Reinventing Evangelism:

Reinventing Evangelism : New Strategies for Presenting Christ in Today's World Donald C. Posterski, 1989      The Study of Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote, Lacey C. Warner, 2008-02-13 Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission. Many of the resulting books in the marketplace, however, have a hands-on orientation often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection. Bucking that trend, The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice. Helpfully organized into six categories, these broad, diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism.      Evangelism Without Additives Jim Henderson, 2009-01-20 What if evangelism meant just being yourself? If the gospel really is good news, why do most Christians avoid evangelism? Why is witnessing often a negative experience for both the sender and receiver? Wouldn't it be great if you could communicate the good news without having to become a spiritual salesperson? What if you didn't have to make a speech in order to witness? You could use everyday experiences to nudge others closer to Jesus, the things you're already doing counted as evangelism. Evangelism can be as normal as asking great questions and paying attention to the people Jesus misses most. It involves doing things you already do but with a little more intentionality. Just by being yourself and becoming unusually interested in others, you can discover that people will ask you about Jesus. This isn't another program or pitch. It's a handbook on how to make real connections with the people formerly known as lost. Think of it as evangelism for the rest of us.

Liberating Evangelism Stephen K. Pickard, 1999-06-01 Has the church abdicated its responsibility for and privilege of spreading the gospel? Has this baptismal birthright been forgotten or denied out of ignorance, poor example, or even misinformation? Stephen Pickard argues that the church is called to be a community of the evangel and thus a community that seeks to embody the glad tidings of God in all of its life. He addresses two issues: the relationship of evangelism to systematic theology and the relationship of evangelism to the church. In the case of the former, he calls for a recovery of the complementary nature of theology and evangelism; the theory and practice of the gospel, discussing what this might involve and how it may benefit the church's evangelistic task. This evangelistic task is then developed further in terms of the dynamics of communication. Regarding evangelism and its relation to the church, Pickard contends that the locus for evangelism has to be the Christian community, its life of worship and discipleship in the world. But the church must be reconceived missiologically in terms of the Great Commission and as a community for the praise of God.      Understanding Evangelism J. D. Payne, 2025-09-30 When seeking to understand evangelism, it can be difficult to know where to begin due to the wealth of written material available on the topic. This one-stop textbook offers a comprehensive introduction to evangelism from an evangelical perspective. It draws from the diverse and vast literature on the topic to help readers share the gospel at home and throughout the world. Understanding Evangelism emerges from the author's experiences as a pastor.

LADC, 2022-10-12 Research has shown there is a great divide between the church and the unaffiliated to include those who tend toward atheism This concern inspired the author to step away from full time ministry to work as a counselor in a state owned and operated residential facility to better understand the thought processes of those who are not invested in Christianity He became aware of an us versus them mindset held by some Christians this attitude has resulted in Christians drawing a tight circle around themselves that has created a barrier for reaching those not affiliated with the church There are several consequences First it has resulted in a deep decline in baptisms and church affiliation for churches less than 50 percent of Americans surveyed are members of a church Second it has resulted in Christians believing there is no hope for those outside the church Third the gospel presentation utilized by many is to continually make jabs at the unaffiliated bordering on a scare tactic Too many churches have attempted to use revival era styles of evangelism contemporary approaches and or a social perspective however the chasm has widened This book takes an in depth look at the philosophical systems that keep people from embracing Christianity The author also provides a theological model for helping others understand a theological base for the Christian worldview The greatest contribution of the book is the way it offers hope for reaching the unaffiliated and provides practical ways of connecting with those outside the church Trinity - Examined CDR, 2015-09-22 God is one not three Deut 6 4 Hear O Israel the Lord our GOD IS ONE LORD 1 Cor 8 6 There is but ONE GOD THE FATHER of whom all things and we in him James 2 19 1 Tim 2 5 There is ONE GOD And one MEDIATOR between God and man the MAN JESUS CHRIST Even the devils believe and tremble that there is only one God John 17 3 says And this is life eternal that they might know thee THE ONLY TRUE GOD and Jesus Christ whom THOU HAST SENT Eph 4 6 ONE GOD and father of all Isaiah 43 10 Before me there was NO GOD formed neither shall there be after me This Trinity is an established matter by Roman Emperor Constantine with the meeting known as Council of Nicaea with all bishops in 325 AD We cannot open it again This is the opinion of many After all we are not under the kings and emperors now We are in democracy Nobody can dictate us Constantine was not a Christian at the time of taking that decision and it was only later he became a Christian He was afraid that his Roman kingdom will break down into two with the fight among bishops about this Trinity and so he held the Nicene Council with all the Bishops simply took the majority and then declared Trinity We need biblical support for anything not the human dictation Congregational Megatrends Charles Jeffrey Woods, 1996-01-01 This ebook is now available from Bloomsbury Academic Bloomsbury Academic publish acclaimed resources for undergraduate and postgraduate courses as well as the general reader across a broad range of subjects including Archaeology Art Visual Culture Biblical Studies Business Management Drama Performance Studies Economics Education Film Media History Linguistics Literary Studies Music Sound Studies Philosophy Politics International
