Making Of The Marxist Philosophy:

The Making of the Marxist Philosophy Teodor Il'ich Oizerman, 1981 The Making of a Marxist Philosopher Sean Sayers, 2024-07-31 The Making of a Marxist Philosopher is a revealing and beautifully written memoir and family history from renowned Marxist philosopher Sean Sayers His father was the son of a Jewish Irish businessman who was a friend of Michael Collins and other leaders in the Irish struggle for independence He became a writer who was given his first job by T S Eliot shared a flat with George Orwell went to America and was blacklisted under McCarthyism Sean s mother was the American born daughter of a world famous Italian American anarchist She became a communist and lived and worked in China Sean was born in New York and grew up in London He studied philosophy in Cambridge and Oxford Universities in the 1960s and has become an internationally known Marxist philosopher As one of the founders of the journal Radical Philosophy and the creator of the Marx and Philosophy Review of Books Sayers has been at the centre of the development of philosophy on the left in the English speaking world during the past fifty years Reflecting on the fate of Marxism in an engaging thoughtful way The Making of a Marxist Philosopher is filled with revealing family photographs which Sayers uses to craft an original must read on left wing thought and politics The making of the Marxist philosophy Теодор Ильич Ойзерман (Философ.), 1981

Making Sense of Marx Jon Elster, 1985-05-09 A critical examination of the social theories of Karl Marx Marxism and the Making of China J. Gregor, 2014-02-19 An assessment of the influence of the Marxism of Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels on revolutionary developments in China The work covers the period from the first appearance of the Chinese Communist Party under Mao Zedong until its full transformation by Deng Xiaoping into a nationalist developmental single party developmental dictatorship The Making of Chicana/o Studies Rodolfo Acuña, 2011 The Making of Chicana o Studies traces the philosophy and historical development of the field of Chicana o studies from precursor movements to the Civil Rights era to today focusing its lens on the political machinations in higher education that sought to destroy the discipline As a renowned leader activist scholar and founding member of the movement to establish this curriculum in the California State University system which serves as a model for the rest of the country Rodolfo F Acuña has for more than forty years battled the trend in academia to deprive this group of its academic presence The book assesses the development of Chicana o studies an area of studies that has even more value today than at its inception myths about its epistemological foundations have remained uncontested Acuña sets the record straight challenging those in the academy who would fold the discipline into Latino studies shadow it under the dubious umbrella of ethnic studies or eliminate it altogether Building the largest Chicana o studies program in the nation was no easy feat especially in an atmosphere of academic contention In this remarkable account Acuña reveals how California State University Northridge was instrumental in developing an area of study that offers more than 166 sections per semester taught by 26 tenured and 45 part time instructors He provides vignettes of successful programs across the country and offers contemporary educators and students a game plan the mechanics for creating a successful Chicana o studies discipline and a comprehensive index of current Chicana o studies programs nationwide Latinas os of which Mexican Americans are nearly seventy percent comprise a complex sector of society projected to be just shy of thirty percent of the nation s population by 2050 The Making of Chicana o Studies identifies what went wrong in the history of Chicana o studies and offers tangible solutions for the future Making Histories CCCS,2013-12-16 First published in 2006 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Ghosts P. Buse,A. Stott,1999-01-28 Did you know that the father of psychoanalysis believed in ghosts or that Frederick Engels attended seances Ghosts Deconstruction Psychoanalysis History is the first collection of theoretical essays to evaluate these facts and consider the importance of the metaphor of haunting as it has appeared in literature culture and philosophy Haunting is considered as both a literal and figurative term that encapsulates social anxieties and concerns The collection includes discussions of nineteenth century spiritualism gothic and postcolonial ghost stories and popular film with essays on important theoretical writers including Freud Derrida Adorno and Walter Benjamin Louis Althusser and the Traditions of French Marxism William Lewis,2005-10-17 Throughout the course of the twentieth century communism has enjoyed direct competition with all other governmental and economic systems Often communist countries produced their own special brand of party intellectual These figures rightly occupied their place within their own national context and within the context of the International Some communist intellectuals through the high level of erudition exhibited in their writing have received a wider reception despite their direct linkage to party politics e g Antonio Gramsci Georg Lukacs and Victor Serge are good examples After 1956 when Kruschev exposed Stalin s atrocities to the Twentieth Congress of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union and as a result to the entire world Marxist philosophy was widely discredited It had been assumed that Stalin s excesses were somehow encouraged or supported through Marx s thought When in the mid 1960s Louis Althusser first offered his re readings of Marx s philosophy it and communist political practice were in ruin However Althusser was in a unique cultural and historical position Thinking and writing concomitant with the structuralists and poststructuralists in France and also having access to certain theoretical tools while simultaneously committing himself entirely to Marxist thought Althusser was conceivably the last of his tradition He was a Marxist philosopher who unlike Sartre at the end of his life did not abandon communism to for instance existentialism In Louis Althusser and the Traditions of French Marxism William Lewis gives readers a striking example of intellectual biography and critical theory His approach considering the work and life of Althusser within French Marxism and French intellectual culture fills a void in contemporary scholarship But much more importantly Lewis is able to show how Althusser s thought is the result of and a response to specific French intellectual and political traditions of reading Marx It is through this combination of concerns AMBEDKAR AND THE MAKING OF MODERN INDIA: SOCIAL TRANSFORMATION, DEMOCRACY AND GENDER JUSTICE Dr. Chittaranjan Mallik, The idea of writing this book has been germinating in my mind for long time but due to certain unavoidable reason could not get it finished Really it is very tough task to put together Dr Babasaheb Ambedkar's ideas and thoughts on entirety in a single book yet this book is an attempt to provide a coherent account on his socio-political struggles to establish an egalitarian transformative society with the ideas of liberty equality fraternity and social justice through the Constitutional means with all odds of caste indignities and challenged the age-old social structure intellectually rooting on the ground and rendered unwavering contributions in making modern India

Making Transformative Geographies Benedikt Schmid, 2020-06-03

In the light of social and environmental unsustainability and injustice the continuing attachment to the idea that a growth-based economy is reconcilable with human prosperity and ecological limits seems increasingly implausible

Tracing and dissecting the complexities of social change Making Transformative Geographies speaks about the development of visions alternatives and strategies for a radical transformation beyond accumulation and growth

Covering an empirical sample of 24 eco-social organizations projects and groupings in the city of Stuttgart Germany the book drills down into the social spatial and strategic dimensions of transformation

It advances a conceptually and empirically grounded assessment of the possibilities and limitations of community activism and civic engagement for shifting transformative geographies towards a degrowth trajectory

Marx and Hegel on the Dialectic of the Individual and the Social Sevgi Dogan, 2018-08-15

Marx and Hegel on the Dialectic of the Individual and the Social is a detailed investigation of the major works of Hegel and the young Marx with exploring how the concept of the individual is positioned within their ontologies and how this positioning is reflected in their related political views

Instead of contrasting a Marxist understanding of the individual with that of a liberal thinker Sevgi Dogan chooses to take Hegel's theory of the state as representative of the modern state which Marx criticizes

The decision to be in opposition to Hegel rather than some other liberal thinkers is important for two reasons

First since Marx has developed many of his early ideas in critical interaction with Hegel this comparative approach enables the book to present a more thorough and well-grounded exposition of Marx's arguments

Second since Hegel himself has also criticized the concepts of liberal ideology in many respects differentiating Marx's arguments from those of Hegel's enables the book to underline how and why Hegel's critique of liberal ideology falls short of actually empowering individuals in the way that Marx's account does

Law in the Making Alessandro Pizzorusso, 2012-12-06

The present volume presents a part of the results of a research project launched by the European Science Foundation ESF in 1977 Tribute should be paid to the late Professor Aleck Chloros Judge in the Court of the European Community whose belief in the European ideal and enthusiasm for European cooperation and the comparative study of legal problems made him an eloquent advocate of a large scale ESF venture into the field of comparative law Judge Chloros had envisaged the creation of a permanent sizable and well equipped European institute for comparative legal studies The successive working parties convoked by the Executive Council of the ESF which I had the honour of chairing from the beginning came to the conclusion that this ambitious vision could not be realized immediately the financial situation of the member organizations of the ESF also deteriorated making a cautious approach a necessary virtue The solution ultimately adopted by the last of the working parties the Ad Hoc Committee for Comparative Law and submitted to the General Assembly of the ESF in 1979 called for the launching of four pilot projects In November 1980 the Assembly approved detailed plans for two of these projects The first of these dealing with medical responsibility has already been presented in an impressive volume E Deutsch and H L Schreiber editors Medical Responsibility in Western Europe
