Thinking Critically John Chaffee, 1994 Thinking Critically 8 e teaches the fundamental thinking reasoning reading and writing abilities that students need for academic success The text begins with basic skills related to personal experience and then carefully progresses to the more sophisticated reasoning skills required for abstract academic contexts Thinking Critically introduces students to the cognitive process while teaching them to develop their higher order thinking and language abilities A number of distinctive characteristics make the text an effective tool for both instructors and students Exercises discussion topics and writing assignments encourage active participation stimulating students to critically examine their own and others thinking Film in Contemporary Southeast Asia David C. L. Lim, Hiroyuki Yamamoto, 2012-03-12 This book discusses contemporary film in all the main countries of Southeast Asia and the social practices and ideologies which films either represent or oppose It shows how film acquires signification through cultural interpretation and how film also serves as a site of contestations between social and political agents seeking to promote challenge or erase certain meanings messages or ideas from public circulation A unique feature of the book is that it focuses as much on films as it does on the societies from which these films emerge it considers the reasons for film makers taking the positions they take the positions and counter positions taken the response of different communities and the extent to which these interventions are connected to global flows of culture and capital The wide range of subjects covered include documentaries as political interventions in Singapore political film makers collectives in the Philippines and films about prostitution in Cambodia and patriotism in Malaysia and the Chinese in Indonesia The book analyses films from Burma Laos Cambodia Vietnam Thailand Malaysia Singapore Indonesia and the Philippines across a broad range of productions such as mainstream and independent features across genres for example comedy patriotic political historical genres alongside documentary classic and diasporic films Chapter 7 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license The Cumulative Book Index , 1998 A world list of books in the English language Logic and Contemporary Rhetoric Howard Kahane, Nancy

Cavender,1998 Contemporary Art in Singapore Gunalan Nadarajan,Russell Storer,Eugene Tan,2007 Knowledge, Control and Critical Thinking in Singapore Leonel Lim,2015-09-07 This book examines how critical thinking is regulated in Singapore through the process of what the influential sociologist of education Basil Bernstein termed pedagogic recontextualization The ability of critical thinking to speak to alternative possibilities and individual autonomy as well as its assumptions of a liberal arrangement of society is problematized in Singapore s socio political climate By examining how such curricular discourses are taken up and enacted in the classrooms of two schools that cater to very different groups in society the book foregrounds the role of traditional high status knowledge in the elaboration of class formation and develops a critical understanding of post developmental state initiatives linked to the parable of modernization in Singapore Knowledge Control and Critical Thinking in Singapore offers chapters on Critical Thinking and the Singapore State Meritocracy Illiberalism and Neoliberalism Sacred Knowledge and Elite Dispositions Recontextualizing Critical Thinking in an Elite School Power Knowledge and Symbolic Control Official Pedagogic Identities and the Politics of Recontextualization This book will appeal to scholars in comparative education studies curriculum studies and education reform It will also interest scholars engaged in Asian studies who are struggling to understand issues of education policy formation and implementation particularly in the areas of critical thinking and other knowledge skills Singapore, a Modern Asian City-state Brigitte Sie Kok Hwa,1997 Zsfassung in niederl nd Sprache Asianism and the Politics of Regional Consciousness in Singapore Leong Yew,2013-11-20 Over the last two decades Singapore has undergone a substantial degree of Asianization Apart from participating in the Asian values debate of the 1990s re visioning itself as New Asia and a global Asian hub and establishing Asian identities for the commodities it consumes and produces Singapore has also repurposed its modernity cultures and ethos along similar regionalist precepts However even in recent times Singapore continues to vacillate ambivalently between identifying with and differentiating itself from Asia Responding to the challenges Singapore faces in coming to terms with its Asian identity this book examines the complex cultural social and political underpinnings that have shaped Singapore s mainstream discourse on Asia Indeed it argues that its legacy as a colonial port city the exigencies of managing the post independence nation state and the larger forces of imperialism and capitalism all contribute to its politics of Asianism Taking a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach that spans history cultural studies postcolonialism and cultural geography Leong Yew reveals how Asia has been used to narrate Singapore s beginnings revalidate Singaporean ethnic culture and to consolidate its practices of consumption and commodification This book will be welcomed by students and scholars working across a range of fields including Asian culture and society Asian politics cultural theory and postcolonial studies The Gender/sexuality Reader Roger N. Lancaster,Micaela Di Leonardo,1997 Textbook on gender Proselytizing and the Limits of Religious Pluralism in Contemporary Asia Juliana Finucane,R. Michael Feener,2013-10-21 This volume brings together a range of critical studies that explore diverse ways in which processes of globalization pose new challenges and offer new opportunities for religious groups to propagate their beliefs in contemporary Asian contexts. Proselytizing tests the limits of religious pluralism as it is a practice that exists on the border of tolerance and intolerance. The practice of proselytizing presupposes not only that people are freely choosing agents and that religion itself is an issue of individual preference. At the same time, however, it also raises fraught questions about belonging to particular communities and heightens the moral stakes involved in such choices. In many contemporary Asian societies, questions about the limits of acceptable proselytic behavior have taken on added urgency in the current era of globalization. Recognizing this, the studies brought together here serve to develop our understandings of current developments as it critically explores the complex ways in which contemporary contexts of religious pluralism in Asia both enable and are threatened by projects of proselytization.
