Missionaries And Managers:

Management Fads and Buzzwords David Collins,2013-10-11 Around 5 000 business and management titles are published every year and increasingly their preferred mode of presentation is centred on the creation and marketing of buzzwords and fads This book argues that these management fads and buzzwords deflect critical inquiry and limit useful action because they present a ready made view of the world which rejects the benefits of theoretical analysis and reflection Topics covered include the guru industry excellence business process re engineering empowerment culture knowledge work globalization Unpacking the guru industry and analyzing the fads and buzzwords this book provides a critical practical analysis designed to allow readers to locate understand and critique management fashion Missionaries and Managers Nick Tiratsoo,Terence Richard Gourvish,1998 IIMA - Managers Who Make A Difference T V Rao,2016-03-01 What qualities do you need to be a successful manager and how can you develop the qualities you already possess Managers Who Make a Difference examines how managers perceptions about themselves shape their behaviour at work and studies the ways in which people can translate their ambition sense of purpose perseverance confidence and resourcefulness into successful management How can you train yourself to spot competences in others and build on them to create an effective team How do you achieve the right balance between adherence to existing systems and creative or experimental problem solving And do you have the people skills the ability to network extensively and build trust based relationships required to be a leader Richly illustrated with anecdotes and experiences of well known managers and with a broad array of tips and self assessment tools to sharpen your management skills this book is a must read for all practising and aspiring managers The IIM Ahmedabad Business Books bring key issues in management and business to a general audience With a wealth of information and illustrations from contemporary Indian businesses these non academic and user friendly books from the faculty of IIM Ahmedabad are essential corporate reading German Business Management Toshio Yamazaki,2013-05-28 How are German capitalism and German business management to be understood from the perspective of Japan Both Germany and Japan as defeated nations in World War II received significant American leadership and support after the war Both countries developed their enterprises industries and economy by deploying and adapting technology and management methods from the United States while establishing systems of industrial concentration in their own ways By these means both nations became major trading countries However current economic and business conditions differ greatly between Germany and Japan In trade American influence on Japanese business is still strong Japan could not and cannot establish a complementary relationship with American industrial sectors and their products in the American market In addition a common market structure like the E U does not exist in Asia In contrast to Japan Germany developed independently from the American influence and became part of a well integrated regional economy What were the driving forces that created those differences That question is approached from a Japanese point of view in this book based on the assumption that the origins of distinct characteristics of German business management after World War II were developed in the 1950s and 60s The book analyzes the transformation of business management in Germany and explains the characteristics and structures of German management The author describes how the development of German companies determined the current German condition the Europeanization of Germany while the world faced the globalization process Demonstrating the basic foundation of European integration by analyzing market factors in Europe as well as the internal structural transformation of management in Germany this book is a valuable resource for undergraduate and graduate students educators and researchers in the fields of business management business history and economic history The Encyclopædia of Missions Edwin Munsell Bliss,1891

Settler Colonial Governance in Nineteenth-Century Victoria Leigh Boucher,Lynette Russell,2015-04-29 This collection represents a serious re examination of existing work on the Aboriginal history of nineteenth century Victoria deploying the insights of postcolonial thought to wrench open the inner workings of territorial expropriation and its historically tenacious variability Colonial historians have frequently asserted that the management and control of Aboriginal people in colonial Victoria was historically exceptional by the end of the century colonies across mainland Australia looked to Victoria as a model for how to manage the problem of Aboriginal survival This collection carefully traces the emergence and enactment of this model in the years after colonial separation the idiosyncrasies of its application and the impact it had on Aboriginal lives It is no exaggeration to say that the work on colonial Victoria represented here is in the vanguard of what we might see as a new Australian colonial history This is a quite distinctive development shaped by the aftermath of the history wars within Australia and through engagement with the new imperial history of Britain and its empire It is characterised by an awareness of colonial Australia s positioning within broader imperial circuits through which key personnel ideas and practices flowed and also by local settler society s impact upon and entanglements with Aboriginal Australia The volume heralds a new spatially aware movement within Australian history writing Alan Lester This is a timely astutely assembled and well nuanced collection that combines theoretical sophistication with empirical solidity Theoretically it engages knowledgeably but not uncritically with a broad range of influences including postcolonialism the new imperial history settler colonial studies and critical Indigenous studies Empirically contributors have trawled an impressive array of archival sources both standard and relatively unknown bringing a fresh eye to bear on what we thought we knew but would now benefit from reconsidering Though the collection wears its politics openly it does so lightly and without jeopardising fidelity to its sources Patrick Wolfe The Organizations Set Up for the Control of Mission Union Higher Educational Institutions Ralph Dillingham Wellons,1927 Annual Report of the Board of Managers of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church Woman's Home Missionary Society (Cincinnati, Ohio),1891 Pious Pursuits Michele Gillespie,Robert Beachy,2007-09-01 Recent work on the history of migration and the Atlantic World has underscored the importance of the political economies of Europe Africa and the Americas in the eighteenth century emphasizing the impact of these exchanges on political relations and state building and on economic structures commerce and wealth Too little of this work explores culture and identity outside the Anglo American context especially as reflected through religious developments of radical Pietists and other Germans the second largest group of migrants to the American colonies in the eighteenth century This volume offers a fresh vantage point from which to examine the Atlantic World Quick to traverse the conventional political boundaries that divided European states and American colonies Moravians departed their homeland to form new congregations in the most cosmopolitan European cities as well as on the North American frontier Pious Pursuits explores the lives and beliefs of Atlantic World Moravians as well as their communities and culture and it provides a new framework for analysis of the Atlantic World that is comparative and transnational   The Encyclopedia of Missions Edwin Munsell Bliss,Henry Otis Dwight,Henry Allen Tupper,1904   American Baptist Home Missions American Baptist Home Mission Society,1892   Annual of the Northern Baptist Convention ,1921 Issue for 1909 includes the annual report of the American Baptist Missionary Union for 1909 40 include the annual reports of the American Baptist Home Mission Society and the American Baptist Publication Society for 1910 40 of the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society and the Woman s American Baptist Home Mission Society for 1912 40 of the American Baptist Historical Society for 1914 40 of the Woman s Baptist Foreign Missionary Society and the Woman s Baptist Foreign Missionary Society of the West which merged in 1915 to form the Woman s American Baptist Foreign Mission Society   Report ,1866   Leadership in Community Lee A. Carter, Leadership in Community is a spiritual formation curriculum that engages new or seasoned missional leaders in the foundations of missiology leadership theory and missional leadership practices and tools The curriculum explores three major topics important for missional leadership all of which build upon one another the missiology community and ethics of missional leadership These themes are explored through a spiritual formation practice called Lectio Missio an expansion of Lectio Divina that incorporates missional themes and practices Using Lectio Missio small groups of missional leaders engage in Scripture reading and study prayer conversation meditation journaling reflection and experiential learning These disciplines focus on spiritual formation as the basis of missional leadership training and development   Missions Howard Benjamin Grose,1924   Annual Report of the American Baptist Home Mission Society American Baptist Home Mission Society,1904   Practically Academic Mitchell J. Larson,2003 This work problematizes business school formation during the 1960s as a stage in the professionalization of British business management In reconstructing the political and economic circumstances surrounding the business schools creation the thesis illustrates various contemporary expectations for the field of management education Throughout the thesis the background formative details and subsequent impact on the economy of the first two British business schools are explored in two ways first the study highlights the paradox between industrial support for management education as such and later unwillingness to hire the graduates of business schools Second it suggests that the formation of business schools may be viewed as a case study of post war Americanization The work emphasizes that business school advocates faced entrenched resistance to academic management programs arising from competing methods of preparation for business careers as well as the academic establishment The thesis demonstrates that the creation of American style management education institutions reflected British desires to elevate the social status of business management practitioners and simultaneously improve business performance American Baptist Home Missions ,1853 Equipping for Global Mission Linda P. Saunders,Gregory Mathias,Edward L. Smither,2024-08-13 From Cognitive Teaching to Connected Learning Given the landscape of global Christianity and the variety of approaches to theological and missiological training today how do we equip the global church for the mission of God Should mission organizations or sending churches conduct their own in house training What is the role of Bible colleges and seminaries in equipping for mission today What about informal approaches to theological and ministry training Equipping for Global Mission offers insights from seasoned scholars and practitioners Beginning with theological convictions and practical reflections our authors make a case for what equipping for mission could look like in the present global church Case studies from India China North America and Britain further challenge the reader to reflect on this critical issue The full scope of educating for mission is far too broad of a task for any single organization This is why the contributors serve the church so well by enlarging a much needed conversation This book is a clarion call to all who care about missions and the global church Join world leaders in reshaping missions education today by using the practical and strategic wisdom in these pages The Spirit of Missions ,1899 Includes the proceedings of the annual meeting of the Society
