Pettway,2019-12-30 Juan Francisco Manzano and Gabriel de la Concepción Valdés Plácido were perhaps the most important and innovative Cuban writers of African descent during the Spanish colonial era Both nineteenth century authors used Catholicism as a symbolic language for African inspired spirituality Likewise Plácido and Manzano subverted the popular imagery of neoclassicism and Romanticism in order to envision black freedom in the tradition of the Haitian Revolution Plácido and Manzano envisioned emancipation through the lens of African spirituality a transformative moment in the history of

Cuban letters Matthew Pettway examines how the portrayal of African ideas of spirit and cosmos in otherwise conventional texts recur throughout early Cuban literature and became the basis for Manzano and Plcido's antislavery philosophy The portrayal of African Atlantic religious ideas spurned the elite rationale that literature ought to be a barometer of highbrow cultural progress Cuban debates about freedom and selfhood were never the exclusive domain of the white Creole elite Pettway's emphasis on African inspired spirituality as a source of knowledge and a means to sacred authority for black Cuban writers deepens our understanding of Manzano and Plcido not as mere imitators but as aesthetic and political pioneers As Pettway suggests black Latin American authors did not abandon their African religious heritage to assimilate wholesale to the Catholic Church By recognizing the wisdom of African ancestors they procured power in the struggle for black liberation

Fixing France Nabila Ramdani, 2023-10-05 France the romanticised revolutionary land of Liberty Equality and Fraternity for all is failing Reform is urgently needed This book is a powerful indictment of the status quo and a highly original perspective on the challenges to which the nation must rise Nabila Ramdani is not from the establishment elite she is a marginalised insider born and raised in a neglected Paris suburb With unflinching clarity she probes the fault lines of her struggling country exposing the Fifth Republic as an archaic system which emerged from Algeria's cataclysmic War of Independence Today a monarchical President Macron shows little interest in democracy while a far right party founded by Nazi collaborators threatens to replace him Segregation institutionalised rioting economic injustice the debasement of women a monolithic education system deep seated racial and religious discrimination paramilitary policing terrorism and extremism and a duplicitous foreign policy all fuel the growing crisis Yet Ramdani offers real hope the broken French Republic can and must be fixed

The Politics of Urban Potentiality

Stavros Stavrides,2024-05-30

This volume examines how urban potentiality emerges in performances that reclaim the city acting as an emancipatory force when dominant patterns of urban behaviour are thrown into crisis It can result in establishing new habits of inhabiting city space collective experiences shaping practices of urban commoning re inventing community relations and freeing collaboration from capitalist expropriation Instead of problematizing such radical change through the modernist belief in heroic unique acts we need to explore the power dissident performances acquire when repeated In search of an emancipatory politics of urban potentiality commoning thus has the ability become a collective ethos based on mutuality and equality rather than merely a relatively fair way of sharing urban infrastructures In this book the leading social and urban theorist Stavros Stavrides draws on a wide range of classic and historical thought on the urban question and social transformation Drawing from research in Latin American urban movements from activist participation in urban struggles in Greece and citizen initiatives developed in Europe this book expands the discussion on the potentialities of urban commoning to demonstrate how an emancipatory urban future may be achieved
