Multicultural Education as Social Activism Christine E. Sleeter, 1996-07-03 Connecting multicultural education with political issues of power and struggle this book explores what multicultural education means to white people given the unequal racial power relations in the U S and worldwide It examines connections between race gender and social class particularly as these connections play out for white women While taking a feminist perspective the author is also wary of the power white middle class women exercise in defining what counts as gender issues Throughout the book Sleeter argues that multicultural education was born in political struggle and can never meaningfully be disconnected from politics Ultimately the quest for schooling for social justice is a political quest rather than a technical issue

Multicultural Education PATRICIA RAMSEY; LESLIE R. WILLIAMS; EDWINA VOLD., 2003 Making Choices for Multicultural Education Christine E. Sleeter, Carl A. Grant, 2003 This leading book examines the meaning of multicultural education from historical and conceptual perspectives It provides a thorough analysis of the theory and practice of five major approaches to dealing with race language social class gender disability and sexual orientation in today's classrooms

Antiracist Education Julie Kailin, 2002-03-11 This book combines theory practice and ethnography in an exploration of how teachers can fully implement diversity and antiracism as a foundation of their teaching approach The author a white mother of children of color whose work is influenced by her own experience being raised in an antiracist activist family developed her curriculum over many years of active involvement with parents and teachers in schools She presents her curriculum along with ethnographic reports of the processes of change that teachers experience as they fully explore the realities of race relations its history and the lived experiences of others Kailin shows how immersion in this exploration enables teachers to develop curricula and teaching practices that are effectively antiracist and fully connected to students lives

Identity and Pedagogy in Higher Education Kalwant Bhopal,Patrick Danaher,2013-02-28 Kalwant Bhopal and Patrick Danaher examine race identity and gender within education and explore the difficulties of relating these concepts to the experience of students in higher education In drawing together the experience of local and international students in the UK and in Australia they examine the ways identities are understood and conceptualized within higher education in local contexts and on a global level They consider the complexity of race gender and identity in relation to education within the context that education continues to be dominated by predominantly white middle class values and perspectives Identity and Pedagogy in Higher Education examines the extent to which education as a vehicle for change in the light of the controversial debates surrounding race and gender inequalities

Ideologies in Education Lilia I. Bartolomé,2008 Exposes the invisible yet pervasive nature of oppressive dominant ideologies the urgent need to articulate their existence and the harmful impact they have on education The solutions to many of the educational challenges facing subordinated students are not purely technical or methodological in nature but are instead rooted in commonly unacknowledged discriminatory ideologies and practices The invisible foundation hegemonic ideologies that inform our perceptions and treatment of subordinated students needs to be made explicit and studied critically in order to comprehend the challenges presented in minority education and possible solutions more accurately Confronts the continuing existence and vigorous resurgence of not easily named discriminatory perspectives toward students from subordinated cultural groups as well as their numerous manifestations in schools and identifies the measures necessary to neutralize unequal material conditions and biased beliefs From publisher description
