A Good Home Cynthia Reyes, 2013-05 A Good Home is an addictive read a profoundly emotional book about the author s early life in rural Jamaica her move to urban North America and her trips back home all told through vivid descriptions of the unique homes she has lived in from a tiny pink house in Jamaica and a mountainside cabin near Vancouver to the historic Victorian farmhouse she lives in today surrounded by neighbors who share spicy Malaysian noodles and seafood Greek pastries and roast lamb and Italian tomato sauce and wine really strong wine Full of lovingly drawn characters and vividly described places A Good Home takes the reader through deeply moving stories of marriage children the death of parents and an accident that takes its high flying author down a humbling notch Its pages sparkle with stories and reflections on home as A foundation on which to build connections with children relatives and friends A place to celebrate the joys of elegant design overflowing gardens except for the wisteria vine which cannot be coaxed into blooming and the sharing of good food A wise teacher showing us who we really were and who we really are When this brave clear eyed and honest book returns full circle to the way it began readers will want to read it all over again A Good Home will delight your soul and touch your heart There is magic in these words Debra Usher President and Editor in Chief Arabella Magazine Cynthia Reyes glass is almost always half full but ours as we read her uplifting story brims over Colin McAllister and Justin Ryan www.colinandjustin.tv Cynthia s story travels from the wild and carefree days of her first family home in Jamaica to the sobering struggles with physical trauma in her most recent home in Canada This is a book that seems to hold a family truth on every page I kept muttering yes yes as I read It also contains some of the most moving and recognisable accounts of both happiness and grief that I have ever come across I will re read this for its wisdom and charm Hilary Custance www.greenwritingroom.com

The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole

Home Words Mavis Reimer, 2009-08-01 The essays in Home Words explore the complexity of the idea of home through various theoretical lenses and groupings of texts One focus of this collection is the relation between the discourses of nation which often represent the nation as home and the discourses of home in children's literature which variously picture home as a dwelling family town or region psychological comfort and a place to start from and return to These essays consider the myriad ways in which discourses of home underwrite both children's and national literatures Home Words reconfigures the field of Canadian children's literature as it is usually represented by setting the study of English and French language texts side by side and by paying sustained attention to the diversity of work by Canadian writers for children including both Aboriginal peoples and racialized Canadians It builds on the literary histories bibliographical essays and biographical criticism that have dominated the scholarship to date and sets out to determine and establish new directions for the study of Canadian children's literature
