Mistress To A Bachelor Modern Romance:

Mistress to a Bachelor Kay Thorpe, 2002      Modern Love Marcus Collins, 2006-06 Private life has altered beyond all recognition during the past one hundred years Britain in 1900 was emerging from a Victorian era in which prudery patriarchal authority and pettifogging rules of etiquette were widely perceived to have circumscribed relations between men and women The twentieth century witnessed a reaction against this system of separate spheres spearheaded by reformers eager that the sexes become each other's equals and intimates Modern Love traces the trajectory of this new model of personal relationships over the course of the twentieth century from its emergence out of the crucible of the suffrage campaign through its reshaping by the women's liberation movement It explores its impact on smut merchants warring couples and teenagers as well as its reception by such diverse figures as Bertrand Russell and Germaine Greer It draws on sources as varied as suffragette propaganda banned sex manuals marriage counseling literature and pin up magazines Marcus Collins teaches modern British history at Emory University      Novels in English by Women, 1891-1920 Janet Grimes, Diva Daims, 1981      Romance and the Erotics of Property Jan Cohn, 1988 Romance and the Erotics of Property examines contemporary popular romance from a number of different points of view probing for codes and subtexts that sometimes exploit and sometimes contradict its surface tale of romantic attraction frustration longing and fulfillment Cohn argues that a full understanding of the contemporary romance requires an investigation of its literary and historical sources and analogues Three principal sources are examined in the context of women's history in bourgeois society Pride and Prejudice Jane Eyre and Gone With the Wind demonstrate the development of romance fiction's themes yet in all three the central love story is complicated by issues of property the sign of male power Jan Cohn further considers the development of the genre in the fictions of Harriet Lewis and May Agnes Fleming prolific and popular American romance writers of the late nineteenth century who developed the role of the villain thereby bringing into focus the sexual and economic struggles faced by the heroine Romance and the Erotics of Property sets romance fiction against a historic and literary background arguing that contemporary romance disguises as tales of love the subversive fantasies of female appropriation and male property and power      Prose fiction Leeds Public Libraries, 1907      Modern Marriage and the Lyric Sequence Jane Hedley, 2018-06-04 Modern Marriage and the Lyric Sequence investigates the ways in which some of our best poets writing in English have used poetic sequences to capture the lived experience of marriage Beginning in 1862 with George Meredith's Modern Love Jane Hedley's study utilizes the rubrics of temporality dialogue and triangulation to bring a deeply rooted and vitally interesting poetic genre into focus Its twentieth and twenty-first century practitioners have included Edna St Vincent Millay Robert Lowell Rita Dove Eavan Boland Louise Glück Anne Carson Ted Hughes Claudia Emerson Rachel Zucker and Sharon Olds In their poetic sequences the flourishing or failure of a particular marriage is always at stake but as that relationship plays out over time each sequence also speaks to larger questions why we marry what a marriage is what our collective stake is in other people's marriages In the book's final chapter gay marriage presents a fresh testing ground for these questions in light of the US Supreme Court's affirmation of same sex marriage Catalogue of Prose Fiction in the Central Lending Library Leeds (England).
