It explores how each continent's unique climate and landscapes have shaped its inhabitants and examines the interplay between human actions and environmental factors. One intriguing aspect is the book's detailed look at how tectonic plates have influenced the formation and characteristics of each continent, impacting everything from mountain ranges to biome distribution. The book adopts a structured approach, beginning with fundamental geographical concepts like climate zones before delving into individual continental profiles. Zeufack,Fulbert Tchana Tchana,Aly Sanoh,2024-04-05 In 2019 African heads of state and governments launched in fanfare the African Continental Free Trade Agreement AfCFTA a historic agreement for economic transformation across the continent But now comes the hard bit how to make the agreement a success In this book senior experts from across the world come together to provide a comprehensive analysis of the conditions needed for AfCFTA to successfully spur economic development in Africa. It puts forward three foundations for success: demography dividend, digital economy and economic diversification. In addition to trade policy, the book recommends that African policymakers should strengthen fiscal and monetary policy coordination, adopt and implement the appropriate regulatory environment and build suitable connectivity infrastructure. The stakes are high. If implemented correctly, the book argues that AfCFTA could speed up trade within Africa, which could double every five years. Success would mean growth, investment, changing trade patterns, jobs, economic transformation, poverty reduction and a continental market for services. Driven by concrete evidence-based strategies for long-term growth, this book is an essential read for policy makers, development practitioners, economics researchers and everyone with an interest in the future of Africa.

The Policy Paradox in Africa Elias Ayuk, Mohamed Ali Marouani, 2007. It provided technical and financial support to economic research centres in sub-Saharan Africa (SSA) so that they can undertake policy relevant research with the goal of influencing economic policy making. In January 2005, the Secretariat organized an international conference in Dakar, Senegal, during which participants from key economic think tanks presented their experiences in the policy development process in Africa. Of particular interest was the role of economic research and economic researchers in policy making. The authors examine the extent to which economic policies that are formulated in the sub-continent draw from research based on local realities and undertaken by local researchers and research networks in Africa.

comprehensive overview of the context causes and consequences of refugee lives discussing issues policies and solutions for African refugees around the world It covers overarching topics such as human rights policy frameworks refugee protection and durable solutions as well as less studied topics such as refugee youths refugee camps LGBTQ refugees urban refugees and refugee women It also takes on rare but emergent topics such as citizenship and the creativity of African refugees Toyin Falola and Olajumoke Yacob Haliso showcase the voices and experiences of individual refugees through the sweep of history to tell the African refugee story from the historical past through current developments covering the full range of experience from the causes of flight to living in exile all while maintaining a persistent focus on the complicated search for solutions

African Refugees recognizes African agency and contributions in pursuit of solutions for African refugees over time but avoids the pitfalls of the colonial gaze where refugees are perpetually pathologized and Africa is always the sole cause of its own problems seeking to complicate these narratives by recognizing African refugee issues within exploitative global colonial and neo colonial systems of power      The Politics of International Economic Law Tomer Broude,Marc L.
