Regional Agencies And Area Based Regeneration:

Developing Australia's Regions Andrew Beer, Alaric Maude, William Pritchard, 2003-05-01 Delves behind the too often negative media headlines and stereotypes about regional Australia and considers the true state of Australia's regions including metropolitan regions and what can be done to improve their economic social and environmental well being

Regional Agencies and Area-based Regeneration Brian Robson, Jamie Peck, Adam Holden, 2000 Regional Development Agencies RDAs were established in April 1999 as non departmental public bodies Their remit is to promote the economic well being of the English regions and to further the goals of sustainable development and social inclusion This report explores the interface between the regional agenda for RDAs and the local delivery of area based regeneration The study is based on interviews with those involved in RDAs at senior board and executive levels and provides analysis of the regional strategies of the eight existing RDAs Regional agencies and area based regeneration looks at new forms of governance developed alongside the implementation of the RDAs communication and consultation with regional stakeholders the development and implementation of regional strategies the role of RDAs in managing local regeneration the complexities contradictions and positive possibilities that devolution provides for regional development vbTab vbTab Regional agencies and area based regeneration is essential reading for policy makers and those working in RDAs urban regeneration partnerships communities involved in urban regeneration and national and local government as well as anyone with an interest in area regeneration strategies and practice

Cities and Regions in Crisis Martin Jones, 2019 This book offers a new geographical political economy approach to our understanding of regional and local economic development in Western Europe over the last twenty years It suggests that governance failure is occurring at a variety of spatial scales and an impedimenta state is emerging This is derived from the state responding to state intervention and economic development that has become irrational ambivalent and disoriented The book blends theoretical approaches to crisis and contradiction theory with empirical examples from cities and regions

The Futures of the City Region Michael Neuman, Angela Hull, 2013-09-13 Does the city region constitute a new departure in urbanisation If so what are the key elements of that departure The realities of the urban in the 21st century are increasingly complex and polychromatic The rise of global networks enabled by supranational administrations both governmental and corporate strongly influences and structures the management of urban life How we conceive the city region has intellectual and practical consequences First in helping us grasp rapidly changing realities and second in facilitating the flow of resources ideas and learning to enhance the quality of life of citizens Two themes interweave through this collection within this broad palette First are the socio spatial constructs and their relationship to the empirical evidence of change in the physical and functional aspects of urban form Second is what they mean for the spatial scales of governance This latter theme explores territorially based understandings of intervention and the changing set of political concerns in selected case studies In efforts to address these issues and improve upon knowledge this collection brings together international scholars building new data driven cross disciplinary theories to create new images of the city region that may prove to supplement if not supplant old ones The book illustrates the dialectical interplay of theory and fact time and space and spatial and institutional which expands on our intellectual grasp of the theoretical debates on city regions through practical knowing citing examples from Europe the United States Australasia and beyond This book was originally published as a Special Issue of Regional Studies The New Governance of the English Regions M. Sandford,2005-11-22 English regions appeared to have been killed off by the massive no vote in the referendum in the North East on 4 November 2004 By contrast this book analyzes the many institutions and networks established at the English regional tier since 1997 It argues that a new form of governance is developing in the English regions characterized by processes rather than specific policy concerns strategic co ordination scrutiny and civic engagement Developing Locally , Regional Development Agencies and Business Change Gill Bentley,John Gibney,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 Providing an introduction to contemporary regional economic development issues this book analyzes whether the Regional Development Agencies ROAs have the organizational capacities to cope with complex business and economic development challenges Regional Development Agencies and the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Bill: Oral and written evidence Great Britain.
