The Misunderstanding of Nature Sophie Cabot Black, 1994 Sophie Cabot Black is an unabashedly passionate poet Her language is exquisite each word falling perfectly into precise structures of vision Whether in a loose sonnet form or in a taut longer line these poems are exercises in the extension of the soul Devotional and pure Sophie Cabot Black's voice is one of inconstant waiting of meditation on edge The Misunderstanding of Nature encompasses two New Worlds the contemporary one and the one of seventeenth century New England At its epiphany this collection presents a long poem called The Arguments a monologue in the voice of Dorothy Bradford one of the first Englishwomen to have set foot in America Through her complicated search for transcendence we overhear the movements of learning to belong caught at the rim of the wilderness

Tennyson's Shorter Poems and Lyrics, 1833-1842 Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson, 1909

Prose Poems of the French Enlightenment Fabienne Moore, 2017-11-30 By examining nearly sixty works the author traces the prehistory of the French prose poem demonstrating that the disquiet of some eighteenth century writers with the Enlightenment gave rise to the genre nearly a century before it is habitually supposed to have existed In the throes of momentous scientific philosophical and socioeconomic changes Enlightenment authors turned to the past to revive sources such as Homer the pastoral Ossian the Bible and primitive eloquence favoring music to construct alternatives to the world of reason The result the author argues were prose poems including F lon's Les Aventures de T maque Montesquieu's Le Temple de Gnide Rousseau's Le L te d Ephra m Chateaubriand's Atala as well as many lesser known texts most of which remain out of print The author's treatment of Bible criticism and eighteenth century religious reform movements reveal the often neglected spiritual side of Enlightenment culture and tracks its contribution to the period's reflection about language and poetic invention The author includes in appendices four unusual texts adjudicating the merits of prose poems making evidence of their controversial nature now accessible to readers

Early Welsh Gnostic and Nature Poetry Nicolas Jacobs, 2012 Among the most enigmatic and fascinating of early Welsh poems are the sequences of stanzas commonly categorized as gnostic In their most typical form they juxtapose vivid natural description with generalisations about the physical world and about human life combining an evident delight in weather and the changing seasons landscapes and seascapes and birds beasts and plants with a serious and often witty concern for the moral and practical aspects of daily life The origin and function of these stanzas remains a puzzle some may be associated with particular situations in narratives now lost but as a whole they appear to have developed at an early stage into a recognised genre of their own They may be supposed to have a philosophical purpose serving to assert a continuity between the natural and moral orders on the other hand they may be read simply as a repository of folk wisdom While their interpretation remains a matter for discussion their language is comparatively simple and they thus provide an engaging window on the ordinary conceptual world of mediaeval Wales This volume presents texts of the gnomic stanzas from the most important collection that in Red Book of Hergest and from some other manuscripts with a few other poems containing related material some of them edited in English for the first time together with a literary and linguistic introduction explanatory commentary and extensive glossary Nicolas Jacobs is an Emeritus Fellow of Jesus College Oxford

Nature and the Numinous in Mythopoeic Fantasy Literature Chris Brawley, 2014-06-26 This book makes connections between mythopoeic fantasy works that engage the numinous and the critical apparatuses of ecocriticism and posthumanism Drawing from the ideas of Rudolf Otto in The Idea of the Holy mythopoeic fantasy is a means of subverting normative modes of perception to both encounter the numinous and to challenge the perceptions of the natural world Beginning with S T Coleridge s theories of the imagination as embodied in The Rime of the Ancient Mariner the book moves on to explore standard mythopoeic fantasists such as George MacDonald C S Lewis and J R R Tolkien Taking a step outside these men particularly influenced by Christianity the concluding chapters discuss Algernon Blackwood and Ursula Le Guin whose works evoke the numinous without a specifically Christian worldview
