entirely or relegated them to a subfield of crusade studies rather than treating them as a full part of mainstream religious life. By reincorporating the military orders into mainstream religious history discussion will be furthered in a range of fields and debates such as ecclesiastical landholding, lay church relations, the role of women in religion and the processes of the Reformation. By focusing on the period 1291 to 1400, the book considers the impact of the loss of the Holy Land in 1291, the subsequent diffusion in crusade activity to the Baltic and Spain, the intensification of the order's career as English royal servants in Wales, Scotland and Ireland, and the Hospitallers' crusade to Rhodes in 1309. This book will appeal to scholars and students of the Hospitallers as well as those interested in medieval Britain and Ireland. The Finder Will

Ferguson, 2020-09-01 From the Scotiabank Giller Prize winning novelist of 419 comes a spellbinding literary adventure novel about precious objects lost and found. The world is filled with wonders, lost objects all real, all still out there waiting to be found: the missing Fabergé eggs of the Romanov dynasty worth millions, the last reel of Alfred Hitchcock's first film Buddy Holly's iconic glasses, Muhammad Ali's Olympic gold medal. How can such cherished objects simply vanish? Where are they hiding? And who on earth might be compelled to uncover them? Will Ferguson takes readers on a heroic imaginative journey across continents from the seas of southern Japan to the arid Australian Outback to the city of Christchurch, New Zealand, after the earthquake. Prepare to meet Gaddy Rhodes, a brittle Interpol agent obsessed with tracking The Finder, a shadowy figure she believes is collecting lost objects; Thomas Rafferty, a burnt-out travel writer whose path crosses that of The Finder to devastating effect; and Tamsin Greene, a swaggering war photographer who is hiding secrets of her own. The Finder is a beguiling and wildly original tale about the people, places and things that are lost and found in our world. Both an epic literary adventure and an escape into a darkly thrilling world of deceit and its rewards, this novel asks: How far would you be willing to go to recover the things you've left behind? King's Lynn and the Fens

John McNeill, 2017-07-05 The fourteen papers collected in this volume explore the medieval art, architecture and archaeology of King's Lynn and the Fens. They arise out of the Association's 2005 conference and reflect its concern to engage with a broad range of monuments and themes rather than focusing on a single major building. Within King's Lynn, contributors consider the superb 14th-century enamelled drinking vessel popularly known as King John's Cup, the former Hanseatic Steelyard, the Red Mount Chapel and the oak furnishings of the chapel of St Nicholas, while the pine standard chest from St Margaret's church is assessed in terms of the importation and distribution of similar chest across England as a whole. Outside King's Lynn, there are articles on the historical manipulation of landscapes and buildings at Kirkstead, the 13th-century architecture and sculpture of Croyland Abbey, the 14th-century parish church of St Mary at Snettisham, the tomb of Sir Humphrey de Littlebury at All Saints Holbeach, the overlooked medieval wall paintings in the Prior's Chapel at Castle Acre and the late medieval stained glass at Wigganhall St Mary Magdalen. Finally, there are three papers that look at particular aspects of the ways in which parish churches were financed, embellished and used across the region in terms of late 12th and early 13th-century patronage, their

12th century deployment of architectural sculpture and the types and arrangements of choir stalls that appeared at a parochial level during the later Middle Ages Cullman County, Alabama Cemeteries, Volume 1 Robin Sterling,2013-07-23 Cullman County was established in 1877 in large part from the west side of Blount and the east side of Winston counties Today the few old cemeteries which existed in those counties in the early days are found within the borders of Cullman The cemetery listings in this four volume set were conducted by the author beginning in 2003 and ending in early 2006 An attempt was made to personally visit every cemetery in Cullman County and record information from each readable monument Volume 1 of this series covers alphabetically cemeteries A through D beginning with the Addington Chapel Cemetery and concluding with the Duck River Missionary Baptist Church Cemetery The volumes are filled with photos of many of the old cemetery sites and notes describing the company and unit of most of the old Civil War era veterans This set of books is vital to any serious student of Cullman County genealogy and history Pawn Power in Chess Hans
