Reinventing Reality:

Reality Is Broken Jane McGonigal, 2011-01-20 McGonigal is a clear methodical writer and her ideas are well argued. Assertions are backed by countless psychological studies. The Boston Globe Powerful and provocative McGonigal makes a persuasive case that games have a lot to teach us about how to make our lives and the world better. San Jose Mercury News Jane McGonigal's insights have the elegant compact deadly simplicity of plutonium and the same explosive force. Cory Doctorow author of Little Brother A visionary game designer reveals how we can harness the power of games to boost global happiness. With 174 million gamers in the United States alone we now live in a world where every generation will be a gamer generation. But why Jane McGonigal asks should games be used for escapist entertainment alone. In this groundbreaking book she shows how we can leverage the power of games to fix what is wrong with the real world from social problems like depression and obesity to global issues like poverty and climate change and introduces us to cutting edge games that are already changing the business education and nonprofit worlds. Written for gamers and non gamers alike Reality Is Broken shows that the future will belong to those who can understand design and play games. Jane McGonigal is also the author of SuperBetter A Revolutionary Approach to Getting Stronger Happier Braver and More Resilient. Mamoulia David Lührssen, 2013-01-25 An Armenian national raised in Russia Rouben Mamoulia 1897-1987 studied in the influential Stanislavski studio renowned as the source of the method acting technique. Shortly after immigrating to New York in 1926 he created a sensation with an all black production of Porgy 1927. He then went on to direct the debut Broadway productions of three of the most popular shows in the history of American musical theater Porgy and Bess 1935 Oklahoma 1943 and Carousel 1945. Mamoulia began working in film just as the sound revolution was dramatically changing the technical capabilities of the medium and he quickly established himself as an innovator. Not only did many of his unusual camera techniques become standard but he also invented a device that eliminated the background noises created by cameras and dollies. Seen as a rebel earlier in his career Mamoulia gradually gained respect in Hollywood and the Directors Guild of America awarded him the prestigious D W Griffith Award for Lifetime Achievement in 1983. In this meticulously researched biography David Lührssen paints the influential director as a socially conscious artist who sought to successfully combine art and commercial entertainment. Lührssen not only reveals the fascinating personal story of an important yet neglected figure but he also offers a tantalizing glimpse into the extraordinarily vibrant American film and theater industries during the twenties thirties and forties. Love Me Tonight Geoffrey Holden Block, Distinguished Professor of Music History and Humanities Emeritus Geoffrey Block, 2024 In this Oxford Guide to Film Musicals renowned author Geoffrey Block introduces scholars students and general readers to the remarkable musical film Love Me Tonight 1932 from an accessible musicological perspective giving readers of all stripes new ways to hear this classic film. Reinventing Paulo Freire Antonia Darder, 2017-06-14 One of the most influential critical educators of the twentieth century Paulo Freire challenged those educational inequalities and conditions of injustice faced by oppressed populations In this new edition of Reinventing Paulo Freire Antonia Darder re examines his legacy through reflections on Freirean pedagogy and the narratives of teachers who reinvent his work The fully revised first part provides important historical political and economic connections between major societal concerns and educational questions raised by Freire and their link to the contemporary moment including questions tied to neoliberalism coloniality and educational inequalities At the heart of the book is a critical understanding of how Freire s pedagogy of love can inform in theory and practice a humanizing approach to teaching and learning Powerful teacher narratives offer examples of a living praxis committed to democratic classroom life and the emancipation of subaltern communities The narratives clearly illustrate how Freire s ideas can be put concretely into practice in schools and communities These reflections on Freirean praxis are sure to spark conversation and inspiration in teacher education courses Through a close theoretical engagement of Freire s ideas and key insights garnered from lived experiences the book speaks to the ways Freire can still inspire contemporary educators to adopt the spirit of liberatory pedagogy By so doing Reinventing Paulo Freire is certain to advance his theories in new ways both to those familiar with his work and to those studying Freire for the first time

Defining Cinema Michael Slowik, 2024 Defining Cinema Rouben Mamoulian and Hollywood Film Style 1929-1957 takes a holistic look at Mamoulian s oeuvre by examining both his stage and his screen work and also brings together insights from his correspondence his theories on film and analysis of the films themselves It presents a filmmaker whose work was innovative and exciting who pushed hard on cinema s potential as an artform and who in many ways helped move cinema towards the kind of entertainment that it remains today

Forever Pursuing Genesis Leonard Mustazza, 1990 The title of this book Forever Pursuing Genesis derives from a statement that Vonnegut once made about the nature of the universe and humankind s place in it This study applies that statement to the narrative themes that Vonnegut has treated in his career

Horace and the Dialectic of Freedom Walter Ralph Johnson, 1993 Johnson classics and comparative studies U of Chicago offers a new interpretation of Horace s Epistles and the light they shed on the Roman poet of the first century B C The letters he says illuminate Horace s search for freedom his attitude toward nature and culture and his relationship with his father and with the city of Rome Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

For Pleasure Rachel Jane Carroll,2023-12-12 For Pleasure argues that aesthetic pleasure and formal experimentalism hold the twinned capacity to maintain a global racial order and also to undo it Federman's Fictions Jeffrey R. Di Leo,2012-01-02 This collection of essays offers an authoritative examination and appraisal of the French American novelist Raymond Federman s many contributions to humanities scholarship including Holocaust studies Beckett studies translation studies experimental fiction postmodernism and autobiography Although known primarily as a novelist Federman 1928 2009 is also the author of numerous books of poetry essays translations and criticism After emigrating to the United States in 1942 and receiving a Ph D in comparative literature at UCLA in 1957 he held professorships in the University at Buffalo s departments of French and English from 1964 to 1999 Together with Steve Katz and Ronald Sukenick he was one of the original founders of the Fiction Collective a nonprofit publishing house dedicated to avant garde experimental prose Far too many accounts treat Federman as merely a member of a small group of writers who pioneered metafictional or postmodern American literature Federman s Fiction will introduce or for some reintroduce to the broader scholarly community a creative and daring thinker whose work is significant not just to considerations of the development of innovative fiction but to a number of other distinct disciplines and emerging critical discourses

Teaching in the Anthropocene Alysha J. Farrell,Candy Skyhar,Michelle Lam,2022-07-29 This new critical volume presents various perspectives on teaching and teacher education in the face of the global climate crisis environmental degradation and social injustice Teaching in the Anthropocene calls for a reorientation of the aims of teaching so that we might imagine multiple futures in which children youths and families can thrive amid a myriad of challenges related to the earth s decreasing habitability Referring to the uncertainty of the time in which we live and teach the term Anthropocene is used to acknowledge anthropogenic contributions to the climate crisis and to consider and reflect on the emotional responses to adverse climate events The text begins with the editors discussion of this contested term and then moves on to make the case that we must decentre anthropocentric models in teacher education praxis The four thematic parts include chapters on the challenges to teacher education practice and praxis affective dimensions of teaching in the face of the global crisis relational pedagogies in the Anthropocene and ways to ignite the empathic imaginations of tomorrow s teachers Together the authors discuss new theoretical eco orientations and describe innovative pedagogies that create opportunities for students and teachers to live in greater harmony with the more than human world This incredibly timely volume will be essential to pre and in service teachers and teacher educators FEATURES Offers critical reflections on anthropocentrism from multiple perspectives in education including continuing education educational organization K 12 post secondary and more Includes accounts that not only deconstruct the disavowal of the climate crisis in schools but also articulate an ecosophical approach to education Features discussion prompts in each chapter to enhance student engagement with the material      Narrative Innovation and Cultural Rewriting in the Cold War Era and After M. Cornis-Pope, 2016-04-30 Narrative Innovation and Cultural Rewriting undertakes a systematic study of postmodernism's responses to the polarized ideologies of the postwar period that have held cultures hostage to a confrontation between rival ideologies abroad and a clash between champions of uniformity and disruptive others at home Considering a broad range of narrative projects and approaches from polysystemic fiction to surfiction postmodern feminism and multicultural postcolonial fiction this book highlights their solutions to ontological division real vs imaginary worldly and other worldly sociocultural oppositions of race class gender and narratological dualities imitation vs invention realism vs formalism A thorough rereading of the best experimental work published in the US since the mid 1960s reveals the fact that innovative fiction has been from the beginning concerned with redefining the relationship between history and fiction narrative and cultural articulation Stepping back from traditional polarizations innovative novelists have tried to envision an alternative history of irreducible particularities excluded middles and creative intercrossings      Encyclopedia of U.S. Labor and Working-class History Eric Arnesen, 2007 Publisher Description      SEE Andrea Pavoni, Danilo Mandic, Caterina Nirta, Andreas Philippopoulos-Mihalopoulos, 2018-02-22 Vision traditionally occupies the height of the sensorial hierarchy The sense of clarity and purity conveyed by vision allows it to be explicitly associated with truth and knowledge The law has always relied on vision and representation from eye witnesses to photography to imagery and emblems The law and its normative gaze can be understood as that which decrees what is permitted to be and become visible and what is not Indeed even if law's perspectival view is bound to be betrayed by the realities of perception it is nonetheless productive of real effects on the world This first title in the interdisciplinary series Law and the Senses asks how we can develop new theoretical approaches to law and seeing that go beyond a simple critique of the legal pretension to truth This volume aims to understand how law might see and unsee and how in its turn is seen and unseen It explores devices and practices of visibility the evolution of iconology and iconography and the relation between the gaze of the law and the blindness of justice The contributions all radically interdisciplinary are drawn from photography legal theory philosophy and poetry      The Oxford Companion to the American Musical Thomas S. Hirschak, 2008-06-02 From the silver screen to the Great White Way small community theatres to television sets the musical has long held a special place in America's heart and history Now in The Oxford Companion to the American Musical readers who flocked to the movies to see An American in Paris or Chicago lined up for tickets to West Side Story or Rent or crowded around their TVs to watch Cinderella or High School Musical can finally turn to a single book for details about them all For the first time this popular subject has an engaging and authoritative book as thrilling as the performances themselves With more than two thousand entries this illustrated guide offers a wealth of information on musicals performers composers lyricists producers choreographers and much more Biographical entries range from early stars Fred Astaire Bing Crosby Mary Martin and Mae West to contemporary show stoppers Nathan Lane Savion Glover and Kristin Chenoweth while composers Irving Berlin George Gershwin Richard Rodgers and Andrew Lloyd Webber all have articles and the choreography of Bob Fosse Tommy Tune and Debbie Allen receives due examination The plays and films covered range from modern hits like Mamma Mia and Moulin Rouge to timeless classics such as Yankee Doodle Dandy and Show Boat Also numerous musicals written specifically for television appear throughout and many entries follow a work Babes in Toyland for example as it moves across genres from stage to film to television The Companion also includes cross references a comprehensive listing of recommended recordings and further reading a useful chronology of all the musicals described in the book plus a complete index of Tony Award and Academy Award winners Whether you are curious about Singin in the Rain or Spamalot or simply adore The Wizard of Oz or Grease this well researched and entertaining resource is the first place to turn for reliable information on virtually every aspect of the American musical

Hollywood's Cold War Tony Shaw, 2007 Published at a time when American filmmakers are deeply involved in the War on Terror this authoritative and timely book offers the first comprehensive account of Hollywood's propaganda role during the defining ideological conflict of the 20th century the Cold War

Nineteenth-Century British Travelers in the New World Professor Christine DeVine, 2013-02-28 With cheaper publishing costs and the explosion of periodical publishing the influence of New World travel narratives was greater during the nineteenth century than ever before as they offered an understanding not only of America through British eyes but also a lens through which nineteenth century Britain could view itself Despite the differences in purpose and method the writers and artists discussed in Nineteenth Century British Travelers in the New World from Fanny Wright arriving in America in 1818 to the return of Henry James in 1904 and including Charles Dickens Frances Trollope Isabella Bird Fanny Kemble Harriet Martineau and Robert Louis Stevenson among others as well as artists such as Eyre Crowe all contributed to the continued building of America as a construct for audiences at home These travelers stories and images thus presented an idea of America over which Britons could crow about their own supposed sophistication and a democratic model through which to posit their own future all of which suggests the importance of transatlantic travel writing and the idea of America to nineteenth century Britain

Caribbean Genesis Jana Evans Braziel, 2009-01-05 By exploring the breadth of Jamaica Kincaid's writings this book reveals her work's transmutations of genre specifically those of autobiography biography and history in relation to the forces of creation and destruction in the Caribbean Jana Evans Braziel examines Kincaid's preoccupation with genealogy genesis and genocide in the Caribbean her adaptations of biblical texts for her literary oeuvre and her authorial deployments of the diabolic as frames for both rethinking the boundaries of genre and altering notions of subjectivity objectivity self and other
