Making A Rose After The Diaspora An Autobiography:

Making A Rose After the Diaspora Eva E. Ross, 2006-01-12 Her compelling story is well worth reading 5 star review from ForeWord Clarion Ross capably renders her difficult journey and against odds of survival adds another important voice to World War II Kirkus A few days later I was put on the train to join my parents in Vienna Although I had always enjoyed Vienna when my parents used to take me I was frightened and disheartened to see the swastikas everywhere flags on buildings in the streets and on Nazi pins worn by men and women What had happened to the cultured sophisticated Austrians They turned out to be more reactionary and fanatic than the Germans For when the Germans marched into Vienna they were received with flowers and open arms It was no invasion as they claimed later The salute Heil Hitler was on many lips My parents had rented a room in the apartment of another Jewish family It was near where my mother's youngest sister Franzl lived with her husband and her daughter Uti whom I loved dearly Yet I found no joy or peace there Our apartment was situated just below some Nazi offices and I was frightened to death every time I heard the booted steps stomping up and down the stairs I woke up crying out every night

Multicultural Challenges and Redefining Identity in East Asia

Nam-Kook Kim, 2016-04-15 Globalization and increased migration have brought both new opportunities and new tensions to traditional East Asian societies Multicultural Challenges and Redefining Identity in East Asia draws together a wide range of distinguished local scholars to discuss multiculturalism and the changing nature of social identity in East Asia Regional specialists review specific events and situations in China Korea Japan Thailand Vietnam Singapore Taiwan Malaysia Indonesia and the Philippines to provide a focus on life as it is lived at the local level whilst also tracing macro discourses on the national issues affected by multiculturalism and identity The contributors look at the uneven multicultural development across these different countries and how to bridge the gap between locality and universality They examine how ethnic majorities and minorities can achieve individual rights exert civic responsibility and explain how to construct a deliberative framework to make sustainable democracy possible This book considers the emergence of a new cross national network designed to address multicultural challenges and imagines an East Asian community with shared values of individual dignity and multicultural diversity With strong empirical support it puts forward a regulative ideal by which a new paradigm for multicultural coexistence and regional cooperation can be realized

Diaspora's Homeland Shelly Chan, 2018-03-15 In Diaspora's Homeland Shelly Chan provides a broad historical study of how the mass migration of more than twenty million Chinese overseas influenced China's politics economics and culture Chan develops the concept of diaspora moments a series of recurring disjunctions in which migrant temporalities come into tension with local national and global ones to map the multiple historical geographies in which the Chinese homeland and diaspora emerge Chan describes several distinct moments including the lifting of the Qing emigration ban in 1893 intellectual debates in the 1920s and 1930s about whether Chinese emigration constituted colonization and whether Confucianism should be the basis for a modern Chinese identity as well as the intersection of gender returns and Communist campaigns in the 1950s and 1960s Adopting a transnational frame Chan narrates Chinese history through a reconceptualization of diaspora to show how mass migration helped establish China as a nation state within a global system

Countdown to Statehood Hillel Frisch,2012-02-01 Countdown to Statehood based on Arabic English and Hebrew language sources analyzes the form that the Palestinian state is likely to take The book looks at past institution building patterns in the West Bank and Gaza the relationship between the PLO and the local Palestinians and the nature of the conflict with Israel from 1967 through the first year of the Palestinian Authority under Arafat s leadership A major reference point in this analysis is the Zionist experience of state building in Israel s own pre independence era Not only did the Zionist experience serve as a model of a successful protagonist that Palestinians wished to emulate but both also began as diaspora based These similarities and even more so the dissimilarities between these two struggles for national determination allow the reader to assess the potential likenesses and disparities of the future Palestinian state compared to its Israeli counterpart The concluding chapter analyzes the findings in the broader context of third world state building by arguing contrary to the common wisdom that war makes the state that more peaceful routes to statehood lead to better states in the post independence era

Migrations and Diasporas William Arrocha,Elena Xeni,2023-11-23 Advocating for a more welcoming world involves respecting the human dignity and fundamental rights of all individuals regardless of their place of origin or immigration status This perspective offers a powerful insight into the dynamics of social justice across borders

Encyclopedia of Diasporas Melvin Ember,Carol R. Ember,Ian Skoggard,2004-11-30 Immigration is a topic that is as important among anthropologists as it is the general public Almost every culture has experienced adaptation and assimilation when immigrating to a new country and culture usually leaving for what is perceived as a better life Not only does this diaspora change the country of adoption but also the country of origin Many large nations in the world have absorbed and continue to absorb large numbers of immigrants The foreseeable future will see a continuation of large scale immigration as many countries experience civil war and secessionist pressures Currently there is no reference work that describes the impact upon the immigrants and the immigrant societies relevant to the world s cultures and provides an overview of important topics in the world s diasporas The encyclopedia consists of two volumes covering three main sections Diaspora Overviews covers over 20 ethnic groups that have experienced voluntary or forced immigration These essays discuss the history behind the social economic and political reasons for leaving the original countries and the cultures in the new places Topics discusses the impact and assimilation that the immigrant cultures experience in their adopted cultures including the arts they bring the struggles they face and some of the cities that are in the forefront of receiving immigrant cultures Diaspora Communities include over 60 portraits of specific diaspora communities Each portrait follows a standard outline to facilitate comparisons The Encyclopedia of Diasporas can be used both to gain a general understanding of immigration and immigrants and to find out about particular cultures topics and communities It will prove of great value to researchers and students curriculum developers teachers and government officials It brings together the disciplines of anthropology social studies political studies international studies and immigrant and immigration studies

Diasporas, Development and Governance Abel Chikanda,Jonathan Crush,Margaret Walton-Roberts,2015-12-12 Drawing on examples from the global North and South this book examines the relationship between migration development and diaspora engagement from a governance perspective It explores the ways that governments interact with their own extra national diasporic populations in order to boost economic development build global trading and investment networks and increase their political leverage overseas Inside readers will find fifteen essays which highlight such issues as diaspora engagement by governments at different scales the divisions that often exist within diaspora groups diaspora transnationalism and return migration diaspora knowledge networks and higher education capacity building and the neglected issues of South South migration and diasporas as well as North South migration and diasporas The book presents empirical case studies from various geographical contexts including Australia

Canada the Philippines India the Caribbean Zimbabwe and the United States Overall this book presents fresh insights into how and why migrant sending countries are increasingly turning to the diaspora option to attempt to benefit from the transfer of knowledge skills and financial and social capital It provides policy makers researchers and students with new perspectives on governance and the means by which states are attempting to utilize their diaspora resources Diasporas: Revisiting and Discovering ,2020-05-18 The present book brings together a collection of key studies from many disciplines all focusing around the diaspora issue The readers will engage on a journey that spans continents populations and time frames

Postcolonial Memoir in the Middle East Norbert Bugeja,2012-11-27 This book reconsiders the notion of liminality in postcolonial critical discourse today By visiting Mashriqi writers of memoir Bugeja offers a unique intervention in the understanding of in between and threshold states in present day postcolonialist thought His analysis situates liminal space as a fraught form of consciousness that mediates between conditions of historical contingency and the memorializing present Within the present Mashriqi memoir form liminal spaces may be read as articulations of representational spaces narrative spaces that based as they are within the histories of local communities are nonetheless redolent with memorial and imaginary elements Liminal consciousness today Bugeja argues is a direct consequence of the impact of volatile present day memories on the re conception of the open wounds of history Incisive readings of life writings by Mourid Barghouti Amin Maalouf Orhan Pamuk Amos Oz and Wadad Makdisi Cortas demonstrate the double edged representational chasm that opens up when present acts of memorializing are brought to bear upon the elusive histories of the early twentieth century Mashriqi Sifting through the wide ranging theoretical literature on liminality and challenging received views of the concept this book proposes a nuanced materialist and original rethinking of the liminal as a more vigilant outlook onto the political literary and historical predicaments of the contemporary Middle East Diasporas and Homeland Conflicts Bahar Baser,2015-03-28

As violent conflicts become increasingly intra state rather than inter state international migration has rendered them increasingly transnational as protagonists from each side find themselves in new countries of residence In spite of leaving their homeland the grievances and grudges that existed between them are not forgotten and can be passed to the next generation This book explores the extension of homeland conflicts into transnational space amongst diaspora groups with particular attention to the interactions between second generation migrants Comparative in approach Diasporas and Homeland Conflicts focuses on the tensions that exist between Kurdish and Turkish populations in Sweden and Germany examining the effects of hostland policies and politics on the construction shaping or elimination of homeland conflicts Drawing on extensive interview material with members of diasporic communities this book sheds fresh light on the influences exercised on conflict dynamics by state policies on migrant incorporation and multiculturalism as well as structures of migrant organizations As such it will be of interest to scholars of sociology political science and international studies with interests in migration and diaspora integration and transnational conflict Approaches to Teaching Gaines's The

Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman and Other Works John Wharton Lowe, Herman Beavers, 2019-08-01 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching the novels and short stories of Ernest Gaines in college literature classrooms including considerations of race gender sexuality ethnicity influences slavery Jim Crow black power the black arts movement humor folk culture film adaptations and criminal law Includes information on reference works and online resources Buddhist Faith in America Michael Burgan, J. Gordon Melton, 2009 In America today for the first time in world history every major form of Buddhism is practiced in one nation Buddhist Faith in America describes how this ancient faith has been as deeply affected by America as America has been affected by it Women and Religion in the Atlantic Age, 1550-1900 Emily Clark, 2016-02-11 Bringing the study of early modern Christianity into dialogue with Atlantic history this collection provides a longue dur e investigation of women and religion within a transatlantic context Taking as its starting point the work of Natalie Zemon Davis on the effects of confessional difference among women in the age of religious reformations the volume expands the focus to broader temporal and geographic boundaries The result is a series of essays examining the effects of religious reform and revival among women in the wider Atlantic world of Europe the Americas and West Africa from 1550 to 1850 Taken collectively the essays in this volume chart the extended impact of confessional divergence on women over time and space and uncover a web of transatlantic religious interaction that significantly enriches our understanding of the unfolding of the Atlantic World Divided into three sections the volume begins with an exploration of Old World Reforms looking afresh at the impact of confessional change in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries upon the lives of European women Part two takes this forward tracing the adaptation of European religious forms within Africa and the Americas The third and final section explores the multifarious faces of the revival that inspired the nineteenth century missionary movement on both sides of the Atlantic Collectively the essays underline the extent to which the development of the Atlantic World created a space within which an unprecedented series of juxtapositions collisions and collusions among religious traditions and practitioners took place These demonstrate how the religious history of Europe the Americas and Africa became intertwined earlier and more deeply than much scholarship suggests and highlight the dynamic nature of transatlantic cross fertilization and influence Encyclopedia of African American History, 1619-1895 Paul Finkelman, 2006-04-06 It is impossible to understand America without understanding the history of African Americans In nearly seven hundred entries the Encyclopedia of African American History 1619 1895 documents the full range of the African American experience during that period from the arrival of the first slave ship to the death of Frederick Douglass and shows how all aspects of American culture history and national identity have been profoundly influenced by the experience of African Americans The Encyclopedia covers an extraordinary range of subjects Major topics such as Abolitionism Black Nationalism the Civil War the Dred Scott case Reconstruction Slave Rebellions and Insurrections the Underground Railroad and Voting Rights are given the in depth treatment one would expect But the encyclopedia also contains hundreds of

fascinating entries on less obvious subjects such as the African Grove Theatre Black Seafarers Buffalo Soldiers the Catholic Church and African Americans Cemeteries and Burials Gender Midwifery New York African Free Schools Oratory and Verbal Arts Religion and Slavery the Secret Six and much more In addition the Encyclopedia offers brief biographies of important African Americans as well as white Americans who have played a significant role in African American history from Crispus Attucks John Brown and Henry Ward Beecher to Olaudah Equiano Frederick Douglass Sarah Grimke Sojourner Truth Nat Turner Phillis Wheatley and many others All of the Encyclopedia's alphabetically arranged entries are accessibly written and free of jargon and technical terms To facilitate ease of use many composite entries gather similar topics under one headword The entry for Slave Narratives for example includes three subentries The Slave Narrative in America from the Colonial Period to the Civil War Interpreting Slave Narratives and African and British Slave Narratives A headnote detailing the various subentries introduces each composite entry Selective bibliographies and cross references appear at the end of each article to direct readers to related articles within the Encyclopedia and to primary sources and scholarly works beyond it A topical outline chronology of major events nearly 300 black and white illustrations and comprehensive index further enhance the work's usefulness

Tap Dancing America Constance Valis Hill, 2014-11-12 Here is the vibrant colorful high stepping story of tap the first comprehensive fully documented history of a uniquely American art form Writing with all the verve and grace of tap itself Constance Valis Hill offers a sweeping narrative filling a major gap in American dance history and placing tap firmly center stage

Orientations Kandice Chuh, Karen Shimakawa, 2001-09-03 A critical examination of what constitutes the varied positions grouped together as Asian American seen in relation to both American and transnational forces

National Policy, Global Memory Sarah Gensburger, 2016-07-01 Since 1963 the state of Israel has awarded the title of Righteous among the Nations to individuals who risked their lives sheltering Jews during the Holocaust This distinction remained solely an Israeli initiative until the late 1990s when European governments began developing their own national categories the most prominent of which was the Righteous of France honoring those who protected Jews during the Vichy regime In National Policy Global Memory Sarah Gensburger uses this dramatic episode to lend a new perspective to debates over memory and nationhood In particular she works to combine two often divergent disciplines memory studies and political science to study memory politics as a form of public policy
