Ratings Rating Agencies And The Global Financial System:

Ratings, Rating Agencies and the Global Financial System Richard M. Levich, Giovanni Majnoni, Carmen Reinhart, 2012-12-06 Ratings Rating Agencies and the Global Financial System brings together the research of economists at New York University and the University of Maryland along with those from the private sector government bodies and other universities The first section of the volume focuses on the historical origins of the credit rating business and its present day industrial organization structure The second section presents several empirical studies crafted largely around individual firm level or bank level data These studies examine a the relationship between ratings and the default and recovery experience of corporate borrowers b the comparability of credit ratings made by domestic and foreign rating agencies and c the usefulness of financial market indicators for rating banks among other topics In the third section the record of sovereign credit ratings in predicting financial crises and the reaction of financial markets to changes in credit ratings is examined The final section of the volume emphasizes policy issues now facing regulators and credit rating agencies The role of credit rating agencies in the global financial system and the associated problems Jan Pohlmann, 2019-08-06 Seminar paper from the year 2019 in the subject Business economics Investment and Finance language English abstract The objective of this seminar paper is to illuminate the work and role of credit rating agencies in the global financial system and to explain and understand the general criticism directed at them In addition their special part in the subprime crisis of 2008 will be analysed and an estimation will be made of how much responsibility they bear in the crisis The Rating Agencies and Their Credit Ratings Herwig Langohr, Patricia Langohr, 2010-04-01 Credit rating agencies play a critical role in capital markets guiding the asset allocation of institutional investors as private capital moves freely around the world in search of the best trade off between risk and return However they have also been strongly criticised for failing to spot the Asian crisis in the early 1990s the Enron WorldCom and Parmalat collapses in the early 2000s and finally for their ratings of subprime related structured finance instruments and their role in the current financial crisis This book is a guide to ratings the ratings industry and the mechanics and economics of obtaining a rating It sheds light on the role that the agencies play in the international financial markets It avoids the sensationalist approach often associated with studies of rating scandals and the financial crisis and instead provides an objective and critical analysis of the business of ratings The book will be of practical use to any individual who has to deal with ratings and the ratings industry in their day to day job Reviews Rating agencies fulfil an important role in the capital markets but given their power they are frequently the object of criticism Some of it is justified but most of it portrays a lack of understanding of their business In their book The Rating Agencies and their Credit Ratings Herwig and Patricia Langohr provide an excellent economic background to the role of rating agencies and also a thorough understanding of their business and the problems they face I recommend this book to all those who have an interest in this somewhat arcane but extremely important area Robin Monro Davies Former CEO Fitch Ratings At a time of unprecedented public and political scrutiny of the effectiveness and indeed the basic business model of the Credit Rating industry and heightened concerns regarding the transparency and accountability of the leading agencies this book provides a commendably comprehensive overview and should provide invaluable assistance in the ongoing debate Rupert Atkinson Managing Director Head of Credit Advisory Group Morgan Stanley and member of the SIFMA Rating Agency Task Force The Langohrs have provided useful information in a field where one frequently finds only opinions or misconceptions They supply a firm base from which to understand changes now underway A well read copy of this monograph should be close to the desk of every investor issuer and financial regulator legislator or commentator John Grout Policy and Technical Director The Association of Corporate Treasurers

Regulation and the Credit Rating Agencies Daniel Cash,2018-08-06 This book examines the transgressions of the credit rating agencies before during and after the recent financial crisis It proposes that by restricting the agencies ability to offer ancillary services there stands the opportunity to limit in an achievable and practical manner the potentially negative effect that the Big Three rating agencies Standard Poor s Moody s and Fitch may have upon the financial sector and society moreover The book contains an extensive and in depth discussion about how the agencies ascended to their current position why they were able to do so and ultimately their behaviour once their position was cemented This work offers a new framework for the reader to follow suggesting that investors issuers and the state have a desired version of the agencies in their thinking and operate upon that basis when in fact those imagined agencies do not exist as demonstrated by the actual conduct of the agencies The book primarily aims to uncover this divergence and reveal the real credit rating agencies and then on that basis propose a real and potentially achievable reform to limit the negative effects that result from poor performance in this Industry It addresses the topics with regard to financial regulation and the financial crisis and will be of interest to legal scholars interested in the intersection between business and he law as well as researchers academics policymakers industry and professional associations and students in the fields of corporate law banking and finance law financial regulation corporate governance and corporate finance
