Minimal Future Art As Object 1958 1968:

A Minimal Future? Ann Goldstein, 2004     A MINIMAL FUTURE? ART AS OBJECT 1958-1968 [EXHIBITION CATALOGUE] THE MUSEUM OF CONTEMPORARY ART., 2004     Art After the Bomb Darrell D. Davisson, 2008 This book is requisite reading material for any person claiming to be an educated and informed member of the global community Our understanding in the West of the Eastern cultures specially the different cultures involving the Muslims is alarmingly low The book strives to offer a view from the ground a keyhole perspective that offers the readers a close and personal peek into some of the ethical underpinnings and the philosophical guiding parameters that inform the Muslim and the Eastern mind There are over 1.3 billion Muslims in the world It would be a serious intellectual fallacy to assume that they are all homogenous or to be more preposterous assume they are all terrorists It is extremely tragic that it took the Iranian hostage crisis to teach us about Shia Islam and 9/11 to teach us about Wahabi Islam Properly acquired knowledge not just what we learn from the media will allow us to be anticipatory and rational rather than being reactive and emotional For the Muslim reader specially the children and the youth the book strives to offer a deeper understanding of Islam beyond the boundaries of ritual Islam into the wide open space of spiritual and intellectual Islam To inspire them to appreciate and live up to the wonderful legacy of Islam and not to be mired down into some deviant interpretations of people with questionable motives The book is designed to encourage the process of tearing down walls and building bridges We share common dreams aspirations and challenges We share a common globe and a common destiny The author believes that there are no clashes of civilizations just clashes of ignorance and misunderstanding     ,     Objects as History in Twentieth-century German Art Peter Chametzky, 2010 This book provides an overview of twentieth century German art focusing on some of the period's key works In Peter Chametzky's innovative approach these works become representatives rather than representations of twentieth century history Chametzky draws on both scholarly and popular sources to demonstrate how the works and in some cases the artists themselves interacted with and even enacted historical events processes and ideas book jacket     Kill for Peace Matthew Israel, 2013-07-15 The book addresses chronologically the most striking reactions of the art world to the rise of military engagement in Vietnam then in Cambodia Guillaume LeBot Critique d'art The Vietnam War 1964-1975 divided American society like no other war of the twentieth century and some of the most memorable American art and art related activism of the last fifty years protested U.S. involvement At a time when Pop Art Minimalism and Conceptual Art dominated the American art world individual artists and art collectives played a significant role in antiwar protest and inspired subsequent generations of artists This significant story of engagement which has never been covered in a book length survey before is the subject of Kill for Peace Writing for both general and academic audiences Matthew Israel recounts the major moments in the Vietnam War and the antiwar movement and describes artists' individual and collective responses to them He discusses major artists such as Leon Golub Edward Kienholz Martha Rosler Peter Saul Nancy Spero

and Robert Morris artists groups including the Art Workers Coalition AWC and the Artists Protest Committee APC and iconic works of collective protest art such as AWC's Q And Babies A And Babies and APC's The Artists Tower of Protest Israel also formulates a typology of antiwar engagement identifying and naming artists approaches to protest These approaches range from extra aesthetic actions advertisements strikes walk outs and petitions without a visual aspect to advance memorials which were war memorials purposefully created before the war's end that criticized both the war and the form and content of traditional war memorials Accessible and informative Art Libraries Society of North America Like Andy Warhol Jonathan Flatley,2023-01-04 There are over 30 books about Andy Warhol Jonathan Flatley's will be the first that is truly comprehensive there's so much more to Warhol than the famous silk screens of Marilyn Monroe or the Campbell's soup cans and the first to reveal the internal logic of the artist's life and his aesthetic activities showing what binds them together enabling us to see his art and life as a totality Here's a partial inventory of Warhol's doings movies this includes Warhol's affection for bad acting his collecting jewelry Art Deco furniture perfumes conversation tapes 10 000 hours snapshots 66 000 even scores of Polaroids of male genitals visitors to his studio were asked to drop their pants for the camera and in addition to the silk screens the paintings drawings prints sculptures as well as novels and memoirs there was even a monthly gossip magazine For one two year period everyone who came to his studio the Factory was obliged to take a screen test a collectivity of misfits misfitting together Warhol had an extraordinary talent for liking things Flatley appropriates liking as a central theme here showing how Warhol helps us see likeness across differences Like Andy Warhol is the best full length study of the artist and no single artist today is more representative of postmodern culture than Warhol Situation Aesthetics Kirsi Peltomaki,2014-02-14 The first book length study of this influential artist's work focusing on the participatory role of the human subject rather than the art object Michael Asher doesn't make typical installations Instead he extracts his art from the institutions in which it is shown culling it from collections histories or museums own walls Since the late 1960s Asher has been creating situations that have not only taught us about the conditions and contexts of contemporary art but have worked to define it In Situation Aesthetics Kirsi Peltomaki examines Asher's practice by analyzing the social situations that the artist constructs in his work for viewers participants and institutional representatives including gallery directors curators and other museum staff members Drawing on art criticism the reports of viewers and participants in Asher's projects and the artist's own archives Peltomaki offers a comprehensive account of Asher's work over the past four decades Because of the intensely site specific nature of this work as well as the artist's refusal to reconstruct past works or mount retrospectives many of the projects Peltomaki discusses are described here for the first time By emphasizing the social and psychological sites of art rather than the production of autonomous art objects Peltomaki argues Asher constructs experientially complex situations that profoundly affect those who encounter them bringing about both personal and institutional transformation

the nexus of Conceptual and feminist art of the late 1960s and 1970s

Beckett's Breath Goudouna Sozita

Goudouna,2018-01-15 Examines the intersection of Samuel Beckett's thirty second playlet Breath with the visual arts Samuel Beckett one of the most prominent playwrights of the twentieth century wrote a thirty second playlet for the stage that does not include actors text characters or drama but only stage directions Breath 1969 is the focus and the only theatrical text examined in this study which demonstrates how the piece became emblematic of the interdisciplinary exchanges that occur in Beckett's later writings and of the cross fertilisation of the theatre with the visual arts The book attends to fifty breath related artworks including sculpture painting new media sound art performance art and contextualises Beckett's Breath within the intermedial and high modernist discourse thereby contributing to the expanding field of intermedial Beckett criticism Key Features Examines Beckett's ultimate venture to define the borders between a theatrical performance and purely visual representation Juxtaposes Beckett's Breath with breath related artworks by prominent visual artists who investigate the far reaching potential of the representation of respiration by challenging modernist essentialism The focus on this primary human physiological function and its relation to arts and culture is highly pertinent to studies of human performance the nature of embodiment and its relation to cultural expression Facilitates new intermedial discourses around the nature and aesthetic possibilities of breath the minimum condition of existence at the interface between the visual arts and performance practices and their relation to questions of spectacle objecthood and materiality

The Scores Project

Michael Gallope, Natilee Harren, John Hicks, 2025-05-06 A collection of essays examining experimental scores and source documents from the postwar avant gardes interpreted by experts on art music dance and poetry Individuals working in and across the fields of visual art music poetry theater and dance in the mid twentieth century began to use experimental scores in ways that revolutionized artistic practice and opened up new forms of interdisciplinary collaboration Their experimental methods associated with the neo avant garde neo Dadaism intermedia Fluxus and postmodernism exploded in notoriety during the 1960s in locales from New York to Europe East Asia and Latin America becoming foundational to global trends in contemporary art and performance The Scores Project provides an in depth view of this historical moment Through expert commentaries from an interdisciplinary team of scholars with accompanying illustrations this publication examines a series of experimental scores by John Cage George Brecht Sylvano Bussotti Morton Feldman Allan Kaprow Alison Knowles Jackson Mac Low Benjamin Patterson Yvonne Rainer Mieko Shiomi David Tudor and La Monte Young Ambitious provocative and playful The Scores Project is an illuminating resource to scholars and students who seek to understand this innovative and historically complex moment in the history of art An expanded edition of this open access publication is available for free online at www.getty.edu/publications/scores It includes more than 2 800 images audio video files and interactive features Also available are free PDF and EPUB downloads of the book

The Speculative City Susanna Phillips

Newbury, 2021-04-20 A forensic examination of the mutual relationship between art and real estate in a transforming Los Angeles Underlying every great city is a rich and vibrant culture that shapes the texture of life within In The Speculative City Susanna Phillips Newbury teases out how art and Los Angeles shaped one another's evolution She compellingly articulates how together they transformed the Southland establishing the foundation for its contemporary art infrastructure and explains how artists came to influence Los Angeles's burgeoning definition as the global city of the twenty first century Pairing particular works of art with specific innovations in real estate development The Speculative City reveals the connections between real estate and contemporary art as they constructed Los Angeles's present day cityscape From banal parking lots to Frank Gehry's designs for artists studios and museums Newbury examines pivotal interventions by artists and architects city officials and cultural philanthropists concluding with an examination of how in the wake of the 2008 global credit crisis contemporary art emerged as a financial asset to fuel private wealth and urban gentrification Both a history of the transformation of the Southland and a forensic examination of works of art The Speculative City is a rich complement to the California chronicles by such writers as Rebecca Solnit and Mike Davis      State of Mind Constance M. Lewallen, Karen Moss, 2011-10 State of Mind the lavishly illustrated companion book to the exhibition of the same name investigates California's vital contributions to Conceptual art in particular work that emerged in the late 1960s among scattered groups of young artists The essays reveal connections between the northern and southern California Conceptual art scenes and argue that Conceptualism's experimental practices and an array of then new media performance site specific installations film and video mail art and artists publications continue to exert an enormous influence on the artists working today      Latin American Identities After 1980 Gordana Yovanovich, Amy Huras, 2010-04-23 Latin American Identities After 1980 takes an interdisciplinary approach to Latin American social and cultural identities With broad regional coverage and an emphasis on Canadian perspectives it focuses on Latin American contact with other cultures and nations Its sound scholarship combines evidence based case studies with the Latin American tradition of the essay particularly in areas where the discourse of the establishment does not match political social and cultural realities and where it is difficult to uncover the purposely covert This study of the cultural and social Latin America begins with an interpretation of the new Pax Americana designed in the 1980s by the North in agreement with the Southern elites As the agreement ties the hands of national governments and establishes new regional and global strategies a pan Latin American identity is emphasized over individual national identities The multi faceted impacts and effects of globalization in Bolivia Ecuador Mexico Cuba Brazil Chile Argentina and the Caribbean are examined with an emphasis on social change the transnationalization and commodification of Latin American and Caribbean arts and the adaptation of cultural identities in a globalized context as understood by Latin American authors writing from transnational perspectives      American Artists Engage the Built Environment, 1960-1979 Susanneh Bieber, 2023-07-31 This volume reframes the development of US American avant garde art of the long 1960s from minimal and pop art to land art conceptual art site specific practices and feminist art in the context of contemporary architectural discourses Susanne Bieber analyzes the work of seven major artists Donald Judd Robert Grosvenor Claes Oldenburg Robert Rauschenberg Lawrence Weiner Gordon Matta Clark and Mary Miss who were closely associated with the formal aesthetic innovations of the period While these individual artists came to represent diverse movements Bieber argues that all of them were attracted to the field of architecture the work of architects engineers preservationists landscape designers and urban planners because they believed these practices more directly shaped the social and material spaces of everyday life This book's contribution to the field of art history is thus twofold First it shows that the avant garde of the long 1960s did not simply develop according to an internal logic of art but also as part of broader sociocultural discourses about buildings and cities Second it exemplifies a methodological synthesis between social art history and poststructural formalism that is foundational to understanding the role of art in the construction of a more just and egalitarian society The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history architecture urbanism and environmental humanism Sacred and Profane Carol

Live Form Jenni Sorkin, 2016-07-26 Ceramics had a far reaching impact in the second half of the twentieth century as its artists worked through the same ideas regarding abstraction and form as those for other creative mediums Live Form shines new light on the relation of ceramics to the artistic avant garde by looking at the central role of women in the field potters who popularized ceramics as they worked with or taught male counterparts like John Cage Peter Voulkos and Ken Price Sorkin focuses on three Americans who promoted ceramics as an advanced artistic medium Marguerite Wildenhain a Bauhaus trained potter and writer Mary Caroline M C Richards who renounced formalism at Black Mountain College to pursue new performative methods and Susan Peterson best known for her live throwing demonstrations on public television Together these women pioneered a hands on teaching style and led educational and therapeutic activities for war veterans students the elderly and many others Far from being an isolated field ceramics offered a sense of community and social engagement which Sorkin argues crucially set the stage for later participatory forms of art and feminist collectivism

Films That Spill Marie Sophie Beckmann, 2025-03-11 Films That Spill is a comprehensive study of the Cinema of Transgression a hitherto underexamined moment in US underground film culture Reconsidering the concept of transgressive cinema not only as a description of the intentionally provocative content of the films but also as a feature of a cross disciplinary practice Marie Sophie Beckmann explores how filmmaking in the context of the vibrant and intermingling art music performance and film scenes in 1980s Lower Manhattan spilled over the boundaries of artistic disciplines media formats and content concepts This study not only provides a microhistory of these scenes and insight into their afterlife in archives and exhibitions but also represents an innovative contribution to debates within film media and visual culture about the methodological and historiographical challenges posed by the expansion of film beyond the discursive boundaries of cinema

Always Reaching Anne Truitt, 2023-03-14 An expansive collection of texts providing insight into the inner life creativity and practice of the innovative American artist Anne Truitt Spanning more than fifty years this comprehensive volume collects the letters journal entries interviews lectures reviews and remembrances of the groundbreaking twentieth century artist Anne Truitt 1921 2004 Alexandra Truitt the artist's daughter and a leading expert on her work has carefully selected these writings most of which are previously unpublished from the artist's papers at Bryn Mawr College as well as private holdings Revelations about the artist's life abound Among Truitt's earliest writings are excerpts from journals written more than a decade before her first artistic breakthrough in which she establishes themes that would occupy her for decades In later texts she shares uncommon insights into the practices of other artists and writers both predecessors and peers Like Truitt's published journals these writings offer a compelling narrative of her development as an artist and efforts to find her voice as a writer They show that Truitt's creative impulse to translate the inner workings of her mind into a symbolic language so important to understanding her sculpture predates her art
