Make Time For You:

Make Time Jake Knapp, John Zeratsky, 2018-09-25 From the New York Times bestselling authors of Sprint comes a unique and engaging read about a proven habit framework that readers can apply to each day. Insider Best Books to Form New Habits If you want to achieve more without going nuts read this book. Charles Duhigg author of The Power of Habit Nobody ever looked at an empty calendar and said The best way to spend this time is by cramming it full of meetings or got to work in the morning and thought Today I'll spend hours on Facebook Yet that's exactly what we do Why In a world where information refreshes endlessly and the workday feels like a race to react to other people's priorities faster frazzled and distracted has become our default position But what if the exhaustion of constant busyness wasn't mandatory What if you could step off the hamster wheel and start taking control of your time and attention That's what this book is about As creators of Google Ventures renowned design sprint Jake and John have helped hundreds of teams solve important problems by changing how they work Building on the success of these sprints and their experience designing ubiquitous tech products from Gmail to YouTube they spent years experimenting with their own habits and routines looking for ways to help people optimize their energy focus and time Now they've packaged the most effective tactics into a four step daily framework that anyone can use to systematically design their days Make Time is not a one size fits all formula Instead it offers a customizable menu of bite size tips and strategies that can be tailored to individual habits and lifestyles Make Time isn't about productivity or checking off more to dos Nor does it propose unrealistic solutions like throwing out your smartphone or swearing off social media Making time isn't about radically overhauling your lifestyle it's about making small shifts in your environment to liberate yourself from constant busyness and distraction A must read for anyone who has ever thought If only there were more hours in the day Make Time will help you stop passively reacting to the demands of the modern world and start intentionally making time for the things that matter Make Time Your Superhero Power! G. Scott
