 this handbook focuses on the impact of patients religion snd spirituality It presents the identity empowerment theory a clinical sociological theory and includes case studies and intervention strategies Religion, Identity and Change Simon Coleman,Peter Collins,2017-03-02 Religion is of enduring importance in the lives of many people yet the religious landscape has been dramatically transformed in recent decades Established churches have been challenged by eastern faiths revivals of Christian and Islamic fundamentalism and the eclectic spiritualities of the New Age Religion has long been regarded by social scientists and psychologists as a key source of identity formation ranging from personal conversion experiences to collective association with fellow believers This book addresses the need for a reassessment of issues relating to identity in the light of current transformations in society as a whole and religion in particular Drawing together case studies from many different expressions of faith and belief Hindu Muslim Roman Catholic Anglican New Age leading scholars ask how contemporary religions or spiritualities respond to the challenge of forming individual and collective identities in a nation context marked by secularisation and postmodern decentring of culture as well as religious revitalisation The book focuses on Britain as a context for religious change but asks important questions that are of universal significance for those studying religion How is personal and collective identity constructed in a world of multiple social and cultural influences What role can religion play in creating reinforcing or even transforming such identity Faith, Identity, Cohesion: Building A Better Future Jolene Gerard,Amanda Huan,2020-07-27 The book aims to promote greater understanding of social cohesion amidst existing complexities of faith and identity and what this portends for our future The emphasis is on the importance of engagement across beliefs and cultures the different generations and segments of population and the diverse interests of people in a digital and interconnected world The policy officials religious leaders scholars and society at large will be able to better appreciate the search for common ground and harmony thereby strengthening their endeavours for coexistence The book seeks to continue the conversations and deliberations at the International Conference on Cohesive Societies ICCS held from 19 to 21 June 2019 in Singapore The three themes of the ICCS Faith Identity Cohesion stimulated significant discussions on the need for mutual respect trust and understanding of each other's beliefs and cultures Many ideas on the ways forward were raised and further discourse is necessary An unprecedented line up of academic civil society government intellectual policy religious and youth leaders provided a wide array of perspectives on challenging issues faced by diverse societies around the world The transcripts of the official speeches elucidate the vision of leadership and aspiration looking ahead The book also features delightful photographs and graphic recordings of the key thrust articulated during the ICCS

Religion, Identity and Politics in Northern Ireland Claire Mitchell, 2006 There has been increased interest in the relationship between religion identity and politics in modern societies Building on this debate Claire Mitchell presents a challenging analysis of religion in contemporary Northern Ireland arguing that religion is not merely a marker of ethnicity and that it continues to provide many of the meanings of identity community and politics Drawing on a range of unique interview material this book traces how individuals and groups in Northern Ireland have absorbed religious types of cultural knowledge belonging and morality

Religion, Identity, and Global Governance Patrick James, 2011-01-01 This volume addresses essential themes in international relations today asking how we can establish when religious identity is a relevant factor in politics when and how religion can be applied to advance positive peace oriented agendas in global governance and how governments can reconsider their foreign and domestic policies

Religion, Identity and Human Security Giorgio Shani, 2014-04-03 Religion Identity and Human Security seeks to demonstrate that a major source of human insecurity comes from the failure of states around the world to recognize the increasing cultural diversity of their populations which has resulted from globalization Shani begins by setting out the theoretical foundations dealing with the transformative effects of globalization on identity violence and security The second part of the volume then draws on different cases of sites of human insecurity around the globe to develop these ideas examining themes such as securitization of religious symbols retreat from multiculturalism rise of exclusivist ethno religious identities post 9 11 state religion colonization and the racialization of migration Highlighting that religion can be a source of both human security and insecurity in a globalizing world Shani offers a critical human security paradigm that seeks to de secularize the individual by recognizing the culturally contested and embedded nature of human identities The work argues that religion serves an important role in re embedding individuals deracinated from their communities by neo liberal globalization and will be of interest to students of International Relations Security Studies and Religion and Politics

Religion, Identity and Conflict in Britain: From the Restoration to the Twentieth Century Frances Knight, 2016-04-08 The British state between the mid seventeenth century to the early twentieth century was essentially a Christian state Christianity permeated society defining the rites of passage baptism first communion marriage and burial that shaped individual lives providing a sense of continuity between past present and future generations and informing social institutions and voluntary associations

Yet this religious conception of state and society was also the source of conflict The Restoration of the monarchy in 1660 brought limited toleration for Protestant Dissenters who felt unable to worship in the established Church and there were challenges to faith raised by biblical and historical scholarship science moral questioning and social dislocations and unrest This book brings together a distinguished team of authors who explore the interactions of religion politics and culture that shaped and defined modern Britain They consider expressions of civic consciousness in the expanding towns and cities the growth of Welsh national identity movements for popular education and temperance reform and the influence of organised sport popular journalism and historical writing in defining national life Most importantly the contributors highlight the vital role of religious faith and religious institutions in the understanding of the modern British state Faith, Identity and

Homicide Shona Robinson-Edwards,2021-10-09 This book explores the role that religion plays in the lives of imprisoned homicide offenders Drawing on interviews in an English prison the author examines how they narrate their life stories and how religion intersects with other categories to rebuild their personal identities after committing a crime and being labelled as murderers or killers This book seeks to bridge the gap between macro and micro phenomena examining religion as both a social institution and a personal experience It also explores the mediating role of institutions with regards to the nature and extent of their influence upon individual choices and actions and provides insights into the nature of the therapeutic prison It seeks to create some clarity of understanding the complex nature of religiosity narrative identity desistance and rehabilitation whilst critically examining elements of social identity that may restrict or enhance this process It provides a series of recommendations for organisations working with convicted homicide offenders offenders and speaks to academics and practitioners in the fields of criminology sociology psychology and religious theological studies Religious Identities and the Global South Felix Wilfred,2021-01-04 This book offers a comprehensive and interdisciplinary account of religious identities in the Global South Drawing on literature in various fields Felix Wilfred analyzes how religious identities intersect with the processes of globalization modernity and postmodernity He illustrates how the study of religion in the Global North often revolves around questions of secularism and fundamentalism whereas a neo Orientalist quality often attends study of religion in the Global South These approaches and theorizing fail to incorporate the experiences of lived religion in the South especially in Asia Historically the religions in the South have played a highly significant role in resistance to the domination by the colonial forces an important reason for the continued attachment of the peoples of the South to their religious universe This book puts the two regions and their scholarly norms in conversation with one another exploring the social political cultural and economic implications Religion and the Individual: Belief, Practice, and Identity Douglas J.

Davies,Michael J. Thate,2018-07-05 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Religion and the Individual Belief Practice and Identity that was published in Religions When God Took Sides Marianne Elliott,2023 This work traces the history of religious identities in Ireland looking at how Irish Protestants and Irish Catholics have regarded each other and how their view of the opposing side has crucially moulded their sense of what their own community stands for right up to the Troubles and beyond

Identity and Migration in Europe: Multidisciplinary Perspectives MariaCaterina La Barbera,2014-11-24 This book addresses the impact of migration on the formation and transformation of identity and its continuous negotiations Its ground is the understanding of identity as a complex social phenomenon resulting from constant negotiations between personal conditions social relationships and institutional frameworks Migrations understood as dynamic processes that do not end when landing in the host country offer the best conditions to analyze the construction and transformation of social identities in the postcolonial and globalized societies Searching for novel epistemologies and methodologies the research questions here addressed are how identity is negotiated in migration processes and how these negotiations work in contemporary multiethnic Europe This edited volume brings to the field a novel convergence of theoretical and empirical approaches by gathering together scholars from different countries of Europe and the Mediterranean area from different disciplines and backgrounds challenging the traditional discipline division
