

A photograph of a man with grey hair, wearing a dark jacket over a white shirt and dark trousers, standing in a forest. He is holding a small bouquet of colorful flowers in his right hand and has a playful, slightly off-balance pose. The forest floor is covered in green moss and small white flowers, with many thin tree trunks in the background.

Jedan, 2013 In Western public discourse there is a long tradition of opposing secular and religious values In consequence religion has been increasingly excluded from the public domain and relegated to the realm of personal motivation From different perspectives this present collection of essays shows that religion still has an important role to play in the public domain In exploring the possibility of a rapprochement between religious and secular values the book s contributions offer important insights for ongoing debates on the question whether Western and particularly European democracies have entered a post secular phase Series Theorizing the Postsecular International Studies in Religion Politics and Society Vol 1
