Making Facts Come Alive Choosing Quality Nonfiction Literature K8:

Making Facts Come Alive Rosemary A. Bamford, Janice V. Kristo, 1998 Handbook of Research on Children's and Young Adult Literature Shelby Wolf, Karen Coats, Patricia Enciso, Christine Jenkins, 2011-04-27 This landmark volume is the first to bring together leading scholarship on children's and young adult literature from three intersecting disciplines: Education, English, and Library and Information Science. Distinguished by its multidisciplinary approach, it describes and analyzes the different aspects of literary reading texts and contexts to illuminate how the book is transformed within and across different academic figurations of reading and interpreting children's literature. Part one considers perspectives on readers and reading literature in home, school, library, and community settings. Part two introduces analytic frames for studying young adult novels, picturebooks, indigenous literature, graphic novels, and other genres. Chapters include commentary on literary experiences and creative production from renowned authors and illustrators. Part three focuses on the social contexts of literary study with chapters on censorship, awards, marketing, and literary museums. The singular contribution of this Handbook is to lay the groundwork for colleagues across disciplines to redraw the map of their separately figured worlds, thus to enlarge the scope of scholarship and dialogue as well as push ahead into uncharted territory.

"They're All Writers" Jennifer Sanders, Rebecca L. Damron, 2017 They're All Writers will help teachers explore the power of writing centers. In elementary school classrooms across the country, writing instruction, not grammar worksheets or spelling drills, is still the neglected R. In this book, classroom teachers will find foundational information about the writing process with everything they need to begin and facilitate a peer tutoring writing center. Student-led writing centers harness the social and instructional power of students working and learning together, and this book includes specific lessons to teach students how to be effective peer tutors and how to be better writers. Book Features: A new research-based approach to writing pedagogy that integrates both writing process theories and writing center pedagogies. Complete lesson plans to help teachers implement a writing center curriculum that meets Common Core and other quality standards. An approach that harnesses the power of social learning, develops students as leaders in their schools, and facilitates generative conversations around writing. Through the framework of peer tutoring, the authors show us how children can improve their own writing while also appreciating differing perspectives. Anne McGill-Franzen, The University of Tennessee. With lesson plans on preparing peer tutors, the authors have established a flexible framework for teachers interested in implementing writing tutoring in their schools. Rebecca Babcock, University of Texas at the Permian Basin.

Good Books Matter Larry Swartz, Debbie Nyman, 2008 Based on extensive research on the features that make children's books appealing and appropriate, this valuable teacher resource offers guidance on selecting books, strategies for specific grade levels, suggestions for extension, and tips for assessment. This teacher-friendly book is organized around the major genres: traditional literature, picture books, nonfiction, poetry, and multicultural texts that will inspire young readers. Throughout the book, teachers will find suggestions for using literature to implement shared reading reading aloud and response strategies with emergent developing and independent readers This comprehensive book is rooted in the belief that educators must consider and offer a wide range of choice to ensure that students read good books It argues that the choices children make about what they read should be governed by their interests and desire to learn not by a grade or reading level Making Nonfiction and Other Informational Texts Come Alive Kathy Pike, Jean Mumper, 2004 Offering a fresh approach this much needed text mirrors the features that are traditionally found in nonfiction texts illustrations diagrams insets boxed materials to help clarify and explain the concepts being presented This is a perfect complement to reading methods courses which includes a wealth of nonfiction titles that teachers can readily use effectively in a balanced literacy program Packed with ideas and suggestions for the classroom Pike and Mumper offer everything one needs to know in order to use nonfiction texts in the classroom from using them in literature circles and as models for writing or for research purposes Publisher's description Resources in Education, 1998

Conversations Regie Routman, 2000 In this long awaited volume Regie Routman continues the discussion she began in the best selling Invitations and further explores the full universe of an effective language arts and literacy program across the curriculum Doing History Linda S. Levstik, Keith C. Barton, 2015-01-30 Now in its fifth edition Doing History offers a unique perspective on teaching and learning history in the elementary and middle grades Through case studies of teachers and students in diverse classrooms and from diverse backgrounds it shows children engaging in authentic historical investigations often in the context of an integrated social studies curriculum The premise is that children can engage in valid forms of historical inquiry collecting and analyzing data examining the perspectives of people in the past considering multiple interpretations and creating evidence based historical accounts Grounded in contemporary sociocultural theory and research the text features vignettes in each chapter showing communities of teachers and students doing history in environments rich in literature art writing discussion and debate The authors explain how the teaching demonstrated in the vignettes reflects basic principles of contemporary learning theory Doing History emphasizes diversity of perspectives in two ways readers encounter students from a variety of backgrounds and students themselves look at history from multiple perspectives It provides clear guidance in using multiple forms of assessment to evaluate the specifically historical aspects of children's learning The Texts in Elementary Classrooms James V. Hoffman, Diane Lemonnier Schallert, 2004-09-22 This volume explores a variety of topics including texts in the teaching and learning of reading word identification and text characteristics choosing fiction to support young children's literacy development electronic text in the classroom and issues surrounding text selection Children's Literature in Action Sylvia M. Vardell, 2019-06-14 This practitioner oriented introduction to literature for children ages 5-12 covers the latest trends titles and tools for choosing the best books and materials as well as for planning fun and effective programs and activities The third edition of Children's Literature in Action provides an activity oriented survey of children's literature for undergraduate and graduate students seeking licensure and degrees that will lead to careers working with children in schools and public libraries Author Sylvia M Vardell draws on her 30 years of university teaching and extensive familiarity with the major textbooks in the area of children s literature to deliver something different a book that focuses specifically on the perspective and needs of the librarian with emphasis on practical action and library applications Its contents address seven major genres picture books traditional tales poetry contemporary realistic fiction historical fiction fantasy and informational books Each chapter includes practical applications for the educator who shares books with children and who develops literature based instruction Chapters are enriched by author comments collaborative activities featured books special topics and activities including selected awards and celebrations historical connections recommended resources issues for discussion and assignment suggestions This new edition incorporates the 2018 AASL National School Library Standards

Children's Literature Diana Mitchell,Pamela Waterbury,Rose Casement,2003 Children s Literature An Invitation to the World is written and organized in a manner that engages the readers and that will instill confidence in teachers when selecting and using literature in their teaching Readers are asked to take a world view of literature what it is how to recognize one s own how to recognize an author s and encouraged to see children s literature through a lens that includes people not like themselves The book tackles tough issues such as gender and racial bias and how they can be insidiously promoted in literature No other book on the market engages readers more than this one Rather than just presenting topics the book asks What can we learn from them In addition the first person narrative involves readers in the discussion rather than simply presenting content to them Elementary and middle school teachers curriculum developers and anyone interested in children s literature

5 Kinds of Nonfiction Melissa Stewart,Marlene Correia,2023-10-10 Once upon a time children s nonfiction books were stodgy concise and not very kid friendly Most were text heavy with just a few scattered images decorating the content and meaning rather than enhancing it Over the last 20 years children s nonfiction has evolved into a new breed of visually dynamic and engaging texts In 5 Kinds of Nonfiction Enriching Reading and Writing Instruction with Children s Books Melissa Stewart and Dr Marlene Correia present a new way to sort nonfiction into five major categories and show how doing so can help teachers and librarians build stronger readers and writers Along the way they Introduce the 5 kinds of nonfiction Active Browseable Traditional Expository Literature and Narrative and explore each category through discussions classroom examples and insights from leading children s book authors Offer tips for building strong diverse classroom texts and library collections Provide more than 20 activities to enhance literacy instruction Include innovative strategies for sharing and celebrating nonfiction with students With more than 150 exemplary nonfiction book recommendations and Stewart and Correia s extensive knowledge of literacy instruction 5 Kinds of Nonfiction will elevate your understanding of nonfiction in ways that speak specifically to the info kids in your classrooms but will inspire all readers and writers
