Financial World, 1912 Light on the Path Mark S. Morrisson, 2025-12-02 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the US and UK experienced an occult revival a flourishing occulture that signalled the increasing presence of the occult in the popular imagination This period also witnessed another major cultural development a rapid expansion of print culture that offered a dizzying array of new magazines pulp fiction cheap single volume and paperback novels and emerging forms of genre fiction all designed to meet and create the demands of a growing fiction readership In Light on the Path Mark S Morrisson explores the surprising interdependence of these two phenomena As supernatural fiction moved in increasingly occult directions modern occultism itself became so entangled with popular fiction that it can almost be seen as a literary phenomenon Morrisson recounts the strategic efforts by modern occultists including Mabel Collins Aleister Crowley Dion Fortune Kenneth Morris and Talbot Mundy to use popular fiction to wrest esotericism away from its traditional modes of secrecy and make esoteric experiences of self transformation widely accessible Through experiments to forge a new esoteric fiction genre from already existing genres these occultists intended their novels to open gates for readers to offer an occult gnosis through the simple act of reading a novel In so doing they transformed genre fiction into a tool with which to launch new religious movements that persist today

The Idea of the Labyrinth from Classical Antiquity through the Middle Ages Penelope Reed Doob, 2019-03-15 Ancient and medieval labyrinths embody paradox according to Penelope Reed Doob Their structure allows a double perspective the baffling fragmented prospect confronting the maze treader within and the comprehensive vision available to those without Mazes simultaneously assert order and chaos artistry and confusion articulated clarity and bewildering complexity perfected pattern and hesitant process In this handsomely illustrated book

Doob reconstructs from a variety of literary and visual sources the idea of the labyrinth from the classical period through the Middle Ages Doob first examines several complementary traditions of the maze topos showing how ancient historical and geographical writings generate metaphors in which the labyrinth signifies admirable complexity while poetic texts tend to suggest that the labyrinth is a sign of moral duplicity She then describes two common models of the labyrinth and explores their formal implications the unicursal model with no false turnings found almost universally in the visual arts and the multicursal model with blind alleys and dead ends characteristic of literary texts This paradigmatic clash between the labyrinths of art and of literature becomes a key to the metaphorical potential of the maze as Doob's examination of a vast array of materials from the classical period through the Middle Ages suggests She concludes with linked readings of four labyrinths of words Virgil's Aeneid Boethius Consolation of Philosophy Dante's Divine Comedy and Chaucer's House of Fame each of which plays with and transforms received ideas of the labyrinth as well as reflecting and responding to aspects of the texts that influenced it Doob not only provides fresh theoretical and historical perspectives on the labyrinth tradition but also portrays a complex medieval aesthetic that helps us to approach structurally elaborate early works Readers in such fields as Classical literature Medieval Studies Renaissance Studies comparative literature literary theory art history and intellectual history will welcome this wide ranging and illuminating book

The Path of Dreams Leigh Gordon Giltner, 1900
 Tho storm and summer shine for long have shed Or blight or bloom above thy quiet bed Tho loneliness and longing cry thee dead Thou art not dead beloved Still with me
 Are whilom hopings that encompass thee And dreams of dear delights that may not be Asleep adream perchance dost thou forget The sometime sorrow and the fevered fret Sting of salt tears and long unbreathed regret Liest thou here thro long sunshiny hours Holding sweet converse with the springing flowers Harking the singing of the warm sweet showers
 That fall like happy tears dost hear
 The birds that unafraid assail thine ear
 And yet art silent when I whisper Dear Dost thou not hear Lying so low beneath the bending grass In long still smiling tranced for aye alas Thou dost not harken when my footsteps pass If haply I some tender thing should tell Thee of the springtime flowers thou once loved well Anemone and shining asphodel Should steal from Nature some enchanted lay Some bird song lilted where green branches sway Heart music that could stir thy heart alway Should call thee by the old fond name again Should tell thee all a heart's enduring pain And long rememb ring would st thou mute remain Alas nor sigh nor song can thrill the ear Tuned to Israfel's music in the sphere Where things to thee erst dear no more are dear Thou dost not hear
