquisition Brian Richards,David D. Malvern,Paul Meara,James Milton,Jeanine Treffers-Daller,2009-06-10 International scholars and researchers present cutting edge contributions on the significance of vocabulary in current thinking on first and second language acquisition in the school and at home By pursuing common themes across first and second language and bilingual contexts the editors offer a collection that tackles the most important issues

Exploring Task-Based PBL in Chinese Teaching and Learning Xiangyun Du,Mads Jakob Kirkebak,2012-11-30 This book is based on educational research conducted by the Confucius Institute for Innovation and Learning at Aalborg University It aims to bridge the gap between the traditional methods of teaching Chinese and the student centred learning method in a non native context such as Denmark The establishment of a conceptual framework for Task Based PBL offers an alternative approach that encourages innovative teaching practices and promotes research based teaching in language education Empirically this book reports how teachers designed and conducted tasks how the classroom setting was affected and how students evaluated the course Teachers reflections and recommendations are included along with 20 ready to use tasks developed by our teachers to disseminate our experiences and methods with a broad range of teachers students and educational contexts This book suggests that the effectiveness of new teaching methods and the initiation of new subjects are contextual Learning a foreign language e g Chinese is more than language acquisition it is also understanding other cultures and participating in intercultural interaction and communication Thus education and learning particularly a foreign language is related to a broader social transformation in the process of globalisation and in the development towards a knowledge society

Learning-Oriented Language Assessment Atta Gebril,2021-05-11 This collection brings together research on learning oriented language assessment from scholars working across geographic and educational contexts highlighting the opportunities of assessment practices which seek to better align assessment and learning tasks and support effective learning The volume begins by introducing learning oriented assessment LOA and the context around its growing popularity especially in accountability oriented settings which favor summative large scale tests The first part of the book charts the development of LOA s theoretical and conceptual underpinnings outlining the ways in which they have been informed by theories of learning and key elements The second part demonstrates LOA in practice drawing on examples from different countries and instructional settings to explore such topics as the role of technology in LOA and developing feedback materials based around LOA principles and developed for core literacy skills Offering a holistic view of learning oriented assessment and the real world affordances and challenges of its implementation this book is key reading for graduate students researchers and practitioners in language testing and assessment TESOL and language education
