contrasting experience has produced an entirely different perspective of the battle the most controversial to emerge from the Vietnam War in decades In some of the most frank vivid prose to come out of the war author Nicholas Warr describes with urgency and outrage the Marines savage house to house fighting ordered without air naval or artillery support by officers with no experience in this type of deadly combat Sparing few in the telling including himself Warr's shocking firsthand narrative of these desperate suicide charges which devastated whole companies takes the wraps off an incident that many would prefer to keep hidden His account is sure to ignite heated debate among historians and military professionals Despite senseless rules of engagement and unspeakable carnage there were unforgettable acts of courage and self sacrifice performed by ordinary men asked to accomplish the impossible and Warr is at his best relating these stories For example there s the grenade throwing mortarman who in a rage wipes out two machine gun emplacements that had pinned down an entire company for days and the fortunate grunt with thick glasses who stumbles blindly without receiving a scratch across a street littered with the dead and dying who hadn t made it In describing the most vicious urban combat since World War II this account offers an unparalleled view of how a small unit commander copes with the conflicting demands and responsibilities thrust upon him by the enemy his men and the chain of command Defend and Befriend John Southard, 2014-07-11 Defend and Befriend is the first comprehensive study of Americans assigned to Combined Action Platoons in Vietnam Tracing the development as well as the implementation of the program author John Southard intertwines the experiences of enlisted Marines and corpsmen with an examination of the colonels and generals in charge Infantry Mobile Strike Forces in Vietnam 1966-70 Gordon L. .1996 African Armed Forces Journal ,1996 Rottman, 2013-07-20 US Special Forces in Vietnam created the Civilian Irregular Defence Group CIDG a large paramilitary organization designed to protect the local population from Viet Cong incursions whilst conducting border surveillance raids and combat patrols in the local area Their camps were often overrun and having no spare manpower the US Special Forces created dedicated reaction units which could act in a responsive and flexible manner Mobile Strike MIKE Forces This book examines the MIKE Force units which were formed from the CIDG the parachute and airmobile training they were given and the operations that they undertook from relieving friendly camps to independent offensive operations providing the first organizational history of the MIKE forces in combat Special Forces at War Shelby L.
