intersections and tensions between theatre and protest Exploring the cross fertilization of international theatre and protest across the 12th and 21st centuries Lara Shalson illuminates how and why these two are mutually influencing and enriching forms

The Death of the Playwright? Adrian Page,1992-02-24 The nine essays in this volume make significant contributions to the development of contemporary literary theory and demonstrate how a range of new approaches can be applied to modern British drama In addressing the questions of power subjectivity sexuality psychoanalysis and the nature of the dramatic text the contributors reveal how much modern drama can be re read to discover its radically subversive characteristics Their conclusions challenge accepted interpretations and suggest major revisions of the processes of understanding and staging drama

'Other' Spanish Theatres Maria M. Delgado,2003-11-08 Other Spanish Theatres challenges established opinions on modern Iberian theatre through a consideration of the roles of contrasting figures and companies who have impacted upon both the practice and the perception of Spanish and European stages In this broad and detailed study Delgado selects six subjects which map out alternative readings of a nation s theatrical innovation through the last century These six subjects include Margarita Xirgu Enrique Rambal Mar a Casarest and Nuria Espert

Asian City Crossings Rossella Ferrari,Ashley Thorpe,2021-05-17 Asian City Crossings is the first volume to examine the relationship between the city and performance from an Asian perspective This collection introduces city as method as a new conceptual framework for the investigation of practices of city based performing arts collaboration and city to city performance networks across East and Southeast Asia and beyond The shared and yet divergent histories of the global cities of Hong Kong and Singapore as postcolonial multiethnic multicultural and multilingual sites are taken as points of departure to demonstrate how city as method facilitates a comparative analytical space that foregrounds in betweenness and fluid positionalities. It situates inter Asian relationality and inter city referencing as centrally significant dynamics in the exploration of the material and ideological conditions of contemporary performance and performance exchange in Asia. This study captures creative dialogue that travels city based pathways along the Hong Kong Singapore route as well as between Hong Kong and Singapore and other cities through scholarly analyses and practitioner reflections drawn from the fields of theatre performance and music. This book combines essays by scholars of Asian studies theatre studies ethnomusicology and human geography with reflective accounts by Hong Kong and Singapore based performing arts practitioners to highlight the diversity vibrancy and complexity of creative projects that destabilise notions of identity belonging and nationhood through strategies of collaborative conviviality and transnational mobility across multi sited networks of cities in Asia. In doing so this volume fills a considerable gap in global scholarly discourse on performance and the city and on the production and circulation of the performing arts in Asia.

The Playful Revolution Eugène Van Erven, 1992. The Playful Revolution is an entertaining journal exemplary of the playful spirit of the book. The Playful Revolution breaks new ground by documenting developmental theatre in Asia in its current socio political and economic ethos. New Theatre Quarterly. This book is the account of a personal journey through Asia a written documentary of a quest to find political theatre that really works and that possesses a vitality and passion that the contemporary Western theatre seems to have lost from the book. In this groundbreaking book van Erven reports on the liberation theatre movements throughout Asia which include a diverse collection of creative artists whose politics range from liberal to revolutionary but who all share a common goal of using grass roots theatre as an agent of liberation.

Actors and Activists David Schlossman, 2017-09-25. This scholarly work looks at the issue of politics and performance in America today with particular attention paid to performances produced by activists the NEA Four and Miss Saigon.

Toward a Theater of the Oppressed Javed Malick, 1995. Assesses the dramaturgy and political significance of one of our most radical contemporary playwrights.

Diverse Pursuits Javed Malick, 2021-07-07. The five essays in this book reflect many years of the author's sustained academic engagement with dramatic forms and traditions. The opening essay traces the historical trajectory of modern drama in Europe from its bourgeois period through the period of the liberal dissent to the more recent periods of radical alternative. The subsequent essays deal with certain specific examples of that drama in India and the West such as Shakespeare adaptations on the Parsi theatre stage Habib Tanvir and Samuel Beckett. The author places each of these in a historical perspective. This approach constitutes the theoretical underpinning of the book giving cohesion to this collection of diverse essays. Although they were individually published in various journals and books in their earlier versions they have been substantially revived and updated by the author for this volume. This book is co published with Aakar Books. New Delhi. Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the print versions of this book in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan.
