Basket Making T. Vernetta Morse,2018-03 Excerpt from Basket Making Being the First Book of the How to Do It Series A demand for lessons in basket weaving by mail has led to the publishing of Basket Making which is the first of the How To Do It series of handbooks that is about to be published by the printing department of the Art Craft Institute These books will all be of uniform size and style and will cover such subjects as Drawing Designing Phoenician Wood Carving and Pyrography Metal work Needle work and other arts that are taught in the Institute Each edition will be fully illustrated and as concise as consistent with the nature of the subject It is expected that these books will to a certain extent take the place of the correspondence course although work will still be received for criticism as it is quite impossible to meet every requirement of the students in any one book or in fact any number of books The work is condensed to cover as large a field as possible and the only excuse for its being is that it may assist those who are now struggling with the intricacies of basket making About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Basket Making T. How to Make Baskets Mary White, 2017-11-27 Excerpt from How to Make Baskets With a Chapter on What the Basket Means to the Indian The twisting and weaving of Nature s materials grasses twigs rushes and vines into useful and beautiful forms seems almost instinctive in man Perhaps it came to him as the nest weaving instinct comes to birds for at first he used it as they do in the building of his house Later shields and boats were formed of wicker work but how long ago the first basket was made no one is wise enough to tell us Today Indian tribes in South America weave baskets from their native palms South African negroes use reeds and roots while the Chinese and Japanese are wonderful workmen in this as in other arts and industries but basketry has come down to us more directly through the American Indian Generations of these weavers have produced masterpieces many of which are preserved in our museums and the young basket maker need not go on long pilgrimages to study the old masters of his craft Here at last as in England the value of manual training is being realized and basketry is taking an important place About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
