torn land hidden deep within an enchanted forest hides an orphanage where miracles abound It s a magical place built by a resolute king who is determined to defeat an evil sorcerer waging bitter war against his people Victory just might take a miracle and so the orphanage may very well hide the key to winning the war A young girl named Kelsey also desperately needs a miracle She embarks on a quest to find the mysterious and hidden orphanage Along the way she s joined by several traveling companions including an over sized snow leopard and a boy who cannot speak In a land enchanted it s difficult to know the difference between what s real and what isn t and what a true friend looks like Join Kelsey and her companions as they embark on an extraordinary adventure and a quest unlike any other The Orphanage of Miracles is a work of fiction that examines the concept of miracles and what it takes to find or make the one you need Ekphrastic Image-making in

Early Modern Europe, 1500-1700 Arthur J. DiFuria, Walter Melion, 2021-12-20 In epideictic oratory ekphrasis is typically identified as an advanced rhetorical exercise that verbally reproduces the experience of viewing a person place or thing more specifically it often purports to replicate the experience of viewing a work of art Not only what was seen but also how it was beheld and the emotions attendant upon first viewing it are implicitly construed as recoverable indeed reproducible This volume examines how and why many early modern pictures operate in an ekphrastic mode such pictures claim to reconstitute works of art that solely survived in the textual form of an ekphrasis or they invite the beholder to respond to a picture in the way s he responds to a stirring verbal image or they call attention to their status as an image in the way that ekphrasis as a rhetorical figure makes one conscious of the process of image making or finally they foreground the artist s or the viewer s agency in the way that the rhetor or auditor is adduced as agent of the image being verbally produced
