Garcia,2015-03-10 This book uses evolutionary psychology as a lens to explain religious violence and oppression The author a clinical psychologist examines religious scriptures rituals and canon law highlighting the many ways in which our evolutionary legacy has shaped the development of religion and continues to profoundly influence its expression The book focuses on the image of God as the dominant male in Judaism Christianity and Islam This traditional God concept is seen as a reflection of the dominant ape paradigm so evident in the hierarchical social structures of primates with whom we have a strong genetic connection The author describes the main features of male dominated primate social hierarchies specifically the role of the alpha male as the protector of the group his sexual dominance and use of violence and oppression to attain food females and territory in group altruism vs out group hostility us vs them and displays of dominance and submission to establish roles within the social hierarchy The parallels between these features of primate society and human religious rituals and concepts make it clear that religion especially its oppressive and violent tendencies is rooted in the deep evolutionary past This incisive analysis goes a long way toward explaining the historic and ongoing violence committed in the name of religion Magical Realism in Contemporary Chicano Fiction Roland Walter,1993 The Westminster Review ,1835

The Enigma of Good and Evil: The Moral Sentiment in Literature Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2006-08-27 Striking toward peace and harmony the human being is ceasely torn apart in personal social national life by wars feuds inequities and intimate personal conflicts for which there seems to be no respite Does the human condition in interaction with others imply a constant adversity Or is this conflict owing to an interior or external factor of evil governing our attitudes and conduct toward the other person To what criteria should I refer for appreciation judgment direction concerning my attitudes and my actions as they bear on the well being of others At the roots of these questions lies human experience which ought to be appropriately clarified before entering into speculative abstractions of the ethical theories and precepts Literature which in its very gist dwells upon disentangling in multiple perspective the peripeteia of our life experience offers us a unique field of source material for moral and ethical investigations Literature brings preeminently to light the Moral Sentiment which pervades our life with others our existence tout court Being modulated through the course of our experiences the Moral Sentiment sustains the very sense of literature and of personal human life Tymieniecka Is God Man's Friend? Carole J. Lambert,2006 Original Scholarly Monograph Encyclopedia of Nineteenth-century Thought Gregory Claeys,2005 Covering the period from 1789 to 1914 this work primarily deals with key figures and ideas in social and political thinking but entries also include science religion law art concepts of modernity the body and health thereby covering comprehensively the intellectual history of the period      The Old Testament Prophecy of the Consummation of God's Kingdom Conrad Orelli, 1885      Divine-Human Encounter Harold Kasimow, 2024-05-30 In his seminal work God in Search of Man Heschel illustrates three paths to God and provides a practical guide for how the modern mind can open itself to God or more precisely through which the contemporary mind can respond to a God who is in search of human beings In this book Harold Kasimow clarifies the meaning of Heschel's path to God by devoting one chapter to each of the three aspects of this path Using this path to God in its three aspects as an organizing principle this book illustrates how Heschel's thought presents a balance between the rational and mystical poles of the Jewish tradition A careful content analysis of his thinking reveals that Heschel is an authentic Jewish voice who presents an accurate Jewish theology The first chapter is devoted to the Hasidic influence on Heschel which Kasimow feels is most important for understanding Heschel's thought The final chapter focuses on Heschel's unique attitude toward Asian religious traditions which are becoming critical for authentic religious dialogue today      Mom's Everything Book for Sons Becky Freeman, Becky Freeman Johnson, 2003 Short practical suggestions offer mothers ideas to build a quality relationship with their eight to 12 year old sons following the pattern set in Luke 2:52
