Making Of Modern Turkey:

The Making of Modern Turkey Ahmad Feroz, 2002-11-01 Turkey is the first modern secular state in a predominantly Islamic Middle East In this major textbook Feroz Ahmad provides a thorough examination of the political social and economic processes which led to the formation of a new Turkey After a chapter on the Ottoman Legacy the book covers the period since the revolution of 1908 and the development of the new Turkey Successive chapters chart the progress through the single party regime set up by Ataturk 1923 1945 the multi party period 1945 1960 and the three military interventions of 1960 1971 and 1980 The book ends in 1989 with the election of Turgat Ozal as president In contrast to most current analyses of modern Turkey the author emphasises the socio economic changes rather than continuities as the motor of politics The Making of Modern Turkey Sir Harry Luke, 1936

The Making of Modern Turkey Uğur Ümit Üngör, 2011 Offers a novel perspective on the establishment of the Turkish nation state and highlights how the Young Turk regime from 1913 to 1950 subjected Eastern Turkey to various forms of nationalist population policies aimed at ethnically homogenizing the region and including it in the Turkish nation state

The Making of Modern Turkey Feroz Ahmad, 1993 America and the Making of Modern Turkey Ali Erken, 2018-03-30 After the fall of the Ottoman Empire Mustafa Kemal Atatürk's government encouraged substantial American investment in education and aid It was argued that Turkey needed the technical skills and wealth offered by American education and so a series of American schools was set up across the country to educate the Turkish youth Here Ali Erken in the first study of its kind argues that these organizations had a huge impact on political and economic thought in Turkey acting as a form of soft power for US national interests throughout the 20th Century Robert College originally a missionary school founded by US benefactors has been responsible for educating two Turkish Prime Ministers writers such as Orhan Pamuk and a huge number of influential economists politicians and journalists The end result of these American philanthropic efforts Erken argues was a consensus in the 1970s that the country must westernize This mindset and the opposition viewpoint it engendered has come to define political struggle in modern Turkey torn between a capitalist modern West and an Islamic Ottoman East The book also reveals how and why the Rockefeller and Ford foundations funneled large amounts of money into Turkey post 1945 and undertook activities in support of Western candidates in Turkey as a bulwark against the Soviet Union This is an essential contribution to the history of US Turkish relations and the influence of the West in Turkish political thought

The Making of Modern Turkey Feroz Ahmed, 1991

The Making of Modern Turkey: Nation and State in Eastern Anatolia, 1913-1950 Uğur Ümit Üngör, 2011-04-21 The eastern provinces of the Ottoman Empire used to be a multi ethnic region where Armenians Kurds Syriacs Turks and Arabs lived together in the same villages and cities The disintegration of the Ottoman Empire and rise of the nation state violently altered this situation Nationalist elites intervened in heterogeneous populations they identified as objects of knowledge management and change These often violent processes of state formation destroyed historical regions and emptied multicultural cities clearing the way for modern nation states The Making of Modern Turkey highlights how the Young Turk regime from 1913 to 1950 subjected Eastern Turkey to various forms of nationalist population policies aimed at ethnically homogenizing the region and incorporating it in the Turkish nation state It examines how the regime utilized technologies of social engineering such as physical destruction deportation spatial planning forced assimilation and memory politics to increase ethnic and cultural homogeneity within the nation state Drawing on secret files and unexamined records Ugur mit ng r demonstrates that concerns of state security ethnocultural identity and national purity were behind these policies The eastern provinces the heartland of Armenian and Kurdish life became an epicenter of Young Turk population policies and the theatre of unprecedented levels of mass violence İsmet İnönü and the Making of Modern Turkey Osman Faruk Loğoğlu,1997 The European Transformation of Modern Turkey , The Power of the People Murat Metinsoy,2021-11-11 A fresh interpretation of the foundation of modern Turkey demonstrating the crucial role of ordinary people under Atat rk in the 1920s and 30s The Making of the Modern Turkey Feroz Ahmad,1993 The Making of Modern Turkey. The Old Turkey and the New. From Byzantium to Ankara. (New and Revised Edition.). Sir Harry Charles LUKE,1955 Remaking Turkey E. Fuat Keyman,2008-01-01 In recent years there has been an upsurge of interest in Turkey s ability to create a secular constitutional democracy within a predominantly Muslim population Remaking Turkey provides a comprehensive and detailed account of how Turkey has achieved the possibility of modernity and democracy in a Muslim social setting as well as the important problems and challenges confronting this achievement Turkey has demonstrated that as an alternative modernity and as a significant historical experience of the co existence between Islam and democratic modernity in a secular political structure it could make an important contribution to the most needed democratic global governance for the creation of a secure just and peaceful world Remaking Turkey starts its investigation with an analysis of the Ottoman legacy then focuses on identity based conflicts and civil economic and global processes all of which have brought about significant challenges to modernity and democracy in Turkey The book concludes with an account of the recent changes and transformations that have given rise to the process of remaking Turkey In this way editor E Fuat Keyman presents a political theory based approach to Turkish modernity and its recent changing formation creating an original study of contemporary Turkey Turkey's Democratization Process Carmen Rodriguez,Antonio Avalos,Hakan Yilmaz,Ana Planet,2013-10-30 Since the end of the 1980 coup d tat Turkey has been in the midst of a complex process of democratization Applying methodological pluralism in order to provide a comprehensive analysis of this process in a Turkish context this book brings together contributions from prominent Turkish English French and Spanish scholars Turkey s Democratization Process utilises the theoretical framework of J J Linz and A C Stepan in order to assess the complex process of democratization in Turkey This framework takes into account five interacting features of Turkey s polity when making this assessment namely whether the underlying legal and socioeconomic conditions are conducive for the development of a free and participant society if a relatively autonomous political society exists whether there are legal guarantees for citizens freedoms if there exists a state bureaucracy which can be used by a democratic government and whether the type and pace of Turkish economic development contributes to this process Examining the Turkish case in light of this framework this book seeks to combine analyses that will help assess the process of democratization in Turkey to date and will be of interest to scholars and researchers interested in Turkish Politics Democratization and Middle Eastern Studies more broadly

The Foreign Policy of Modern Turkey Ozgur Tufekci, 2017-01-30 In the last three decades Turkey has attempted to build close relationships with Russia Iran and the Turkic World As a result there has been ongoing debate about the extent to which Turkey's international relations axis is shifting eastwards Ozgur Tufekci argues that Eurasianist ideology has been fundamental to Turkish foreign policy and continues to have influence today The author first explores the historical roots of Eurasianism in the 19th century comparing this to Neo Eurasianism and Pan Slavism The Ozal era 1983 1993 the Cem era 1997 2002 and Davutoglu era since 2003 are then examined to reveal how foreign policy making has been informed by discourses of Eurasianism and how Eurasianist ideas were implemented through internal and external socio economic and political factors

The Making of Modern Turkey Ugur Ümit Üngör, 2011 The Routledge Handbook on Contemporary Turkey Joost Jongerden, 2021-07-26 This Handbook discusses the new political and social realities in Turkey from a range of perspectives emphasizing both changes as well as continuities Contextualizing recent developments the chapters written by experts in their fields combine analytical depth with a broad overview In the last few years alone Turkey has experienced a failed coup attempt a prolonged state of emergency the development of a presidential system based on the supreme power of the head of state a crackdown on traditional and new media universities and civil society organizations the detention of journalists mayors and members of parliament the establishment of political tutelage over the judiciary and a staggering economic crisis It has also terminated talks with the Kurdistan Workers Party PKK intervened in and occupied mountainous border areas in northern Iraq to fight that organization occupied Afrin and strips of territory in northern Syria intervened in Libya articulated an assertive transnational politics toward kin across the world strained its relations with the European Union and the US while developing relations with Russia flirted with China's intercontinental Belt and Road Initiative and carved out a presence in Africa to name just a few of the most recent developments This volume provides a comprehensive and wide ranging overview of the making of modern Turkey It is a key reference for students and scholars interested in political economy security studies international relations and Turkish studies

Building Modern Turkey Zeynep Kezer, 2015-12-29 Building Modern Turkey offers a critical account of how the built environment mediated Turkey's transition from a pluralistic multiethnic and multireligious empire into a modern homogenized nation state following the collapse of the Ottoman Empire at the end of World War I Zeynep Kezer argues that the deliberate dismantling of ethnic and religious enclaves and the spatial practices that ensued were as integral to conjuring up a sense of national unity and facilitating the operations of a modern nation state as were the creation of a new capital Ankara and other sites and services that embodied a new modern way of life The book breaks new ground by examining both the creative and destructive forces at play in the making of modern Turkey and by addressing the overwhelming frictions during this profound transformation and their long term consequences By considering spatial transformations at different scales from the experience of the individual self in space to that of international geopolitical disputes Kezer also illuminates the concrete and performative dimensions of fortifying a political ideology one that instills in the population a sense of membership in and allegiance to the nation above all competing loyalties and ensures its longevity Books on Turkey ,2005 Kurds in Turkey Lucie Drechselová,Adnan Çelik,2019-06-27 Kurds in Turkey Ethnographies of Heterogeneous Experiences is the newest contribution to the burgeoning Kurdish Studies literature The edited volume unites eight junior scholars who offer ethnographic studies based on their latest research The chapters are clustered around four main headings women s participation paramilitary space and infrapolitics of resistance Each heading assembles two chapters which are in dialog with each other and offer complementary and at times competing perspectives All four headings correspond to the emerging domains of research in Kurdish studies Authors share a micro level focus and take extensive field work as the basis of their argument In the wake of massive urban destructions and renewed warfare in the Kurdish region in Turkey this volume also stakes a stance against the memocide of the Kurdish municipal experience and cultural production
