Philippines born migration it presents the profile and history of this minority group through an examination of their print material culture over the last 40 years Particularly it examines the growth of the production of Filipino cultural identity and the politics of community building in relation to the sexualisation of their acquired citizenship Given the promotion of Australia as a modern multicultural Western nation in the Asia Pacific region the book questions the bases on which this claim stands using the example of Filipino settlement in Australia Considering the social contradictions that continue to shape multicultural politics in Australia it examines how the community makes sense of its migration through print material culture The book analyses the community s responses to their minoritisation to understand how Filipino Australian migration
