Authority in Islam Hamid Dabashi, 2017-09-08 From the origins of Muhammad s prophetic movement through the development of Islam s principal branches to the establishment of the Umayyad dynasty the concept of authority has been central to Islamic civilization By examining the nature organization and transformation of authority over time Dabashi conveys both continuities and disruptions inherent in the development of a new political culture It is this process he argues that accounts for the fundamental patterns of authority in Islam that ultimately shaped in dialectical interaction with external historical factors the course of Islamic civilization The book begins by examining the principal characteristics of authority in pre Islamic Arab society Dabashi describes the imposition of the Muhammadan charismatic movement on pre Islamic Arab culture tracing the changes it introduced in the fabric of pre Islamic Arabia He examines the continuities and changes that followed focusing on the concept of authority and the formation of the Sunnite Shiite and Karajite branches of Islam as political expressions of deep cultural cleavages For Dabashi the formation of these branches was the inevitable outcome of the clash between pre Islamic patterns of authority and those of the Muhammadan charismatic movement In turn they molded both the unity and the diversity of the emerging Islamic culture Authority in Islam explains how this came to be Dabashi employs Weber s concept of charismatic authority in describing Muhammad and his mode of authority as both a model and a point of departure His purpose is not to offer critical verification or opposition to interpretation of historical events but to suggest a new approach to the existing literature The book is an important contribution to political sociology as well as the study of Islamic culture and civilization Sociologists political scientists and Middle Eastern specialists will find this analysis of particular value

The Teaching and Study of Islam in Western Universities Paul Morris,William Shepard,Paul Trebilco,Toni Tidswell,2013-11-26 Public interest in the religion of Islam and in Muslim communities in recent years has generated an impetus for Western Universities to establish an array of Institutes and programs dedicated to the study of Islam Despite the growth in number of programs dedicated to this study very little attention has been paid to the appropriate shape of such programs and the assumptions that ought to underlie such a study The Teaching and Study of Islam in Western Universities attempts to address two central questions that arise through the teaching of Islam Firstly what relation is there between the study of the religion of Islam and the study of those cultures that have been shaped by that religion Secondly what is the appropriate public role of a scholar of Islam After extensive discussion of these questions the authors then continue to address the wider issues raised for the academic community having to negotiate between competing cultural and philosophical demands This edited collection provides new perspectives on the study of Islam in Western Institutions and will be an invaluable resource for students of Education and Religion in particular Islamic Studies Medieval Islamic Civilization: L-Z, index Josef W. Meri,2006 Publisher description Studies in Islamic History and Institutions Shelomo Dov Goitein,2010 Goitein s selection of studies dealing with Islamic institutions and social history offers a general introduction to Islamic civilization by one who lived all his life with Islam His fruit of specialized research gives a rounded view of important aspects of Islamic civilization and provides the student with an opportunity to acquaint himself not only with the results of research but also with the methods by which they were obtained With a new foreword by Norman A Stillman An Introduction to Islamic Cosmological Doctrines Seyyed Hossein Nasr,1993-07-01 This is the only book to deal with classical Islamic cosmology as it was formulated by the Ikhwan al S afa al Biruni and Ibn Sina during the tenth and eleventh centuries These figures influenced all the later centuries of Islamic history and in fact created the cosmological framework within which all later scientific activity in the Islamic world was carried out the enduring image of the cosmos within which Muslims have lived during the past millennium Nasr writes from within the Islamic tradition and demonstrates how based on the teachings of the Quran and the Prophet the figures treated in this work integrated elements drawn from various ancient schools of philosophy and the sciences This book is unique in its treatment of classical Islamic cosmology as seen from within the Islamic world view and provides a key for understanding of traditional Islamic thought Proceedings, American

Philosophical Society (vol. 123, No. 1, 1979) , Medieval Islamic Civilization Josef W. Meri, 2006 Examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th century This two volume work contains 700 alphabetically arranged entries and provides a portrait of Islamic civilization It is of use in understanding the roots of Islamic society as well to explore the culture of medieval civilization The Armies of Islam 7th-11th Centuries David Nicolle, 2024-08-15 A fully illustrated in depth exploration of early Islamic military forces their weapons and armour and the conflicts in which they fought During the Middle Ages Islam was Christian Europe s only civilised and most troublesome neighbour the Middle Ages saw almost continual strife between these two distinct cultures By the time the Frankish Crusaders reached the Middle East at the end of the 11th century Islam had already incorporated three major races Arabs Persians and Turks each of which contributed different strengths to the armoury of Islam This title explores the organisation uniforms and equipment of the armies of Islam from the 7th to 11th centuries backed by illustrations museum photographs and eight full page colour plates by popular Osprey artist Angus McBride Teaching Islam Brannon M. Wheeler, 2003 The critical role of Islam in global affairs makes it an increasingly valuable part of the undergraduate curriculum Despite this very little consideration has been given to methods of teaching Islam This book brings together leading scholars to offer perspectives on teaching Islam to undergraduates Medieval Muslim Philosophers and Intercultural Communication Wisam Kh. Abdul-Jabbar, 2022-12-30 This book examines the works of Medieval Muslim philosophers interested in intercultural encounters and how receptive Islam is to foreign thought to serve as a dialogical model grounded in intercultural communications for Islamic and Arabic education The philosophers studied in this project were instructors tutors or teachers such as Al Kindi Al Farabi Al Ghazali and Averroes whose philosophical contributions directly or indirectly advanced intercultural learning The book describes and provides examples of how each of these philosophers engaged with intercultural encounters and asks how their philosophies can contribute to infusing intercultural ethics and practices into curriculum theorizing First it explores selected works of medieval Muslim philosophers from an intercultural perspective to formulate a dialogical paradigm that informs and enriches Muslim education Second it frames intercultural education as a catalyst to guide Muslim communities interactions and identity construction encouraging flexibility tolerance deliberation and plurality Third it bridges the gap between medieval tradition and modern thought by promoting interdisciplinary connections and redrawing intercultural boundaries outside disciplinary limits This study demonstrates that the dialogical domain that guides intercultural contact becomes a curriculum oriented structure with Al Kindi a tripartite pedagogical model with Al F r b a sojourner experience with Al Ghazali and a deliberative pedagogy of alternatives with Averroes Therefore the book speaks to readers interested in the potential of dialogue in education intercultural communication and Islamic thought research Crucially bridging the gap between medieval tradition and modern thought by promoting interdisciplinary connections and redrawing intercultural boundaries outside disciplinary limits it will speak to readers interested in the dialogue between education intercultural communication and Islamic thought Arab Conquests and Early Islamic Historiography Ryan J. Lynch, 2019-11-14 Winner of the 2021 Southeast Regional Middle East and Islamic Studies Society Book Prize Of the available sources for Islamic history between the seventh and eighth centuries CE few are of greater importance than al Baladhuri s Kitab Futuh al buldan The Book of the Conquest of Lands Written in Arabic by a ninth century Muslim scholar working at the court of the Abbasid caliphs the Futuh s content covers many important matters at the beginning of Islamic history It informs its audience of the major events of the early Islamic conquests the settlement of Muslims in the conquered territories and their experiences therein and the origins and development of the early Islamic state Questions over the text s construction purpose and reception however have largely been ignored in current scholarship This is despite both the text s important historical material and its crucial early date of creation It has become commonplace for researchers to turn to the Futuh for information on a specific location or topic but to ignore the grander and in many ways more straightforward questions over the text s creation and limitations This book looks to correct these gaps in knowledge by investigating the context form construction content and early reception history of al Baladhuri s text The Beginnings of Islamic Law Lena Salaymeh, 2016-11-14 This is a major and innovative contribution to our understanding of the historical unfolding of Islamic law Scrutinizing its historical contexts Salaymeh proposes that Islamic law is a continuous intermingling of innovation and tradition The book s interdisciplinary approach provides accessible explanations and translations of complex materials and ideas Messianism and Sociopolitical Revolution in Medieval Islam Said Amir Arjomand, 2025-10-28 This study of messianism and revolution examines an extremely rich though unexplored historical record on the rise of Islam and its sociopolitical revolutions from Muhammad s constitutive revolution in Arabia to the Abbasid revolution in the East and the Fatimid and Almohad revolutions in North Africa and the Maghreb Bringing the revolutions together in a comprehensive framework Sa d Amir Arjomand uses sociological theory as well as the critical tools of modern historiography to argue that a volatile but recurring combination of apocalyptic motivation and revolutionary action was a driving force of historical change time and again In addition to tracing these threads throughout 500 years of history Arjomand also establishes how messianic beliefs were rooted in the earlier Judaic and Manichaean notions of apocalyptic transformation of the world By bringing to light these linkages and factors not found in the dominant sources this text offers a sweeping account of the long arc of Islamic history After Modernity-- What? Thomas C. Oden, 1992 This vigorous and incisive critique of modernity lights the path to recovering the revitalizing heritage of classical Christianity The Crusades: Islamic Perspectives Carole Hillenbrand, 2018-10-24 Coinciding with the 900th anniversary of the Crusades this book is the first general introduction to some of the wider aspects of the history of the Crusades Prepared by Carole Hillenbrand a leading authority with a world wide reputation The The Crusade is unique in covering the Crusades from the Muslim perspective it is also a timely reflection on how the phenomenon of the Crusades influenced the Muslim world then and now militarily culturally and psychologically The Crusades discusses a group of themes designed to highlight how Muslims reacted to the alien presence of the Crusaders in the heart of traditional Muslim territory Ideological concerns are examined and the importance of the concept of jihad is assessed in the context of the gradual recovery of the Holy Land and the expulsion of the Crusaders There are also chapters devoted to an analysis of the warfare arms battles sieges fortifications on the basis of written sources and extant works of art Also extensively discussed is the complex issue of the interaction between Muslims and Crusaders in a social economic and cultural setting The epilogue traces the profound impact of the Crusades on Muslim consciousness up to the present day The Crusades is also lavishly illustrated with 500 black and white pictures and two full color plate sections
