Input Processing and Processing Instruction Alessandro Benati, 2021-09-08 Input Processing is a theoretical framework on which the pedagogical paradigm called Processing Instruction is predicated In this book new data on the acquisition of Italian and Modern Standard Arabic are presented and analyzed within this framework Each study in the book explores how input processing strategies affect the acquisition of a particular linguistic feature and or structure in the two languages The studies use both offline e g sentence and discourse level tasks and online tests e g eye tracking to measure the effects of this instructional training

Practices in

Intercultural Language Teaching and Learning Michael Joseph Ennis, Catherine Elizabeth Riley, 2018-06-11 This volume responds to the growing need for intercultural approaches to teaching and learning languages The central premise is that the aim of intercultural language teaching and learning is to foster effective communication and effective learning in spaces between cultures in order to prepare learners for global citizenship but that the corresponding models and methods must emerge from the bottom up in order to meet the needs of each unique context The book offers a collection of successful experiences rooted in praxis It shares the activities methods models and approaches which have been developed within specific contexts Thus it offers an example of how to adopt an intercultural perspective in teaching and learning The editors and contributors share the conviction that the experiences detailed here can be informative to the realities of all readers in the same way that their own practices have been informed by others

Grammar Acquisition and Processing

Instruction Alessandro G. Benati, James F. Lee, 2008 The research we present in this book establishes a unique line of research within the Processing Instruction model by assessing the transfer of training effects of this approach to grammar instruction on how learners make form meaning connections In this book we present the results of three experimental studies investigating secondary and cumulative effects in French Italian and English
