Coming of Age in Films Mario Garrett, 2019-02-14 The story of films is the story of human development From the very first story that defined the birth of our civilization the Sumerian Epic of Gilgamesh a story of immortality aging and death comes a tale of why we age We are a species of storytellers The stories we tell to each other define who we are However since we are living in a world marked by age apartheid our interaction with people across different generations is becoming more limited As a result the information we gain about older people comes mostly from secondary sources For the general public films remain the most accessible form of information regarding getting older From the early exposure of cartoons to more elaborate dramas our knowledge of what it means to become old relies on our exposure to films This volume provides insight into how accurate these representations are in line with current knowledge that we have about aging and older adults Arguing that films present a simplified view of aging this analysis relies on scientific evidence to explore why and how such stereotypes affect us Stereotypes have the ability of being internalized and becoming prescriptive of our behavior Numerous studies have attempted different ways of understanding the impact films have on aging Theories as seemingly disparate as feminism and disability have contributed to our understanding of how stereotypes influence our aging process This text builds upon this knowledge and provides new insights by applying current gerontological knowledge the science of aging to unpack and analyze the images of aging that films are providing By readdressing this focus on gerontological theories as diverse as biology and psychology the book readdresses an overlooked approach Auteur Theory and My Son John James Morrison,2018-07-12 The newest volume in the Film Theory in Practice Series Auteur Theory and My Son John offers a concise introduction to authorship and auteur theory in jargon free language The book goes on to show this theory can be deployed to interpret Leo McCarey s notorious but undervalued film My Son John which critics deemed a clear cut failure and the auteurs declared a masterpiece James Morrison traces the development of auteur theory through its emergence in the pages of the French film journal Cahiers du cin ma and the complex permutations it undergoes subsequently This history will help students and scholars who are eager to learn more about this important area of film theory The analysis of My Son John shows how auteur theory enables modes of interpretation and discovers levels of meaning otherwise unavailable The Great Movies IV Roger Ebert,2020-03-04 Essays from the influential and beloved film critic No one has done as much as Ebert to connect the creators of movies with their consumers Richard Corliss Time Over more than four decades Roger Ebert built a reputation writing reviews for the Chicago Sun Times and later arguing onscreen with rival Chicago Tribune critic Gene Siskel and later Richard Roeper about the movies they loved and loathed But Ebert s wisdom went well beyond a mere thumbs up or thumbs down The Great Movies IV is the fourth and final collection of Roger Ebert s essays comprising sixty two reviews of films ranging from the silent era to the recent past From films like The Cabinet of Caligari and Viridiana that have been considered canonical for decades to movies only recently recognized as masterpieces to Superman The Big Lebowski and Pink Floyd The Wall the pieces gathered here demonstrate the critical acumen seen in Ebert s daily reviews and the more reflective and wide ranging considerations that the longer format allowed him to offer Also included are an insightful foreword by film critic Matt Zoller Seitz editor in chief of the official Roger Ebert website and a touching introduction by Chaz Ebert A fitting capstone to a truly remarkable career The Great Movies IV will introduce newcomers to some of the most exceptional movies ever made while revealing new insights to connoisseurs Stolen Glimpses, Captive Shadows Geoffrey O'Brien,2013-06-01 We watch what is moving fast from a platform that is also moving fast writes Geoffrey O'Brien in the beginning of Stolen Glimpses Captive Shadows This collection gathering the best of a decade s worth of writing on film by one of our most bracing and imaginative critics ranges freely over the past present and future of the movies from the primal visual poetry of the silent era to the dizzying permutations of the merging digital age Here are 38 searching essays on contemporary blockbusters like Spider Man and Minority Report recent innovative triumphs like The Tree of Life and Beasts of the Southern Wild and the intricacies of genre mythmaking from Chinese martial arts films to the horror classics of Val Lewton O'Brien probes the visionary art of classic filmmakers von Sternberg Fod Cocteau Kurosawa Godard and the implications of such diverse recent work as Farenheit 9 11 The Passion of Christ and The Sopranos Each of these pieces is alert to the always surprising intersections between screen life and real life and the way that film from the beginning has shaped our sense of memory and history
